

Good Things With Pears

Pear Pudding.

Beat two eggs until light and a pint of stale breadcrumbs, a pint of diced pears, a level tablespoonful of butter, one quarter cupful of sugar, a quarter teaspoonful of cinnamon, a pinch of salt and a cupful and a half of milk. Mix well and bake in a buttered baking dish in a hot oven until firm. Serve hot with lemon sauce or any other favorite sweet sauce.

Preserved Pears.

The ingredients are: Three pounds of pears, three cupfuls of sugar and 5 cents' worth of ginger root. Pare and core the pears and cut into eighths. Add the sugar and ginger root and heat slowly. Cook until the pears are tender and seal while hot in sterilized glass jars. The juice of three lemons and grated rind of one is a pleasing addition and should be added with the sugar.

Pear Dessert.

Pare and slice six pears. Sprinkle with a few drops of lemon juice. Whip three-quarters of a cupful of thick cream until stiff, add two tablespoonfuls of sugar and one teaspoonful of vanilla extract. Heap the cream on the pears, sprinkle with a third cupful of chopped walnuts or pecans and garnish with any berries in season.

Pear Compote.

Four good sized pears, two oranges, half a cupful of grated cocoanut and some canned pineapple juice are the ingredients necessary for this dish. Place alternate layers of sliced pears, shredded oranges and cocoanut in glass dessert dishes. Cover with pineapple juice and top with a spoonful of whipped cream for each portion. Serve with plain or sponge cake.

Many Uses For Kerosene

One housewife has made the remark, "If I were allowed but one cleaning agent besides soap and water I would choose kerosene oil." This remark is worthy of thought and trial.

This woman dips her broom into water to which have been added a few spoonfuls of kerosene. The broom is then beaten to remove the water. It removes the dust from bare floors and even from carpets without raising any, which is impossible when a dry broom is used.

Dustless mops and dusters can be made at home of old stockings well soaked in oil and aired before using.

The woman quoted above washes windows with water containing a few drops of oil. She mops her floors with the same and uses the kerosene in cleaning her sink, tubs, wringer and woodwork.

GOOD HOMEMADE PASTE.

Mix a pound—a quart—of flour, a dram of boric acid, half an ounce of nitric acid, a dram of clove oil with two quarts of water. Boil the same as for starch and strain through cheesecloth into glass jars.

This paste can be made in any quantity, of course, by using the proper proportions.

Creamed Turnips.

Pare, but do not cube, young white turnips. Boil until tender and drain. Arrange in baking dish and pour over it a white sauce. Cover with buttered crumbs and brown in a quick oven.

THE FUTURE.

Why make yourself sick with worry about the future when that worry cannot possibly help matters? Anxiety is the poison of human life, the parent of many sins and of more miseries. Can your solicitude alter the cause or unravel the intricacy of human events? To provide against every important danger by the employment of the most promising means is the office of wisdom, but at this point wisdom stops.—Blair.

Pendleton Normal School Proven Necessity

(Copied from Portland Oregonian.)

MONMOUTH, Ore., June 26.—The Oregon Normal school opened this week . . . students enrolled 785, largest on record for state Normal in Oregon . . . how to care for large student body a problem . . . 800 being crowded into auditorium with seating capacity of 550. Galleries filled with extra chairs in aisles. More than 150 students seated on platform. New boarding houses completed, additions to rooming houses built and tents used. One hundred girls sleep on upper floor of school.

The official school report gives 150 grade pupils in Monmouth, for teacher practice.

Read what those you have elected to handle the affairs of your state and who are thoroughly informed regarding school conditions in Oregon have to say concerning measure 308 on the ballot at the coming election:

By James Withycombe, Governor of Oregon:

"Oregon is unquestionably in need of more normal school work and Pendleton is the logical place for a school of this class in Eastern Oregon."

By J. A. Churchill, State Superintendent of Public Instruction:

"I trust that the voters of the State will assist in raising the standard of our schools by establishing a State Normal School at Pendleton."

By P. L. Campbell, President of the University of Oregon:

"At least one additional Normal School is urgently needed in Oregon."

By W. J. Kerr, President of the Oregon Agricultural College:

"Since the people of Pendleton are initiating a measure for the establishment of a Normal School at that place, it will give me pleasure to support this measure."

By J. H. Ackerman, President Oregon Normal School, at Monmouth:

"A careful analysis of the situation will convince any one that Oregon needs a Normal School in Eastern Oregon and Pendleton fills all the government requirements."

By the County School Superintendents of Oregon:

"Resolved, that it is the sense of the County School Superintendents of the State of Oregon, in convention assembled, that the best interests of the schools of the State demand increased facilities for the training of teachers, and that we, therefore, endorse the initiative measure to establish a Normal School at Pendleton."

By Mrs. Charles H. Castner, President of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs:

"I most heartily endorse the location of said Normal School at Pendleton."

Prof. Robert C. French, Former President of the Normal School Located at Weston:

"An immediate establishment of such a school at some central point such as Pendleton would prove a great asset to the State of Oregon."

B. F. Mulkey, Ex-President Southern Oregon Normal School:

"I shall support the location of an Eastern Oregon Normal School at Pendleton."

State Board of Regents of Oregon Normal School declares that "the necessity for additional Normal school facilities in Oregon is apparent."

Portland Chamber of Commerce endorses measure 308 and says Pendleton most logical location for Normal school in Eastern Oregon.

First Wind Gauge.

An instrument for measuring the force of the wind was first contrived in 1667.

Dusty Shoes.

Dusty shoes are always hotter than bright ones because polished shoes throw off the heat.

Life Insurance.

The first life insurance society was started in London in 1698 and another in 1700. Neither was successful.

Letter Postage.

Letter postage was reduced from 3 to 2 cents an ounce or fraction thereof on March 4, 1888.

Persian Bread.

In Persia dough for making bread is rolled out as thin as a pancake and as long as an ordinary towel.

Where He Fell Down.

"Can you spell well?"
"Well, not if it's an artesian."—Boston Transcript.

Blessed Ignorance.

"How much does it cost you to run this yacht, old chap?"
"If I knew I wouldn't do it."—Life.

Wrong Deduction.

"Who breaks, pays."
"Oh, no; not if they're broke."—Baltimore American.

Beyond Count.

"I want some powders for insects."
"How many, sir?"
"Oh, millions!"—London Opinion.

Unkind.

"They say that ignorance is bliss."
"How perfectly blissful you must be then."—Detroit Free Press.
