mun began his football career at Tufts, where he was considered about the best man on the team. His work was polished up last year by Percy Haughton, and now he is one of the most dependable men on the team.

GOPHERS' ORIENTAL ATHLETE

Captain Wen Ping Pan, Chinese Student, an All Around Star.

The University of Minnesota boasts of an athlete who has not only distinguished himself upon Northrop field, but also won fame in the far east. Wen Ping Pan, captain of the Minnesota soccer football team, bears the distinction of being one of the greatest athletes of the orient.

Pan attracted the attention of sport followers the world over three years ago when he won the pentathlon in the all eastern Olympic games at Manila. In these games he competed against the leading athletes of China, Japan, India, the Malay archipelago and the Philippines.

Wen Ping Pan was born in Shanghai, China. He prides himself on his pure Chinese descent.

Since entering the University of Minnesota one year and a half ago Pan has entered into all sorts of athletic sports. When soccer football was established at Minnesota last year Pan and his brother, Wen H. Pan, won places on the first Minnesota soccer team. Both of the Pan brothers distinguished themselves by their aggressive playing and by their cool generalship. Wen Ping Pan's election to the captaincy of the university soccer team was unanimous.
