The Magazines Will Stop Promptly When Time Is Up

Today's is the foremost woman's magazine of the country. During the year, this magazine will print several complete novels by some of the best known authors of the day. These books will sell for $1.25 each, after they have appeared in Today's Magazine.

In addition to these novels, you get from 40 to 50 of the best short stories now being written by living masters of fiction. No other magazine in America can begin to compare with Today's at the price.

Then, too, Today's will give a complete course in Domestic Science, covering every phase of home-making from cooking, and hygiene to dressmaking and millinery. And last, but not least, you will need Today's because it contains the best and newest styles each month.

Woman's World, the magazine of two million readers is a big, clean, high class publication of interest to every member of the family; and this year, it will be bigger and better than ever. It will contain several serial stories, numerous short stories and hundreds of instructive articles on various subjects.

Home Life is a beautifully illustrated, high grade magazine. Its household departments are practical and interesting. A favorite magazine in a million homes.

Better Farming is a monthly publication for the busy farmer who wants to keep in touch with the latest and best methods. It is helpful and practical and covers every phase of farm work. Many farmers save each month's issue and use them as a reference library.

$1.25

For the Gloverdale Courier and the above four high class Magazines.

You can't afford to pass up a bargain so full of genuine merit. The high cost of paper has forced many magazines and newspapers to increase their price and we have no assurance that this splendid offer will hold good longer than the month of March.
