At a recent meeting of the State Highway commission held at Salem, at which Herbert Nunn, the newly chosen state engineer, was present; a decision was reached that where the law requires counties to prepare a highway before it is hard surfaced, the hard surface shall include the base. The effect of the decision will be that the county will only have to bring the highway to a grade and drain it.

An offer was made by John W. Boyer, owner of the toll road on the Salmon river, to sacrifice it free of charge if the state and Tillamook county would properly improve the road.

A couple of boys who reside in St. Johns found their way to this city on Tuesday enroute down the coast. Their names are Coy Donaldson and Leonard Leifur, aged about 15 years each. Sheriff Campbell picked them up at the Trask river bridge near Lisbergs, they having told one of the townsmen they were on the way to Sheridan. They were kept at a local hotel and sent back to Portland on the train Wednesday. It appeared from the boys' story that they have not a very pleasant home and had started out to find a better one. Methods to Observe In Laundering Colored Silks

For silks, which are now a part of the everyday washing, clean lukewarm water in which good white soap has been dissolved should be used, and there is no need of soda or any of the washing powders, says the Ladies' World. Make a good suds, wash the silk garments, such as crepe de chine, washable satin, pussy willow silk, with as little rubbing as possible, remembering that two soapy waters are far better than one which has been overused. Rinse in several lukewarm waters, and if a white silk a few drops of bluing may be added to the last water.

Much of the new underwear is flesh colored or delicate pink. This color is likely to remain with the method just described; but, to retint, pink coloring may be put into the last water. This may be done by soaking a little colored tissue paper in water or using water color dyes.

The method that has been suggested for white silks will be successful for colored silks and wools as well. All three are composed of delicate fibers and should be washed without rubbing with water no warmer than the temperature of the hand and good quality white soap in the form of a suds. All waters that are used for these fabrics should be of the same temperature, the work should be done as rapidly as is consistent with good results, and the drying should be out of the sun. It is well to press the colored silks in a towel before hanging, as this will absorb surplus moisture and avoid streaks.

YOU men get to putting reliance into good stock. Ever since you learned of the rich tobacco of which W-B CUT Chewing is made, there has been a big and increasing demand for it. The idea of shredding the leaf, so that you can get at the tobacco satisfaction without so much grinding and spitting, has made a winning with men also. The little chew that lasts and satisfies is the thing.
