Lovers of the terpsichorean art are making weekly pilgrimages to Pacific City where the gay girls and the dapper young men glide over the floor to the music furnished by Folemer's orchestra. The whirl of enchanted bewilderment seems to have touched the popular chori and great seems to be the enjoyment thereof. Saturday, September 1, at the usual evening hour, another one of the popular dances will be held in the resort city of this end of the county. The management issues a special invitation for all lovers of dancing to attend this Saturday evening dance.

Dr. Wall, of Hood River, who has been on an outing in this end of the county, received a call at this place yesterday from the department of war to report at St. Louis, Mo., for special training, preparatory to joining the surgical corps.

John Weisa and son Henry brought two big bridge timbers measuring 14x16 inches, each 35 feet long, into town on their motor truck Saturday. Some load. It wouldn't surprise us to see them come down the road some day with the entire mill, lumber yard and all.

A young son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Heaton was quite badly hurt last Sunday when an automobile in which the boy had accepted a ride went over the grade north of Cloverdale. The boy received a gash on the face and had his foot lacerated. The other occupants of the car escaped uninjured.

Car and Cow Collide.
Cloverdale people were considerably agitated last evening when news reached here that Commissioner Owens' car which was driven by his son Howard and containing Mrs. Owens and children had met with an accident.

Accompanying the Owens family in the car was a guest, Miss Zola Carey, of Hillsboro.

Howard was driving at a pretty rapid rate and was nearing the end of the pavement when a cow started across the road and before he could dodge the animal or stop the car collided with the cow. The car swerved and rolled over.

The occupants of the car were bruised and shaken up considerably. Miss Carey seems to have fared the worse, having received two flesh wounds in the face.

No serious results are anticipated. The car, a six cylinder Saxon, is badly demolished.

Aviator Hurt.
Aviator Ralph Hansen, who made the flight yesterday from Seaside to the fair grounds at Tillamook met with a mishap as he was endeavoring to land.

As his aeroplane struck the ground it summersaulted and Mr. Hansen was caught under the machine. It took some time before he could be extricated. He received several flesh wounds and it is reported this morning that he has a broken nose and a broken arm. The aeroplane is a total wreck.

Notice to the Public.

Another Opportunity to do Your Bit.
Anyone wishing to do a "bit" in a patriotic way may do so by hunting up all the old white muslins or linens that may be found in the home and donating them to the W. C. T. U.

These goods are much needed for making lint used in staunching wounds. It is said that sometimes paper and even straw have been used to staunch wounds as nothing better was at hand.

Our W. C. T. U. is just now making a specialty of collecting as many pounds of these goods as possible by September 7th, the date of our next meeting, when we will send our collection away. We will meet on that date at the home of Mrs. Joe Wilson and would be glad to have as many as possible to come in person and bring donations, but if it is not convenient to come, send donations to Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Ott or Mrs. Blum in time so it can be taken to the meeting. It doesn't matter how old the cloth, just so its white and clean.

In the last six weeks eastern Multnomah county farmers have lost more than 100 animals from the same cause that caused the death of livestock in Klamath county, according to S. B. Hall, Multnomah county agriculturist. But the apparent poisoning, declares Mr. Hall, is a contagious blood poison, which is incurable in the advanced stages.

WOODS ITEMS.
A stirring debate was conducted on the camp grounds Thursday night. The vital question at issue being: Resolved, that an untidy, good natured wife made a better companion than a tidy cross wife, and, of course, the good natured wife was chosen, as she should have been.

Judging from the amount of claims that are carried past the sawmill every day, it will be necessary for them to form a protective association. They come in pails, buckets and in sacks, carried by children, by women in bloomers and in skirts, by old men and by young men, sometimes singly and often on a pole between two.

Should this spell of dry weather continue Pacific City water supply will be limited.

Mr. Fisher, Amos Babcock, Mrs. Weldner, and Mrs. Lavander were Tillamook visitors on Saturday.

Several of our people are preparing to head off the draft by volunteering.

The dredge that has been doing such extensive work in the Little Nestucca river has moved some distance up the Big Nestucca river.

It is said there are many fish coming in along the beach, supposedly after the smelt. Not a bad thing for war times.

The new truck that is going to haul lumber from Pacific City to Tillamook is expected in this week. It is said to be a fine machine.

The meetings Sunday morning at the Chapel and in the evening on the camp grounds were well attended. Rev. McConnell, of Dallas, spoke at each meeting. Those missing his talk missed a treat.

Mr. Beals came to Pacific City Saturday night, leaving Sunday morning by machine for Willamina, from which point he took the train to Portland where he expects to spend a few days. Dr. Montgomery and wife accompanied him as far as Willamina, returning by the way of Tait, Oregon. They say the one great need of the Siletz country is better road. They returned home late Monday night.

There was an interesting service on the camp grounds Wednesday evening, with special songs followed by a talk by Rev. McConnell. He is soon going back to his work and says he has greatly enjoyed his visit here. He is pastor of a church of 500 members and expects to commence a series of meetings soon after his return home.

Don't forget the regular service at the chapel Sunday morning and the camp fire service in the evening at Pacific City.
Mr. Beals has a large force filling his silos.

Correspondence Lessons in Harmony and Composition

BY DR. ALFRED WOOLER
Composer, Teacher and Director

All musicians, whether director, teacher, pianist or vocalist should understand Harmony. Instruction in this branch of study should, whenever possible, be taken from an expert teacher. However, it is not always convenient, nor possible for one to leave town and study in person with such a teacher.

For the accommodation of such Dr. Alfred Wooler, of Buffalo, N. Y., has perfected a most thorough course in Harmony and Composition that is simple, concise and practical, which he teaches successfully by mail.

If interested, write for prospectus and rates.

Address
Alfred Wooler, Mus. Doc.
Suite C, 322 West Utica St.,
BUFFALO, N. Y.

P. S.—Dr. Wooler also corrects amateurs' musical compositions, and writes music to poems. Those desiring such service must send their M. S. or poem for estimate of cost. Prices are reasonable.
