

LAUGH TO-DAY

TO-MORROW YOU MAY NOT FEEL LIKE IT.

CORRECTION.

"Did you call Bliggins a pin-head?"
"Yes."
"Well, you're wrong. A pinhead can be polished."

AWESOME AUTHORITY.

"I'll bet one cook ain't so high and mighty."
"Which one?"
"The one where the food dictator boards."

NECESSARY SLACKING.

"Did you bring up your boy to be a slacker, my dear woman?"
"No, ma'am, but then somebody's got to tend to the lime work in this business."

NATURAL PROCEEDING.

"Pa, do they muzzle poets?"
"Of course not, child. Why do you ask?"
"But don't poets have a license as well as dogs?"

SUSPICIOUS GRIEF.

"Is Mrs. Oldboy in mourning for her husband?"
"How do I know? I'm no mind-reader."

THE PRELIMINARIES.

"Now, my boy, I want you to settle down."
"All right, father. Then you'll have to help me to settle up."

LEAVING A LOOPHOLE.

She—When you ask me to marry you why do you laugh?
He—Well, I don't like to get too serious about such matters.

HOARDING.

"Is Bliggins a miser?"
"I shouldn't say that. He's liberal with money. But he's terribly stingy with a bucket of coal."

A PROSAIC AFFAIR

"Anything romantic about their wedding?"
"Nothing whatever. She can cook, and he has a job."

STUNG.

"Did you get that recipe on how to prevent your hair from falling out you sent the dollar for?"
"I did. The recipe read: 'Quarrel with your wife and get it pulled out.'"

IN HIS LINE.

"What have we here?" asked the doctor.
"Box of canned lobster," said the freight agent.
"That ought to interest a doctor. Looks like a case of indigestion."

SOME MELON!

A watermelon raised in the Rocky Ford district of Colorado, is said to be the largest melon ever grown. It weighed 200 pounds, and was nearly five feet high.

AT THE BOARDING HOUSE.

First Boarder (indignantly)—This hash is an insult!
Second Ditto—Swallow it, dear boy, swallow it!

SOME MIGHT BE MISSING.

"Been hunting today, stranger?"
"Yes."
"Shot anything?"
"I don't know—I'm waiting for the rest of the party to get into camp so that we can call the roll."—Country Gentleman.

THE OBSTACLE.

"Don't cast that actor for an old salt in the play."
"Why not?"
"Because he's too fresh."

CYNICAL COMMENT.

"I'm just crazy to have a monkey for a pet."
"How we all do long for the society of our kind!"

NOT POSSIBLE.

"I lost heavily in that electrical concern."
"How could you lose heavily in a light investment?"

SPECIFICATIONS.

"Is your friend in good standing at the bar?"
"Well, it's good enough for a treat to the crowd."

THE RETORT COURTEOUS.

He—You women have a mania for getting cheap things.
She—Yes; I suppose that is how I came to marry you.

A DIFFERENT KIND.

"We had shortcake for dinner today."
"So had we—so short it wouldn't go around."

WHEREIN THE RESEMBLANCE.

"She reminds me of the sea."
"Howzat?"
"She looks green—but, sometimes she's awful rough."

NO DOUBT.

"Do you think that girl makes a habit of reflection?"
"Does she? She's forever at the looking glass."

SUGGESTIVE DEPRECIATION.

Tom—What do you think of the new styles for women with pockets on their dresses?
Dick (gloomily)—Nothing in em.

ALIMONY.

She—What's the meaning of "giving comfort to the enemy?"
He—I think it means "payin' alimony."—Cartoons.

POOR FELLOW

Tom—Slowboy proposed to that college graduate last night.
Dick—And was turned down?
Tom—He doesn't know. She used such big words that he couldn't understand what she was saying.

A FRIENDLY TIP

Willis—Say, Sis, I was peeping through the keyhole when George was here last night and he'd do well to read that book on "How to Make Love."

THE LATTER, PROBABLY.

Clerk—Did you notice that the office boy has dark circles under his eyes?
Cashier—Yes, but I don't know whether he needs medicine or soap.

OF COURSE.

"Jones has invented a machine to lay the dust."
"His object being to raise it, I suppose."

AMONG EXPLORERS.

"What's the use of going to the North pole? It has been discovered."
"Yes. But once in a while somebody has to get out and see whether what was discovered is an optical illusion."

SERIOUS REFLECTIONS.

"A man is happiest by his own fireside."
"He is, if he can keep his mind off the cost of coal."

HIS CONDITION.

"What a sad picture the czar and his family must make, taken off to Siberia."
"Yes, a regular movie picture."

SPOILING HIM.

"They're spoiling that child."
"In what way?"
"They're giving him potatoes twice a day."

WELL DONE.

She—How long will they be raw recruits?
He—Until the veterans finish roasting them!—Puck.

THE REASON.

"You seemed to have bottled up your wrath on this expedition."
"No wonder; we had such a corking good time."

THE WHOLE STORY.

"When a man is angry he tells you what he thinks of you."
"Yes; and when a woman is angry she tells you what she thinks of you and what everybody else thinks of you."

COULD BE WORSE.

"What do you think of the two candidates?"
"All I can say is I'm thankful only one of them can be elected."

WENT HOME HUNGRY.

"They're certainly patriotic."
"What makes you think so?"
"I had dinner at their house the other night."

A NEW SORT.

"What are the best sellers just now?"
"I should think those full of the winter's supply of coal."

TIRED OF LIFE.

"She married to reform him."
"Well?"
"He's convinced her that she has a life job."

PLENTIFUL.

Grace—Don't you think this air wonderful up here in the country?
Ruth (whose thoughts are of the city)—Yes; there's so much of it.

CONTRARY TREATMENT.

"He had a hard time. His wife always has bills on hand."
"What does he do?"
"Foots 'em."

IMPATIENCE.

Impatience is a poor master and a hard one as well. In the impatient mood we are apt to spend far more than is required in the doing of our work, and this excess is lost. We cannot estimate the value of the power thus misplaced. When the impatient mood becomes the habit of a lifetime you can understand that failure and perhaps loss of health and energy are inevitable.
—Emily S. Bouton.

A Hair's Breadth.

Measurement by less than a hair's breadth now has a definite meaning in machine shops. In all of the large shops there are instruments that will measure the thickness of a cigarette paper, much thinner than a hair. An inch can be divided into 10,000 parts, and seventeen of these parts will make a "hair's breadth." Some of the most delicate measurements are made at the government gun factory at Washington, where many of the great guns for the army and navy are manufactured.

The word "jancet" is found in only one place in the Bible, I Kings xvii, 28. The term is not the blade used by surgeons, but appears to mean a javelin or light spear.

Hold Fast to the Dollar.

THERE is an old saying that "any fool can make a dollar, but it takes a wise man to hold it." There is one sure way of holding the dollar, and that is to bank it. When a man deposits his surplus cash he is loath to draw it out. On the contrary, if he carries the money on his person there always is the temptation to spend. Bank your money with us.
