SCARCELY a week goes by that the newspapers don't print a story of some foolish housewife who thoughtlessly started a fire in the stove where she had stored away the savings of a lifetime. Money placed in a stove or in a teapot or under a carpet does not draw interest. It is not safe from thieves. It is not safe from fire. Money deposited in a bank draws interest. The steel vaults in our bank are impervious to fire and thieves. Bank your money with us.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1918.

While the war is a dreaded thing it has done one thing for the American people. It has taught them how to give. It has been a glorious time for those who rather give than to receive. It has put in perpetual action that responsive cord of gift giving.

"What we demand in this war, therefore is nothing peculiar to ourselves. It is that the world be made fit and safe to live in; and particularly that it be made safe for every peace-loving nation which, like our own, wishes to live its own life, determine its own institutions, be assured of justice and fair dealing by the other peoples of the world as against force and selfish aggression. All the peoples of the world are in effect partners in this interest, and for our own part we see very clearly that unless justice be done to others it will not be done to us. The program of the world's peace, therefore, is our program."—President Wilson's Message of January 8.

Authority is like a fine instrument; it depends altogether on the hands that are using it. The wisest man in the world has to leave it to the mother to know what the baby is crying for. This is an age of substitutes, but we can remember the time when a small boy could count on a day's vacation every time his schoolteacher had a headache.

Macaroni and Meat Hash.

Boil a quarter of a pound of macaroni; drain and put it into a buttered casserole, adding a little clarified sausage fat. Push the macaroni to the sides of the dish and add a sprinkling of grated cheese. Fill the center with chopped cooked meat of any kind, with which a little sausage has been mixed. Moisten with meat stock. Place in the oven until hot throughout. Serve in the casserole.
