A hardiness party is one that can be thrust upon the unsuspecting public at any moment and result in a joyous good time without the usual gossip regarding the classy dresser or the bean ideal of the party. Such a party was repeated at the home of our banker, Dr. George one evening last week when about 25 of his friends bled to the bedside at the doctor's ranch home. Many comic were in evidence and a royal good time was enjoyed.

H. F. Follett, of Oretown, was in Cloverdale Tuesday. He says he received a letter from his son Frank, from somewhere in France recently and that he says they had a safe trip over and that to enlighten matters one of the transports built a dummy submarine and towed it behind the transport for the boat he was on to take a shot at. He said a few shots from the rear guns on board his boat made sad havoc of the dummy.

Korenik's and Robert's STOCK REMEDIES

Do you know that we carry two of the best lines of already prepared Stock Remedies?

If your stock is suffering from some ailment, in which a prepared remedy will give relief, you will find in these two lines a remedy that can be depended upon. We have sold these remedies for several years and can recommend them to be reliable remedies.

Now is the season when you need to watch your stock, especially cows. Don't wait till they get down but begin now to give them this attention. A small package of tonic given now will yield you greater returns later.

When in doubt about your stock, come in and let us help you.
