 Highest cash price paid for calves.—
 Claud Hall.
 Dr. Shearer was in Portland this week.
 Mrs. Phil Messner is on the sick list this week.
 Otto Wilson is spending this week in Portland visiting his sister.
 For Sale—Horse, hack and harness.
 Enquire at Courier office.
 It is reported John Lockwood will be helper in the Cloverdale cheese factory again this summer.
 Mrs. Robert Watt, of Tillamook, visited at the W. A. High home the last of the week.
 Mrs. Harvey Ebinger is visiting her husband at Vancouver and Mrs. Cloyd Dawson, of Tillamook, is teaching in the primary room during her absence.
 Mrs. F. A. Bailey returned home Monday from a visit to Portland, accompanied by her son, Coy. They expect Elmer home from camp Sunday for a visit.

E. J. Hunter returned the latter part of last week from a trip to Portland where he made arrangements for a trip to the fishing grounds of Alaska. He expects to leave in a few days for that country.

Because of the change in the weight limit of parcels post packages, which took effect March 15, 1918, it has been decided not to award a contract under the previous advertisement for service from July 1, 1918, on the three routes from Cloverdale. Weight limit 70 lbs. in first, second and third zones and 50 lbs in all other zones.

Cloverdale gets the best and highest Holstein cattle that was sold at the Holstein sale at Tillamook Tuesday last.
 F. R. Beals purchased at this sale Maple-crest High Lawn Korndyke, No.
 292405, at $1,100 and Maple-crest Nina Pontiac, No. 284542, at $775. These two blooded cows were delivered to Mr.
 Beals' Cloverdale ranch yesterday morning. The Beals herd owned in Cloverdale is undoubtedly the best herd of Holstein cattle in the county and we are glad to know that our new rancher believes in dairying with the best registered stock obtainable.

We are a little late in announcing the marriage of V. F. Learned, one of the soldiers from Cloverdale, to Miss Grace Edmunds, of Pacific City, which took place at Portland Monday, March 11.
 Previous to his enlisting Mr. Learned was one of Cloverdale's business men and has a large circle of friends in this end of the county. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Edmunds, of Pacific City, and is cultured and highly respected young lady. The Courier and their many friends wish them all the joys of a happy wedded life.

Phares Stiverson left this morning for camp at Fort Stevens, after a five days leave of absence. Phares looks rugged and healthy and says camp life agrees with him. From what he tells us the camp boys are all anxious to see active service. The last selection of men were made by taking a list of the names of the members of the company and turning it over to a captain of another company and he checks up the names of those who are to embark. In this manner there is no crowding to get to the front. Phares thinks if his name had been Smith or Jones he might have been one of the lucky defenders of the country to have been called, but expects before long to get his orders to leave.
 While here he seemed to be enjoying himself shaking hands with his former friends and getting his feet under the table of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Kraner. He says his aunt can beat the world when it comes to getting the good things to eat.

The Sunday School Rally at Beaver last Sunday was a very pleasant affair and well attended. The morning was devoted to song service and a short talk by Dr. Robinson and at noon tables were spread and a fine picnic dinner was enjoyed by all. At one o'clock the afternoon service was taken up. Members of the different Sunday Schools gave recitations and songs. Dr. Robinson conducted a quiz for both juniors and seniors and he surely made it interesting. The county president, Mrs.
 C. J. Edwards, then announced the question box or round table and many good suggestions and helps for the work were brought out. The question that seemed uppermost in everyone's mind was "Why don't the parents interest themselves in the Sunday School work?" Rev. Dora Young gave a short talk on missions that was good. John

AUCTION SALE

Auction sale of milk cows, at the Fair Grounds, Tillamook, Oregon, Saturday, March 23, 1918, beginning at 10 a. m. sharp. 35 cows 1 3/4 year old Guernsey Bull, 3 Brood sows, 10 small pigs. Cows tubercular tested. Terms cash or bankable notes.

 Ira G. Lance, Auctioneer.

War Butter.

To each pound of butter use one pint rich milk, one tablespoon of gelatine, one tablespoon of salt. Cream the butter as for cake, squeezing it through the hands. Dissolve the gelatine in the pint of boiling hot milk and stir until thoroughly mixed. When about luke warm (warm as new milk) pour slowly over creamed butter, to which has been added the salt, and beat with egg beater until well mixed, smooth and thick. Pile on plate. This is a tried recipe and very satisfactory.

WOODS ITEMS.

D. D. Miller made a trip to the valley, with his car, last week and returned Saturday morning. He traveled on the new road for five miles, each way (that is the one under the old one) and made fairly good progress running on low, with an extra good team of horses, hitched onto the machine. If you are going over the mountain better wait for some more pleasant days.

Mr. Beals spent most of last week in Portland looking after the interests of the Pacific City mill.

Mrs. Byron Randall returned last Saturday from visiting relatives, at New-berg.

It is reported that one of our most popular girls, Miss Grace Edmunds, has cast her lot with one of Uncle Sam's soldiers, by wedding Vic Learned, who is now stationed at Vancouver Washington. We shall greatly miss Miss Edmunds. Our best wishes go with the couple and as soon as they have helped can the Kaiser we trust they will make their home again in our pleasant little valley.

Mrs. Fisher writes while passing thru Wyoming that the weather is far different than Oregon's balmy days, the ground there is covered with snow and is quite cold. She and the children are well and they are enjoying the trip.

 GRANT SIX
 Now Coming

This is the largest and finest car that ever carried the GRANT SIX name plate—a car that is without real competition in its Price class.

The individual beauty of its lines, its unusual size and its extraordinary mechanical refinement, will make this new model one of the most talked of cars of the coming season.

Its powerful, flexible and remarkably smooth-running engine is of the overhead valve type with balanced crank-shaft, forced-feed oiling and many other advanced features.
