FOREST FIRE LOSS IN 1917 FAR LESS THAN IN FORMER DRY YEARS.

Losses from fires in National forest last year amounted to $1,358,000, according to figures compiled by the Forest Service. While the loss was larger than for several years, it was unusually light considering the dangerous conditions. Protracted drought and periods of high winds made conditions virtually the same as in 1910, when $25,000,000 worth of timber on national forests was destroyed.

Careless campers were responsible for 1,288 fires, Railroads, partly through failure to comply with the law, set 1,905, while the number of incendiary fires is given as 452. The total number of fires fought was 7,814. All but 2,132, set by lightning, were caused by human agencies.

During the first year of war the United States Army has increased in actual strength from 9,524 officers and 202,510 enlisted men to 123,801 officers and 1,528,924 enlisted men. Strength of the Navy to-day is nearly 21,000 officers and 330,000 enlisted men; strength a year ago was 4,792 officers and 77,946 enlisted men. The total number of persons now in the Naval Establishment exceeds 425,000.

The first contingent of the expeditionary forces landed safely at a French port 88 days after war was declared. American troops went on their line for their baptism of fire 187 days after war was declared.

Nearly 73,000 mechanics and other civilian employees are working at navy yards and stations.

More than 700 privately owned vessels have been purchased or chartered by the navy.

Some 300 woolen mills are working on Army contracts.

Over 20,000,000 pairs of shoes have been ordered for the Army.

Treasury Department floated $6,616,532,300 subscriptions to Liberty bonds. Loans to a total of $3,882,900,000 had been made to cobelligerent nations to end of 1917.

Total weight of steel thrown by a single broadside from the Pennsylvania to-day is 17,508 pounds; maximum broadside of largest ship during Spanish-American War was 5,660 pounds.

Two weeks after war was declared contracts had been made covering the requirements of an Army of 1,000,000 men, this material comprising 8,700,000 items.

More than 11,000 manufacturers bid for navy business.

Total deaths in the Army from April 6, 1917, to March 14, for all causes, was reported by The Adjutant General's Office to be 1,191. Of this number, 132 were reported as killed in action and 237 died or were lost at sea. The total number wounded in action was 404. Thirty-five men have been reported as missing;

28 of them are said to have been captured. Casualties in the Navy and Marine Corps from April 6 to December 31, 1917, include 5 naval officers and 139 enlisted men, killed or died from wounds. No officers were reported as wounded in action, but 10 enlisted men were so reported.

An Easter Program at Oretown.

An Easter program, under the direction of Mrs. Rock, ably assisted by Miss Eva Etzweiler and Miss Sanstrom, was successfully rendered at the Oretown church last Sunday.

The attendance was good and those who participated in the services deserve much credit. The children did remarkably well. The program was as follows:

The Angel's Harp was made by Mrs. Follett. The closing selection was a full dress recital of the "Prisoners of Sin Saved by Grace." The three prisoners were represented by Anna Christensen, Roy Redberg and Elma Carver. They were under the charge of the death guard of six soldiers with spears until the bearer of Christianity brought to them the message of Joy. The soldiers were Ralph Redberg, Zodie Etzweiler, Walter Otzen, Herbert Redberg, Oral Ray, Arnold Jensen. The bearer of the message of joy was Miss Eva Etzweiler, who directed the prisoners Heavenward. Then their robes of sin fell from them and they gradually climbed toward the Angel, represented by Esther Otzen, who awaited them. The audience, Eva Etzweiler and Mrs. Fogg and the prisoners assisted with the singing during this selection.

Will Christensen presented the subject of the Liberty Loan in a short address followed by closing prayer by Mrs. Rock.

Easter Song.

Try this Easter Song to the tune of Blue Bird. Composed by Mrs. S. H. Rock, of Oretown, and sung by the little Misses Marian and Hazel Etzweiler on Easter Sunday in Oretown church.

Jesus was crucified, Romans and Jews deride.
Jesus laid in the grave amid death and gloom.
Mary early came there, her love, spices to share.
She found the stone rolled back and an empty tomb.
Somewhere her Saviour has vanished an' grief makes her tear drops start.
Mary weeps in her anguish and sorrow with broken heart.
"Why weepst thou, Mary," an angel

voice speaks from the sepulchre
"Somewhere they've taken my Saviour and Lord and I know not where."
No more can death appal, no more the grave enthal.
He rose and He left the grave for Paradise.
Risen as He had said, redeemed, when hopes had fled.
Jesus rose from the tomb, He's our sacrifice.
Christ is risen, He is conqueror o'er the grave.
Christ is risen, Christ is risen, and my Jesus lives to save.
Ring out glad tidings of joy and be happy this Easter time.
Jesus, our Lord and Redeemer! Paschal Lamb! such love divine!
