WOODS ITEMS.

Albert Southmaid, of Sheridan, is with us again for the fishing season.

Mr. Golden and family, of Tillamook, are spending a few days at the beach with Mr. Fisher.

Mr. York, the genial mill man, from Hemlock, is improving the Pacific City mill.

Mrs. Byron Randall has returned home after several weeks stay with her mother, at Newberg, who is in failing health but has slightly improved.

Pacific City and Woods were quite well represented on the Beals ranch at Neskowin, cutting and harvesting hay this week.

Mr. O'Connell, of Cloverdale, is keeping nightly guard over the Pacific City mill.

Barney Knoblock was a Tillamook visitor this week.

Mr. Beals has nearly completed a new camp store on the camp ground.

Mr. Charland has built an excellent new boat for Mr. Fisher but for the last few days he has been on the sick list.

Mrs. Lavender expects to visit Camp Lewis, with her daughter, Mrs. Gibson, of Cambridge, Idaho, whose husband is now in training at the camp. After which both mother and daughter may spend some time with us at the beach.

We understand that Mrs. Roberts and family have arrived at Pacific City.

Messrs Carlson, Northrup, and Montgomery accompanied by their wives held services at Hebo, Sunday night. Hebo as usual was represented by a large appreciative crowd.

Hay for Sale.

I will deliver 20 tons of hay in the bale on car at McMinnville for $30 per ton. Hay consists of Clover, Cheat, Machete and Orchard Grass, a good mixture and cured in fine shape.

Ira C. Barber,
McMinnville.

The Soldier's Chances.

Great as the danger and large as the losses in the aggregate, the individual soldier has plenty of chances of coming out of the war unscathed, or at least not badly injured.

Based on the mortality statistics of the allied armies, a soldier's chances are as follows:

Twenty-nine chances of coming home to one chance of being killed.

Forty-nine chances of recovering from wounds to one chance of dying from them.

One chance in 500 of losing a limb. Will live five years longer because of physical training, is freer from disease in the Army than in civil life, and has better medical care at the front than at home.

For those of our fighting men who do not escape scatheless, the Government under the soldier and sailor insurance law gives protection to the wounded and their dependants and to the families and dependants of those who make the supreme sacrifice for their country.

In other wars from 10 to 15 men died from disease to 1 from bullets; in this war 1 man dies from disease to every 10 from bullets.

The New GRANT SIX Now Coming

This is the largest and finest car that ever carried the GRANT SIX name plate—a car that is without real competition in its Price class.

The individual beauty of its lines, its unusual size and its extraordinary mechanical refinement, will make this new model one of the most talked of cars of the coming season.

Its powerful, flexible and remarkably smooth-running engine is of the overhead valve type with balanced crankshaft, forced-feed oiling and many other advanced features.
