Apple Shipment to Be Aided When Canal Opens

Eugene—German beer will prove a tremendous aid to the construction of the Pacific Coast, according to H. Robinson, secretary of the North Pacific Brewing Company, who spoke to the Lane county fruit growers last night. He declared that one of the characteristics of the constitution would be considered to be provided in the article at Eugene before the revolution. Some of those in touch with the revolutionists, however, indicate that the revolutionary leaders would be charged with a violation of the article against the government, but that he would express willingness to negotiate if the relations to establish a provisional government, under the providence of the federal government, would be made known to the people of the state.

The committee of thirteen representatives of the state legislature, which was organized to receive the report of the federal government, will meet here on Thursday. The committee consists of Messrs. Brown, Bown, Cave, Cady, Buck, Campbell, Daniel, Davis, R. D. Davis, J. B. Davis, J. M. Davis, J. N. Davis, and J. W. Davis.

Oregon highway halted by difference of opinions

St. Helens—With the contract for the north half of the Columbia Highway about to be let, it seems certain that the work will be underway within a few days. The contract will be divided into three sections, each section to be handled by a different contractor.

The Oregon highway has been under construction for several years, and the work is now being carried on by a number of contractors. The section to be let is about 20 miles long, and is located between Seattle and Portland. The road is being built to accommodate the growing traffic, and is expected to be completed within the next year.

The section to be let is being handled by a contractor who is well known for his work on similar projects. The contractor has already completed several sections of the highway, and is considered to be one of the most reliable contractors in the state.

The contract for the section to be let is expected to be awarded within the next few days. The contractor will be required to provide a bond in the amount of $1,000,000 to ensure the completion of the work within the specified time.

The Oregon highway is an important freeway that connects the major cities of the state. The highway is expected to provide a much-needed improvement in the transportation network, and is expected to have a significant impact on the economy of the state.

BLACK BANNER RAISED IN ITALY

New Republic Is Proclaimed by Peasants.

Ignorant Classes Are Told Rome Has Fallen—10,000 Troops to Quell Rising.

Rome—An astounding feature in the general strike situation Sunday was the spontaneous appearance in the capital of the proclamation of an Italian republic. The news of this movement was heralded by having the Aurora, in North-

The movement crosses the Alps and in a short time is being ruled by the peasants, who have already been elected to form a new government.

For more than an hour a voice of united opinion is carrying the message that Rome has been captured, thus proclaiming a republic that will be a shining beacon for the black banner of the Peasants.

All the newspapers were burned by the peasants they resisted in order to prevent the people from learning the truth. The revolutionaries had formed a committee at Rome, and the committee had prepared the way for the proclamation of the republic.

At Ancona, where the first demonstration took place on the orders of the Italian government, the official Alberico Cagni, referred to the revolutionists as "those who are trying to oppose the progress of our country." He made the revolutionary movement, as the most important event in the history of the country, and declared that King Victor Emmanuel had been the first to welcome the peasants.

The proclamation was made in the same place where the peasants had already been elected to form a new government. The new government is expected to be strongly supported by the peasants, who have already been elected to form a new government.

The movement is spreading rapidly, and is expected to be gradually spreading through the entire country. The peasants are being united by the movement, and the peasants are expected to be strongly supported by the peasants, who have already been elected to form a new government.

Personal Factor Enter into Mediation Problem

Mediation in the Mexican problem—the selection of a personal factor to enter into the mediation of the Mexican problem—has been talked about in Mexico and among the Mexican delegates. For more than an hour a voice of united opinion is carried through the country that Mexico has been captured, thus proclaiming a republic that will be a shining beacon for the black banner of the Peasants.

It is said that the highest authorities in Mexico and in foreign countries have been discussed the matter of selecting a personal factor to enter into the mediation of the Mexican problem.
