Eagle's Cheese Factory

It Looks as if it Would Soon be a Reality

(The NEWS, in its efforts toward getting a cheese factory established in Eagle, is acting to a great extent, as the dairy-men's emissary, therefore each week will advise what has been accomplished. Herewith is a letter from Frank Wallington, that is very encouraging.—EDITOR.)

Baker, Oregon, August 8, 1914
Mr. Wm. L. Flower,
Richland, Oregon;

Dear Sir:—
Yours of August 4th received, also copy of Mr. Jenson's letter to you of recent date.

We also received a letter from Mr. Jenson about your valley, and he seems very enthusiastic about the dairy possibilities there. We expect to have a man at Richland in a very short time now, and I will try and get over and talk the situation over with you. Just at present do not think it advisable to try and call the farmers together.

Mr. Jenson seems to think by making cheese both at Richland and Halfway we could get large enough quantities together so we could get refrigerator shipping facilities from Robinette, which is really necessary to get the product on the market in first class condition.

Our plant there will make an ideal factory and I feel safe in saying, if the farmers will co-operate we will be making cheese there within the next few months.

We appreciate the interest you are taking in this matter and can assure you of our hearty support and co-operation. Thanking you, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
Frank Wallington

GOOD MATCH SATURDAY

Downing Won by Decision in 10 Rounds

The best match of its kind ever seen in Eagle was the verdict of most of the enthusiasts who attended the boxing match at the Gymnasium Saturday night.

It was certainly one of the hardest contested matches ever seen here, both of the principals working with all the skill and ring tactics they could master. There was not a single knock-down nor any time during the match that both men were not in good condition. Downing had the best of the boxing however and the referee awarded the match to him on points after ten of as skillful rounds as one would want to see.

The preliminary between Kid Corson and Walter Jones did not come off as Corson did not show up until late and the main match was then about ready to be pulled off.

M'Carroll and Jack Rogers are scheduled to box ten rounds at Cornucopia the fifteenth of the month and also at this time Kid Bradford will be pitted against the winner of the Corson-Good-fellow match for six rounds.

ATTENTION, K. OF P.

The Grand Chancellor, Frank S. Grant with other members will be here on Monday, August 31st to dedicate our Castle Hall. There will be work in first and second degree. Let us turn out and do our part right. Tell others that you meet.

Fraternally, Irvine Lodge, No. 86, K. of P., by W. G. Saunders, D. G. G.

Something entirely different are the pictures shown by Parker's Electric Biograph, Thursdays at Richland, Fridays at New Bridge, they are plain and do not flicker. (Ad.)

Jim Downing and Dick Dillard returned from Baker yesterday.

LARGE DEAL IN SHEEP

By a deal recently concluded, between George Densley and Mr. Brooks, George bought one band and leased another, a total of 2,600 sheep, all ewes, added to his bands. The band leased was taken over for three years. This makes in the neighborhood of 4000 sheep that Geo. Densley owns and controls, they being split into three bands and a piece George also secured Brooks hay and the use of corrals and pasture, he is erecting a large silo for sheep feeding purposes, this being among twelve that have and are being erected this year. It is understood that close to $18,000 was involved in this deal.

Harvest Home Meeting Saturday afternoon.

YOUNG COUPLE WED

At the Methodist Parsonage Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock Elvira Harville and Ikey Hewitt were united in Wedlock by Frank Hopkins. Stella Taylor and Earnest Hewitt acted as witnesses, while the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Seigel. Some anxious moments were spent in waiting for the license which was to arrive on the stage that afternoon and as the stage did not arrive until late some anxiety was felt that the license would not arrive, however it came safely in and the young couple were made happy.

The newly weds expect to leave in a few days for Washington where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will return to Eagle Valley and make their home in its beautiful and quiet confines. They believe like many others that there is only one place to live and that is in "Famous Eagle Valley."

Jim Downing, Dick Dillard and Chas. Kellor left Richland, early Monday morning to be present at the Justice Court at Baker. It seems that the first report that Mrs. Kellor was also instigated was not true, as she was not one of those to make the trip.
