The Eagle Valley Cornet Band will give another concert in three or four weeks. Work on sketches and specialties is under way and a line of special music is being prepared for this occasion. Under Prof. Parker's instruction the band has greatly improved and will be able to render a much more diversified and melodious program of music. When last heard in concert work the band was in it's infancy and a great improvement will be noticed at the next concert.

Sensitive Fish.

Mrs. Jones, not having much confidence in the abilities of her servant, went to market herself. Approaching the fishwife's stall, she asked the price of a large carp.

"Sixty cents," was the reply.
The lady examined the fish and exclaimed:

"It's not fresh!"
"I tell you it is!" replied the fishwife.

"But it's quite flabby!"
"O, go on insulting it!" replied the fishwife, bitterly. "It can't answer you!"

And with that kindness of heart which is natural to her, Mrs. Jones bought the fish to make up for the injury to its feelings.—Judge.
