Baker Fair, Sept. 16-17-18-19.

Iowa Reddick, who has been in Pine Valley for the past several weeks, returned Sunday in order to attend the Union High School, at Richland.

These chilly days you need to keep warm; try one of our mackinaws, for any member of the family, better come in now they are going fast, Saunders Bro's (Adv.)

Maud Hally, who headed the Richland Grammar School last year, has accepted a position as instructor in the Halfway High School. The school at Halfway will have three instructors this year.

The social last Friday was not very well attended on account of the inclement weather, however those present enjoyed a good time and everything considered the proceeds from the same was not so bad.

Mrs. C. H. Brooks entertained the Young Ladies Class of the Christian Sunday School, last Friday afternoon at home. An enjoyable time was had, and after a lunch was served all departed for their respected homes.

Nothing in our Dry Goods, Notions or Furnishing Goods line has been hit by the war prices, but you can't tell how soon it will, so it is to your advantage to buy as early as possible. E. & W. CHANDLER (Adv.)

Have you inspected our line of mackinaws if not do it now don't put it off until the sizes are broken and the best patterns gone, they are going rapidly about 75 per cent to pick from and at a price that they can't be bought for elsewhere E. & W. CHANDLER (Adv.)

At the home of the bride at 7:30 last Tuesday, Sept. 8, Mrs. Susan Tinkle and G. T. Perry, were united in Marriage, in Baker, Rev. A. R. Willetts of the Calvary Baptist Church performing the ceremony. Only a few intimate friends were present. Their many friends both in Baker and Eagle will unite in wishing them happiness and prosperity but the announcement came as quite a surprise to all but a few of their most intimate friends.

The Eagle Valley Band will give a concert, Saturday night Sept. 26, in connection with Parkers Moving Picture Show more particulars next week.
