RICHLAND, ORE., THURSDAY, DEC. 31, 1914, VOL. 3, NO. 7

OREGON produced 660,000 bushels of corn the past season.

THE fighting nations have cut out the vodka, schnapps and absinthe. We trust they will soon recover from the delirium tremens.

WHEN a man goes out of his way to tell you how square he is, always take his word for it, but keep your hand on your pocket-book.

WITH the bone of a turkey leg in his coat pocket, a local detective bluffed a crook, under the belief that it was a gun. Some kick to that dead leg!—Portland Telegram.

THE approximate amount of all annual or continuing and millage tax appropriations for 1915, according to the statement just issued by the secretary of state, totals $1,213,140.

THE 28th Legislative Assembly of Oregon which will convene at Salem, Jan. 11, is overwhelmingly republican. Among the senators are but two democrats, and only four are among the representatives.

"HUNTSMAN, spare the skunk," says the U. S. bureau of biology. "The polecat is the most useful of mammals; he destroys the caterpillar." Neighbor, we prefer the caterpillar, even to a two-legged skunk.

YET, come to think of it, were it not for those few Mexican shots across the border, that little Arizona town would never have been heard of. Perhaps, however, there is some preference as to the methods of advertising.

We wonder what's the matter with the P. V. Herald. For the past eight or ten weeks the editorials have not been up to the standard they were before Brother Clemens was elected J. P. It must be that his new duties have been such that the writing was done by a subordinate. Possibly by fumigating and the judicious use of soap and water would have a tendency to make the columns brighter.

Regarding Public Lands For Homesteaders.

Anyone interested in lands where the settler may establish a homestead should write the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., for Price List 20, entitled "The Public Domain." This price list contains over 30 pages of titles of bulletins which may be had for a sum that covers merely the cost of publication. A great number of these pamphlets cost the applicant only 5 cents each and few cost more than a dollar. No money is required for postage, as the Government publications go free through the mails.

Here are a few sample titles taken at random from the list: Suggestions to Homesteaders and Persons Desiring to Make Homestead Entries. Price, 5c. Use of National Forests for Recreation Purposes. Price, 7c. Summer Homesteads on Public Land. Price, 7c. Homestead Entries by Minors. Price, 9c. Vacant Public Lands in the United States. Price, 5c.

Other pamphlets listed will be of value to those interested in conservation and irrigation. There are also publications on boundaries, coal lands, desert lands, drainage, Forest Service, Indian lands, and lands in the various states, including the Philippines, Panama, and Hawaii.

Remittances should be made to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Do not write the U. S. Department of Agriculture for this price list.
