The Reward of Virtue.

I've been good fer 'bout a week,
Washed my ears and didn't peek,
Paint the cat ner pull its ear,
'Count of Christmas bein' near,
Washed my hands, I did, an' face,
Didn't slobber 'round my place
Like it's been my habit to
When there ain't no Christmas due.
Saturday, though, I cut her loose,
Bein' good, for what's the use?
An' pa, he's glad, he says,
'because
I like him better as he was."

Opportunity

THIS IS YOURS to secure one of the most desirable ranches in Eagle Valley at about half its real value.

The Portland Trading Co. ranch, consisting of almost 62 acres and the Plummer ranch of 5 acres, in all nearly 67 acres, must be sold at once. The place is one-half mile from Newbridge, three miles from Richland; all under ditch, good water right. Over 1200 trees—peach, pear, prune, apple, cherry, almond, English walnut. Main residence of ten rooms, with hot and cold water, bath, toilet, etc. Two small cottages. Abundance of clover and corn were raised this year, and the place is worth more than the price asked as a dairy proposition. This place sold in 1912 for $17,000 and since that time over $3000 have been spent in improvements.

For quick sale the ranch is now offered for $8850; $4,850 cash, balance $1,000 per year at 7 per cent interest.

This is without doubt the greatest bargain ever offered in this section, and will bear the closest investigation. If interested write FRANK CLARKE, RICHLAND, OREGON
