ALL CLOCK'S FAULT

UNCLE HI NOT TO BE BLAMED FOR THE TROUBLE.

His Housewarming System Was All Right, but Hard Luck Took a Hand in the Game and Results Were Disastrous.

"So your Uncle Hiram Peabody was here while your husband was traveling, and his wife was nursing her grandchildren," said Mrs. Green, settling herself for a chat. "I expect he enjoyed his visit?"
"Most of the time," answered Mrs. Biddle. "He was as pleased as a boy to get here, and for a while he talked as if he'd like to live in town, where there were so many clever inventions to look at."

"Then he went into a brown study over something, and took to staying down cellar most of the time. One day I missed an old alarm clock from Henry's den, the meat grinder, a spring from the laundry door, the can opener and the hinges from the salt box. Just then Uncle Hiram ran up the cellar stairs, all muffled and sooty, but smiling, and insisted that I must go right down and see his invention for opening the furnace drafts in the morning. It was clever, too, with wires and pulleys overhead, and a piece of broom handle fitted on the clock winder, so that when the alarm went off it dropped a weight—my meat grinder, mind you!—and somehow opened the drafts, so that the house would be warm when we got up."

"It worked first rate for a few days, but the old clock got to acting up; sometimes it wouldn't go off, and then again a little jar would start the alarm while uncle was setting it, so he had to come upstairs on tiptoes. The night before Henry came there was a cold snap and a high wind, and we went to bed early, for he was to arrive about six in the morning. About two I woke up with a start. It was so hot I could hardly breathe, and there was a strong scorched smell. Then I heard a racket like pots and pans falling downstairs.

"Burglars, or fire, or both?" says I to myself, all bewildered; and I made for the upstairs telephone and called up the emergency number before I was awake enough to know whether I wanted the police or the fire department. It seems they understood I wanted both. Uncle Hiram's room was empty, and I began to think that maybe I'd been hasty about telephoning. I got Henry's old revolver and went down cautiously. The kitchen gas was burning, and the cellar door was open, and the cooking things that hung in the cellarway were strewn all the way down the stairs. Someone was down cellar, hanging around and saying things, and I thought uncle might be struggling with a burglar. So I called, "Surrender or I'll shoot!" But Uncle Hiram called back:

"Don't shoot, Maria, it's only me; Get me a pail of water, quick!"
"You see, his alarm had gone off too soon; and as uncle had the warmest room in the house, he had waked up and rushed down to see about it. Before I could get the water, two policemen and the fire engines came and a good big crowd, too.

"Poor Uncle Hiram wasn't the same after that. He hardly noticed the machinery blueprints Henry brought home, which showed he was low in his mind, and he didn't even read the scientific journals. He lost his appetite and began to criticize the food. About bluebird time, when he heard that Aunt Julia was ready to come home, her grandchildren being through with the measles, he insisted on going back to get things ready for her. I was worried for fear he was going to be sick; but Aunt Julia writes that he's inventing a new plow and a scarecrow with a phonograph arrangement; so I guess he's all right again."—Youth's Companion.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

Take care of your health and wealth will take care of you. Garfield Tea promotes health.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callous the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callous, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied, and simply shrivels the corn or callous without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of freezezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callous. If your druggist hasn't any freezezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Fulton, N. Y. — "Why will women pay out their money for treatment and receive no benefit, when so many have proved that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will make them well? For over a year I suffered so from female weakness I could hardly stand and was afraid to go on the street alone. Doctors said medicines were useless and only an operation would help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved it otherwise. I am now perfectly well and can do any kind of work."—Mrs. NELLIE PHELPS, care of R. A. Rider, R.F.D. No. 5, Fulton, N. Y.

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you have had symptoms and do not understand the cause, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free.

Catarrh for Years No Relief

Three Bottles PERUNA Made Me Well.

for it, but they did me no good. In reading one of Dr. Hartman's books entitled 'Winter Catarrh,' I discovered that Peruna was good for catarrh. After I had taken only three bottles of Peruna I was cured of the catarrh. I now advise everybody troubled with catarrh to take Dr. Hartman's Peruna, as it is a sure cure for catarrh.

"Friends to whom I recommend Peruna tell me that it is also good for headache, dizziness, and pain in the stomach."

Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

Mr. EM Lefevre, Jr., 854 Brush St. Detroit, Mich., writes: "I had been troubled with catarrh for a number of years, and had been taking medicine
