BUT ONE MAN PASSES

The men in Eagle Valley called for the first draft received notification Saturday to appear before the exemption board this week, and they all made haste to reach the county seat so as to learn their fate as soon as possible and end the uncertainty.

Al Barber was the only man that passed the physical examination. He immediately filed affidavits asking exemption on account of wife and child. Should his petition be granted it may be either absolute, conditional or temporary. Should it be denied he will be notified by registered mail. It may be two weeks before he gets the verdict.

H. M. Shoemaker failed to pass the physical examination on account of hernia and heart trouble and was discharged.

Oliver Corson also failed to pass the examination, but we failed to learn the cause.

Geo. Evans' son Ernest, who resides at Halfway, was exempted on account of two stiff fingers on left hand and an imperfect foot.

Will Carnahan is called to appear tomorrow. He has applied for enlistment on two different occasions but was rejected on account of defective sight. When small one of his eyes was injured by the explosion of a pop bottle. While he asks no exemption his chances for being chosen are slim.

Chas. F. Macy and Martin Gale both of Sparta, were accepted.

Obituary.

Genevieve Grace, only child of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Middleton, died July 25, 1917, aged 5 years, 2 months and 14 days. She was afflicted with chronic appendicitis and underwent an operation, but complications set in and she lived but 12 hours.

The little one was born in Richland on May 11, 1912, when two years of age her parents moved to Chico, Calif., and about a year later to Michigan, where they resided when death called.

The funeral services were held in the Mennonite church of Williamsburg by the pastor, Rev. R. G. Morgan. Interment in the Williamsburg cemetery.

Claude Holman, Elmer Holman, Mrs. George Saunders and Miss Vina Gover took a crowd of eighteen persons to Pine Valley last Saturday morning where breakfast was cooked and eaten beside one of the mountain streams. Later they drove to Cornucopia and had a picnic dinner, after which the jolly bunch climbed the mountain to the Union-Companion mine. All report a most enjoyable time.

Parties planning on making auto trip to Portland between Aug. 15 and 20 may secure passenger by calling on Mrs. Mable Thorp-Tatro at W. M. Saunders residence.

SEVEN "PINCHED"

I. B. Hazeltine, district game warden, and Rolla Long, deputy for this section, swore out seven complaints for violations of the state game laws and made a round up Saturday.

E. E. Burgan plead guilty to shooting wild ducks out of season and was relieved of around $33. Mr. Burgan was on his own land but the federal law on water fowl is very strict. He usually takes out a hunting license.

R. A. Masterson had neglected to secure the required license before catching some trout out of Daly Creek. Result $30. Bert has always taken out both hunting and fishing licenses each year and intended to do so this season but having to make a trip up Daly took his tackle and was seen by Mr. Long. He says he thinks the warden showed marked partiality as he was given the limit.

Ed and George Blank also dug up for fishing in Snake River without a license. As they claimed they thought a license was not needed to fish for sturgeon Mr. Hazeltine generously remitted a portion of their fines, and both men immediately secured angler's licenses.

Andrew Nedrow found that a fishing license was much cheaper than a fine. On account of his age he got off for $14.

W. M. Saunders and T. J. Reddick were accused of shooting sage hens before the season opened, but the charge could not be substantiated. In fact, it seems that somebody seen somebody else shoot at something somewhere some time. When the situation was investigated by Mr. Hazeltine the charges were dismissed.

District Attorney Levins and Deputy Sheriff Nelson came in from the county seat Saturday afternoon thinking their services would be needed, but finding out to the contrary made but a short stay.

When the fact became generally known that Mr. Hazeltine was in the Valley there was a rush to secure licenses, around 25 taking out the necessary papers in two days. This shows that had a careful investigation been made a larger number would have been caught. While we do not like to see anyone in trouble, and would not turn "informer" unless it should be for some extremely flagrant violation of the law, there are a few fellows in the Valley who are always harping about law breaking, yet they never get a license and manage to take several hunting and fishing trips each year. So far they have got by but they may be picked up yet.

In our Grocery Department: Ham sausage, bologna, weinies and Kenton Special, mackerel, salt salmon bellies, sardines, shad oysters, shrimp, kippered herring. A full line of Acme Flavors they go farther and cost less.

You Can't Unless You Do
Everywhere you hear the cry, "Saving is the secret of success." But that is only a part of the secret.
You can't save unless you have something to save. We say, first make some money, then save it. Everybody can make a little money, but the more you make the more you can save. We help people save money but we also help them make it. There are lots of business schemes coming under our observation all the time and we have a chance to see what pays and what does not. We will take great pleasure in consulting with all who desire about the ways and means of making more money.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bennett arrived from Halfway last Saturday and are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Siedow, but will soon be back at the hotel which place they will operate as a rooming house for a time. Mrs. Bennett is slowly recovering from a stroke of paralysis in her right side from which she has suffered since about the middle of June, and is now able to move around the house some.

Thos. Ritch came in from Baker Tuesday evening. He was accompanied by Mrs. Maude Fraser who will make a short visit here with relatives, and Master Leavitt Chandler, who had been visiting relatives at the county seat.
