You Are Invited.

The congregation of the Christian church will hold an all day service next Sunday, Sept. 2nd, in the grove at the old Kirby place on Little Eagle Creek.

Open air Sunday School and preaching at the usual morning hour and a big community dinner at 1 o'clock. In the afternoon a fine program will be rendered, including talks by out-of-town speakers.

All will meet the church at 9 o'clock, where autos will be provided to take you to the grove.

Come early with the family and stay all day, whether a member of this or any other church or no church at all. We will make you feel the true spirit of Christian fellowship that we teach.

Wm. E. Bean.

Take our advice, buy coffee now; prices will advance. Golden Gate is best quality for the price. Raley's.—ad

The following item appeared in last Sunday's Oregon Statesman of Salem: "Second Lieutenant O. W. James, who has been visiting for the past week with his parents Dr. and Mrs. R. B. James of 112 State St., will leave today for American Lake, where he will be on duty at Camp Lewis. Lieutenant James will be known to many in Salem as the teacher of manual training for the last three years in the junior high school and the state boys training school. He is a graduate of O. A. C."

At the Methodist Church Next Sunday

Dear members of the church: By your help we were able to make ours the banner church of the entire conference last year. By your cooperation we can keep it so in the future. May not the pastor expect each member to do his part toward making the church a real factor in the highest development of the community life? Bishop Lambuth will spend a week here soon and you are asked to help make his stay pleasant and profitable. Begin the conference year right by attending all services. Next Sunday the pastor will preach both morning and evening. Afternoon services at 2:30 as follows: Rev. Johnson at Robinette, Miss Shern at Pleasant Ridge, Elmer Holman at Sunnyside, Russell Mitchell at Sparta and the pastor at New Bridge. Everybody is invited to the evening service, especially.

Arthur Thomas, New Pastor.

Home Ground Cornmeal.
Clean up the old coffee grinder or buy a new one and grind your own cornmeal for griddlecakes, muffins and bread. If you do not like bread made of cornmeal alone use some wheat flour with it. Since home ground cornmeal does not keep long it is better to buy whole corn by the bushel and grind for meal as needed.—New York Sun.

Not an Economist.
"Are you practicing food economy?"
"I tried it out, but it didn't work."
"What was the trouble?"
"My husband simply refused to eat the cold fried egg that was left over from the day before."—Detroit Free Press.

Its Uses.
"Pop, tell me one thing."
"What is it, son?"
"Is the line that ships have to cross on the sea where they hang the ocean's wash?"—Baltimore American.

The hunting season for deer has been closed until some heavy rains make less danger from fire in the timber.
