Durkee as teacher.

P. F. McClain's sale at New Bridge last Saturday was a success in every way. Everything offered was sold at a good price.

We learn that a fire broke out in the dryer at the Christian parsonage Tuesday evening but was extinguished by the application of a few buckets of water.

The largest audience that ever attended a moving picture show in Richland greeted Parker last Thursday night and all were delighted with the program.

Woods & High, the popular blacksmiths at New Bridge, are a late addition the list of News readers. They report business exceptionally good and an increasing number of patrons right along.

Hon. "Nick" Sinnott has sent us a list of Farmer's Bulletins published by the government for distribution. Any five bulletins desired will be sent free, so it will be worth your while to call in and look the list over.

Every mail brings us enough "copy" to fill half a dozen papers the size of the News. It comes from the government, state and the numerous patriotic organizations, and as every article contains some merit it is indeed a task to decide just what to print in a limited space.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Elliott and J. W. Farley returned last Thursday from an auto tour through Yellowstone Park. They report a grand time and many interesting experiences, and we are told that Mr. Farley had several narrow escapes from being carried away by the bears.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Binheimer returned last Thursday from a month's vacation spent at Modesto, Calif., at the home of Al's parents whom he had not seen for more than four years. They report a fine time and business of all kinds booming in the various towns visited. Mr. and Mrs.
Geo. S. Binheimer are getting along nicely and asked to be remembered to their friends in the Valley. George is running an auto line between Modesto and Turlock.

Whom Shall I Tailor?

The true and real value of your new Autumn suit rests solely upon the satisfaction you receive.

This in its broadest and deepest sense means

QUALITY

Maintaining the purity of their All Wool fabrics and offering the same skilled tailoring as always. In the Ed. V. Price line we are more than justified in repeating this one great truth

"You can duplicate a suit price any place But a PRICE SUIT only one place."

The line is now ready for your inspection, many new novelties to select from. Come in.

While stacking hay last Thursday, Bert Masterson had a narrow escape from death when struck by the Jackson fork. One of the tines entered his left groin and came out a few inches above, barely missing two large blood vessels. While pretty sore the wound is healing nicely and Bert will soon be back to work.

F. A. McCarl, executive secre-
