Eagle Canyon Notes

J. B. Masterson and wife of LaGrande were in the canyon last week for an outing.

Jack Jameson will move to the Valley for the winter in order to send his daughter, Miss Mabel, to school.

J. Pluvius visited the canyon on the night of the 12th, breaking a four months drought with a copious shower.

President Guyer and the board of directors locked over the Dry Gulch Ditch last week with a view of making extensive improvements this fall.

R. Guyer and son Louis are in the canyon getting out their winter's supply of wood which they will float down the Dry Gulch ditch to Pleasant Ridge.

George Guyer, ditch tender for the Dry Gulch Ditch Co., has been invited to take a trip to Europe at Uncle Sam's expense. His better fourth is hostile because she can't go along.

A (not very) pretty little romance at the green cucumber season culminated recently in the union of Belle E. Aikin and Jim A. K. Ginger. The ceremony took place at the residence of Col. R. A. Morbus, the bride's uncle, Rev. D. R. Uggist officiating. (N. B. This is a joke; diagram and footnotes on application.) Occasional.

Thos. Seigel started filling his silos this week.

Are You Eating To Win the War?

This Newspaper recommends Today's Housewife to every patriotic woman who wishes to help win the great war

Today's Housewife is especially needed by every homemaker in the present war-crisis, because the seven Courses in Domestic Science now running in the magazine help housewives to better select, prepare and conserve food supplies, to cut down waste, and at the same time to add to the health and welfare of the entire family.

Today's Housewife is the only magazine that maintains a model home where cookery recipes, new household devices, cleaning methods, etc., are put to practical tests before their appearance in the pages of the magazine.

The monthly lesson on "Cookery, Foods and Nutrition" under the direction of Caroline Hunt of the Department of Agriculture, is alone worth the price of a ten-year subscription not only to the woman who follows each lesson but to the government of the United States in helping to win the terrific war with the Central Empires of Europe.

Favorite Magazine of Home-loving Women

REMEMBER, better home-making is the ideal back of TODAY'S HOUSEWIFE, its reason for existence, its earnestly planned-for goal. Better home-making in its largest sense, with the spiritual and mental as well as the material needs of the family in view; home-making as the ligament of woman's opportunities rather than house-keeping as the most dreary of woman's drudgeries.

While Today's Housewife stands in a class by itself in its practical value to homemakers, it is also noteworthy for its wonderfully inspiring editorials and special articles, for its clean, delightful stories, and its beautiful illustrations and covers by leading artists. Over one million women agree that TODAY'S HOUSEWIFE is worth several times the price of 10 cents per copy.
