

LOCALS

Willard Jasper is driving a new Mitchell.

Mrs. R. H. Goodwin has gone to Malheur to visit her father.

Mrs. Lilly Gillette of Pine Valley is visiting here with relatives.

Fresh shipment of cooked meats just received at Raley's.—ad

Selders' orchestra will play for the big dance at Halfway tomorrow night.

R. C. Mack returned home Saturday after a few weeks spent at Huntington.

If you are a lover of dill pickles try "Otter" brand; they're delicious. Raley's.—ad

Dozens of tears are kept busy hauling wood from the Reserve to the Valley these fine days.

Money to Loan on Real Estate. $2,000 at 8 per cent; one to five years time. Inquire at this office.

Senator Strayer and family visited with Mrs. Strayer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Holcomb, Monday.

Mrs. Guyer on Monday brought us nine apples of the Gravenstein variety, the total weight of which was over eleven pounds.

Good understanding is necessary for physical as well as mental comfort. Buy your footwear at Saunders Bro's. and get both.—ad

Members of the Christian church have been soliciting funds for their new building this week, and we are told are meeting with great success.

Mr. Dan French, accompanied by his mother and sister, Miss Florence, and Mr. Ebel, all of Baker, and Mr. and Mrs. Owens and son of Sparta, spent Sunday at the Wm. Chandler home.

J. S. Bodah left yesterday for Couer d'Alene, Idaho, where he will spend the winter months at the home of his brother. He expects to return here in the spring but whether to take up his residence or not depends on circumstances.

These nights and mornings remind us that winter is approaching. We have laid in the largest stock of heaters we have ever carried. If you are in need of a heater for wood or coal, look our stock over.

ad E. & W. Chandler.

C. D. Richards has brought his well drilling outfit in from Baker and is putting down a well on the W. E. Summers place near New Bridge this week. He informs us that he has a number of wells contracted in the Valley and will make his home here this winter.

"There's no use talking," said one of our prominent citizens last Thursday night, "Parker is giving us movies equal to those seen in the big cities. The Liberty films are great and I wouldn't miss the show tonight if it cost me a dollar instead of a measly 15 cents."

The list of Liberty Bond buyers published last week contained the names only of those subscribing for the bonds at the Eagle Valley State bank. We have since learned that several of our citizens secured bonds through other sources but are unable to publish a complete list of the names.

Richland Pool Room

Allan Binheimer, Prop.

POOL AND BILLIARDS

Soft Drinks of All Kinds, Cigars, Tobacco, Confectionery

Come in and spend your idle time We'll treat you right

George Simonis went to Baker Monday.

Sheriff Anderson was a business visitor last week.

Mrs. Jas. Ritter was a visitor from Pine Valley Saturday.

Marion Davis and A. N. Stone-dahl of Union were in Richland yesterday.

18 dairy cows for sale at right price. Inquire of J. W. Campbell.—ad43t

Linn Holcomb and family have gone to Sparta to remain until winter sets in.

Two young fellows enjoyed (?) a fist fight at the dance at New Bridge last Friday night.

The war tax on cigars and tobacco has caused some of our local dealers to double the old price.

Thos. Ritch of Baker was in the Valley yesterday demonstrating the Chandler Six—one of the best cars made.

For Sale—A good young black brood sow; will farrow in two weeks. Apply to Rudolph Guyer, r. f. d., Richland.—ad1tp

Messrs. R. G. Selders and Fred Corpe, prominent cattle men of Medical Springs, were over-Sunday visitors at the home of J. V. Selders.

Cool weather needs in the way of bedding, underwear, cloaks, mackinaws, wool shirts, etc., are to be found in large variety at Saunders Bro's.—ad

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Elliott have moved into rooms in the Mrs. Howard residence for the winter. C. C. St. John and family now have the rooms in the Baird building vacated by Mr. Elliott.

Gilbert Prentiss Lee, weight eight pounds, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lee on Wednesday, October 10th. Mother and son are getting along in fine style, and it is thought Father Lee will eventually recover his equanimity.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Chandler are visiting at Halfway, from there they will go to Kokomo, Indiana, for a visit of several weeks after which they will return to the coast and spend the balance of the winter at Long Beach, Calif. They will probably make their home in Eagle Valley again next summer.

Mrs. Orla Howell was honored with a miscellaneous shower on Saturday afternoon. The affair was planned by Mrs. Winter Wright and Mrs. Joel Tuttle and was held at the former's home. About thirty ladies were present and Mrs. Howell received many dainty and appropriate gifts. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon and the occasion declared the most enjoyable social event held in Richland for some time.

T. R. Jeffords made this office a call Tuesday.

Mrs. L. D. Pendergrass was a visitor from Halfway Saturday.

Fresh oranges, lemons, sweet potatoes and celery at Raley's.—ad

J. A. Jellison has sold his ranch at New Bridge to J. N. Holcomb.

Second hand range for sale at a low price. Call at News office.

The largest crop of alfalfa put up in this section for many years is now being stacked.

Bear in mind that the new Liberty Bonds draw four per cent interest. Get one at the bank.

"If you must swear," reads a sign in an Army Y. M. C. A. tent at Camp Kearny, Linda Vista, Cal., "whistle it."

Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, Mrs. E. A. Bennehoff and Mrs. P. A. Moody returned from Portland last Saturday.

100 tons silage for sale; Yellow Dent corn well matured. Come and see same before it is cut. Geo. W. Jones, New Bridge.—ad

W. J. Densley has two acres of as fine field corn as was ever grown. A stalk on display at this office contains four perfect ears.

Messrs. Elmer Simonis and Fred Widman were in from Baker Valley and spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simonis.

Fifteen years ago Wm. Usher set out some trees which the agent sold as Italian chestnut. This season "Uncle Bill" has an enormous crop of "buck eyes."

Oregon prohibits glaring headlights on motor cars. Obey the law, put "Perrin No Glares" on your headlights and save visiting the police office. $1 a pair at Raley's.—ad

J. M. Macy was down from Sparta Tuesday and made this office a friendly call. Mr. Macy said that if the winter holds off a while longer the farmers will be in shape to put in a far more grain next year as much new land is being cleared.

From all indications the races at Halfway tomorrow and Saturday will be attended by a monster crowd as many from all parts of the county have signified their intention of being present. Several Eagle Valley horses have been entered and no doubt will win a big share of the premiums. Load up the auto and go over.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger E. Deal of LaGrande stopped in the Valley Tuesday night while on their way to Idaho. They are looking for a farm and Mr. Deal has some fine town property he would like to trade on farm land in this section. The couple are traveling by team and wagon and Mr. Deal stated that the absence of sign boards on the roads in Baker county were a source of much inconvenience.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Patterson and baby arrived home yesterday from an extended visit with relatives at Portland. John told us that they had been having a grand time and especially enjoyed an auto trip over the Columbia Highway. He stated that the farmers in that section were very short on hay and grain but that there was a big fruit crop, the quality of which, however, was very poor when compared with Eagle Valley fruit.

10

15

The BLUE BEAUTY Arrives!

The latest addition to our stock is a "Universal" Blue Porcelain Enameled Cast Range.

This is the most beautiful stove you have ever looked at.

This stove is finished in Porcelain Enamel, nickel trimmed, polished top.

The Porcelain Enamel is guaranteed not to chip, craze or discolor with heat; this guarantee is backed up by one of the largest stove manufacturing concerns in the United States.

If you are thinking of buying a new range, come in and look this one over. Come in anyway, whether you are going to buy or not; it will do your heart good to see this most beautiful of all ranges.

We will look for you, are you coming?

WE SAVE YOU MONEY
MAKE US PROVE IT

Raley's Cash Store

20

25

Clean-Up Sale!

In order to reduce our stock in a short time we offer at prices unobtainable elsewhere, all of our entire line of

Shoes, Underwear, Dry Goods,
Fall and Winter Goods,
Mens' Furnishings,
Woolen Goods, Etc., Etc.

For 30 Days Only!

All goods first class and of good quality and will be sold at less than present wholesale prices

A Special Sale with Old Prices Reduced

Your opportunity to secure Genuine Bargains in seasonable goods. A sale you cannot afford to miss. It will pay you to come many miles to attend as all goods will be sold in same proportion. Come and outfit the family at a big saving.

If you doubt our statements
Come and see for yourself

HARRY CRISS, New Bridge

ECONOMIC AND MILITARY
PREPAREDNESS

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

In addition to complete courses in general and scientific education, offers full opportunities in
MILITARY DRILL, DOMESTIC SCIENCE
ARTS AND COMMERCE

Plan for effective future service. Your country needs it. Send for free illustrated booklets, "Train the Brain for Peace or War" and "The Woman and the University." Address Registrar,

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oregon