CORPORAL BARROWS WRITES

Camp Custer, Mich., Oct. 13, '17.
Dear Friend: You will notice I have been transferred; I'm now attached to the new National Army, 85th Division. Was transferred near the first of September; happened to be one of the "Non Coms" picked out of the Regulars and sent up here to drill the selected men at this cantonment.

We Regulars had a poor opinion of the drafted men until we were sent here, but we have changed our minds and have the greatest faith in them. For my part I think it is a great organization and one that will make the kaiser change his mind about the American Army for we are sure going to whip the Germans or never return home, for that is sure the spirit of the boys who wear the khaki. In other words, as our forefathers said: "Give us liberty or give us death."

Well, I suppose everyone in Eagle Valley is buying a Liberty Bond. The boys of Battery C, 329th F. A., to which I belong, have taken out over $2000, and there are only about eighty of us. While this is not as good as some of the others have done, I think it shows the proper spirit. I took a $200 bond on the monthly payment plan; $5 per month on each $50; that leaves me $16 per month for spending money out of my present salary.

This is a fine country and the people are certainly friendly to the soldiers. How is the weather there? It is getting pretty cold here. We were on guard last night and sure had a fierce night but the boys were all on the job.

We boys that enlisted together in the Field Artillery, thinking we would be kept together, are pretty well scattered now. Clate Makin, Bill Wright and Gene Gibson are still in the 11th F. A., Jess Buxton was transferred to the 6th F. A. which sailed for France in July, and I'm here. I haven't heard from Jess since he left.

Have made many new friends but still remember the old ones in Eagle Valley and hope to see them again. With regards to all.

As ever your friend,
Corporal C. A. Barrows,
Batt. C, 329th Field Artillery,
Camp Custer, Mich.

Don't put off buying your winter clothing. We have nice fleecy undergarments, sweaters, mackinaws, wool and fleeced hosiery, toques and caps. Come in and give us the once over; we can satisfy your wants.

A Letter From Sparta

Sparta, Ore., Oct. 21, 1917.
Editor News: With all the cry for economy and good roads, I can see no reason why it would not be to great advantage from all points of view, to build the proposed post road from Baker to Cornucopia over practically the present route. This would not only save thousands of dollars in construction cost but would also accommodate more people, and if built correctly could be kept open for travel every day in the year. Sparta section is increasing in population; in a few years will be one of the leading farming communities in the county, and I believe that if the post road is built it should pass through this section.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for this space, I remain,

A Loyal Spartan.

Missionary Society Report

The W. H. M. S. met Thursday last at the home of Mrs. Herr. A special feature of the program was a paper given by Miss Ralston, advising us how we could be patriots in the use of food at home. This was interesting and profitable and much appreciated by all. Miss Ralston has agreed to give us regular help. This afternoon at the school house we will discuss the planning of our meals so as to provide the needed nourishment with the best conservation of foods needed by our soldiers.
