

LOCALS

Axes and axe handles at Saunders Bro's.—ad

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Moody were in Baker Monday.

We buy Poultry of all kinds, Arnold LaFrance, Robinette.—ad

John McLeod and Willard Jasper shipped a car of hogs from Robinette Friday.

S. H. Desch is sojourning at Hot Lake and Frank Hatt is running the meat market.

See the new gasoline stand lamps we have, just what you need this time of year. Raley's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Chandler are now at Greentown, Indiana, where they will visit relatives for several weeks.

Word has been received that Andrew and Wesley Nedrow have joined the aviation department of the U. S. Army.

Last Saturday quite a lot of snow fell at Sparta, Baker and other points in the county, but Eagle Valley escaped.

Walter Meacham was in the Valley Sunday and Monday gathering up exhibits for the Land Products Show at Portland on Nov. 3rd to 24th.

Another shipment of washing machines due this week; if you want a machine better see us before your neighbor gets ahead of you. Raley's.—ad

Ira Bradford and Walter Jones have received notices to appear at Baker tomorrow to join the last quota of the first draft, and will go on to American Lake.

Found—A ladies veil, same is at News office. Walter Campbell was the finder and says if the owner is a sweet, pretty young woman he will claim a reward—otherwise none.

For Sale—One DeLaval Cream Separator No. 15, used but little and as good as new; also a number of thrifty Duroc Jersey gilts soon to farrow. B. F. Keist, Sparta, Oregon.—ad50

Messrs. F. C. Oxman, Gus Warwick, W. L. and Richard Kirby were visitors Monday. They purchased a number of fat cattle to fill out a full train load which they will ship to Kansas City from Derkee next Monday.

Bert Wellman left the first of the week for Seattle where he expects to secure work and remain indefinitely. Before leaving Bert called and arranged to have the News sent to his address so as to keep posted on Eagle Valley events.

We have plenty of flour now on hand and our prices are right; we will not be undersold. We also have graham, corn and oat meal, rye flour and hominy. Try one of our Swift or Columbia hams, they are delicious and the price does not mar the taste.

ad E. & W. Chandler.

The Eagle Telephone Co. exchange is now located in the rooms especially arranged for the business in the Oliver Corson building. An up-to-date switch board has been installed, a sound proof booth is provided, and Mr. Binheimer is busy fixing up the lines so that in a few days we will have a first class phone service in every respect:

Richland Pool Room

Allan Binheimer, Prop.

POOL AND BILLIARDS

Soft Drinks of All Kinds, Cigars, Tobacco, Confectionery

Come in and spend your idle time We'll treat you right

Wyatt McCraw is visiting his parents at Hepner.

Lanterns, globes, wicks and oil at Saunders Bro's.—ad

New shipment of glassware just received at Raley's.—ad

County Surveyor Hoffman did some work in the Valley last week

Sale at New Bridge Saturday afternoon and another on Monday afternoon.

Parties from Pine Valley have been baling hay in this section the past several days.

Money to Loan on Real Estate. $2,000 at 8 per cent; 1 to 5 years time. Inquire at this office.—ad

Joseph Moorehead has purchased a power saw and is cutting a lot of wood on Jim Kirby's ranch on Eagle Creek.

Lost—A 32-calibre Colt's automatic pistol near Gibson's corner south of Richland; suitable reward for return to News office.

Messrs. Zeigler, Bland and Coger returned Sunday from a hunting trip on Kettle Creek. Zeigler bagged a buck, the only game secured.

Born—To the wife of Geo. H. Gayer on Monday, October 29th, a 7-pound girl. We are told that George is so puffed up that Taft's overcoat wouldn't make a vest for him now.

Our heater stock is complete, consisting of stoves for oil, coal and wood, ranging in price from $3.25 to $23.50, and we do not hesitate in saying that our prices cannot be duplicated.

ad) E. & W. Chandler.

L. F. Parker was a visitor from Sparta yesterday and added his name to the News list. He and J. M. Macy are running a band of sheep together and stated that the sheep industry would be a big thing in the Sparta section within a few years.

The Pythian Sisters held a special meeting at their hall Tuesday evening, after which a social time was enjoyed. Sandwiches, cake, apples and coffee were served at the close of a series of appropriate games, and those present report the affair a grand success.

Last Thursday night as Arch Harvill and Wyatt McCraw were on their way home after the movies, the horse they were driving became frightened when near Oliver Corson's house and started to run. On attempting to turn into the Gibson lane the buggy was overturned and both men thrown out. Harvill escaped without injury but McCraw suffered several severe bruises and his left shoulder was dislocated. The injured man was taken to the Richland Hotel, and as both physicians were out of town, was compelled to do without medical aid until Dr. Wilson returned from Baker Friday morning:

Oranges, Bananas and Lemons at Saunders Bro's.—ad

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rogers have returned from Oklahoma.

Be sure to read the announcement of the Jellison sale on last page.

Get your winter's flour and sugar now; our prices are right. Raley's.—ad

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wallace and family spent Sunday with relatives in Pine Valley.

HAUL FROM ROBINETTE—High Patent Flour per barrel $11. Arnold LaFrance.—ad50

U. S. Commissioner Shelton and L. D. Pendergrass of Halfway were Richland visitors Monday.

E. A. Jerome of Baker secured the contract for Dan Jones' new residence and commenced work on same Monday.

Strangers have been asking the reason why our streets are being irrigated at this season of the year. Will someone else please answer?

New 16-inch Oliver steel plow for sale; one extra share included. Price $27.50. Will trade for good calf or one-yr-old. G. W. Martin, Richland.—ad1tp

In order that our boys in service may all receive the home happenings we offer the News to them at $1 per year. Come in and subscribe for a soldier boy.

The high school held a Halloween party at the school building Tuesday evening. Ghosts, goblins, witches, etc., were much in evidence, yet a royal good time is reported by all the young folks present.

O. D. Center, of the extension department of O. A. C. and U. S. Dept. of Agriculture cooperating was in the Valley last week interviewing the farmers as to their opinion of the need of a county agent.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Martin called on them last Friday night to extend congratulations. Dancing was the order until a bounteous supper was prepared by the bride. It's sure all present enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Vina Ellis was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Churberry Gover on Saturday afternoon. Around twenty-five guests were present and the occasion was one of much enjoyment. Mrs. Ellis received many beautiful and appropriate gifts.

Barney Eidson was at Baker Monday and presented the petition for the road up Eagle Canyon to the county court and same will be acted upon in December. Over $1000 in cash and work has already been donated and if the county will help a little the road is certain to be built.

Thomas Bashaw, who has been a resident of Eagle Valley for the past 33 years, expects to leave in a short time for Portland where he will enter the I. O. O. F. home. Tom was 85 years of age last May and is getting too feeble to work at carpentering any longer, so is offering all his carpenter tools and a lot of miscellaneous articles at private sale. The money that he realizes from his possessions will be no great amount but will furnish many comforts for him, and we believe that Eagle Valley residents will deem it a duty to the old pioneer by buying all he has for sale.

10 15

Let's not talk about Washing Machines

Let's try them out—in direct comparison by performance with every other washer manufactured.

“Motor High Speed”

and

“Turbine Vacuum”

Washers sell on facts, fastest to those who know them.

They will sell themselves to you.

Want to try them?

WE SAVE YOU MONEY
MAKE US PROVE IT

Raley's Cash Store

20 25

Look at These!

Our great sale is drawing customers from all sections and all declare that the prices we quote cannot be duplicated elsewhere at this time. That you may get an idea of the bargains we offer, just note these:

Men's Elk-hide lace boots, high top, were $8.50, now $7.48
Men's Elk-hide Logger Shoes, formerly $8, now . . . . 6.48
Boys' high top boots, regular price $3.50, sold now for 2.48
Men's Dress Shoes, were sold at $6, present sale price 4.48
Women's Dress Shoes, regular $4.50 grade, . . . . . 3.48
Children's Shoes, were bargains at $2.75, now sell at. 2.38
Men's Cooper Union Suits, all wool, were $3.50, now. 2.24
Men's regular $2 grade Underwear we sell at. . . . . 1.48
Comfort Quilting Cotton, sold elsewhere at $1.40 per 3-lb roll, come buy it here . . . . . per roll 1.00
Ginghams, sold elsewhere at 20c per yard, our price. .15
Outing Flannel, others charge 20c, our price per yard .15

These Are But Samples of Our Prices

All other goods in same proportion. Come look over our stock and select what you need—the price we'll quote you will prove a pleasant surprise.

If you doubt our statements
Come and see for yourself

HARRY CRISS, New Bridge

Warning to Hunters!

Anyone found hunting on my premises will be prosecuted as by law provided. Mrs. L. L. Holcomb, Richland;—ad51tf

J. M. Macy was down from Sparta yesterday and left at this office some samples of potatoes raised on his place the past summer. They are smooth, free of scab and average more than one pound each in weight. He will have several tons for sale.

Miss Fern Chandler came out from Baker and spent Sunday with her parents;

Barney Eidson has been awarded the contract for the carpenter work on Noble Holcomb's new residence and work will commence at once. The building will be of bungalow pattern, 30x51 feet, with a full seven-foot basement under all; a hot water heating system and an electric light plant will be installed, in fact the house when completed will be one of the most modern and convenient that can be built. The total cost will be in the neighborhood of $6000.

Dr. Bull is expected back this week: