

LOCALS

Read about the big auction sale on back page.

John Fraser is having a garage built at his home.

W. R. Usher suffered a severe attack of lumbago the first of the week.

Mrs. C. C. St. John and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hartley were in Baker yesterday.

Ladies! Have you seen those swell sweaters on display at Saunders Bro's.—ad

Mr. George Gray of Walla Walla was an over-Sunday visitor at the home of his uncle, Willard Jasper.

A pair of ladies cloth gloves were found on the street yesterday morning and left at this office for identification.

Our shipment of washing machines has arrived, better hurry if you want one; supply will not last long. Raley's.—ad

A dance given after the school entertainment Friday evening, was greatly enjoyed by a large number of young people.

A fair sized crowd attended the sale at the Oscar Smith ranch in Dry Gulch last Saturday. Chas. Elliott officiated as auctioneer and J. R. Lee as clerk.

Nearly time to put away the screens; protect them from the ravages of winter by painting them with "Chi Name!" screen paint. Raley's.—ad

Miss LaRue Day and Mr. Cecil Saunders were married at Los Angeles last week. We understand the young couple will make that city their home until Mr. Saunders completes his course in the Los Angeles Medical College.

Owing to the heavy war tax levied on moving pictures, Mr. Parker has been compelled to advance admission charges, hereafter adults will pay 20c and children 15c. This is very reasonable we believe, for the films Mr. Parker is showing are worth all that and more.

The regular meeting of the W. H. M. S. will be held in the league room of the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 15th. A large attendance is desired as plans will be made for Christmas Cheer work and the sending of Christmas boxes to the Eagle Valley boys who are in Uncle Sam's service.

Mr. L. S. Calkins of Sacramento Past Grand Chancellor of California and at present state superintendent of Northern California and Oregon for the Knights of Pythias Life Insurance department, has been in the Valley this week organizing an insurance division among the members of Irvine Lodge.

J. S. Bodah writes us a very interesting letter from Couer D'Alene, Idaho, in which he states that business is very dull in that town and that there are many vacant houses. He states that meat and vegetables are cheap, the best cuts of beef selling for 20c per pound, and although he seen many women since leaving Richland he had seen no fat ones; however he has got acquainted with several widows and has his eye on one in particular.

These dark nights you need a flash light; let one of our French Flashers light your way. Raley's.

Misses Sylvia Lloyd and Maude McWaters of Pine Valley, spent the week end as guests of Miss Adda Martin.

These are war times and winter will soon be here. Be wise and get underwear for yourself and family now. Saunders Bro's.—ad

Lester Holcomb accompanied the Sparta exhibit to Portland and will later go on to Roseburg and spend the winter at the Old Soldiers' Home.

Ed Muncy, who has carried a rural mail route in Pine Valley for the past twelve years, has resigned and will work here this winter for his brother-in-law, Thos. Seigel.

For Sale—One DeLaval Cream Separator No. 15, used but little and as good as new; also a number of thrifty Duroc Jersey gilts soon to farrow. B. F. Keist, Sparta, Oregon.—ad50

Our thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Seavers of Albany for a mess of delicious radishes which we enjoyed for our Sunday dinner. A card attached to the vegetables read: "There are some things you can do in Eagle Valley that we cannot do down here, but—"

Having sold their possessions in Eagle Valley, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jellison will move to the county seat and reside this winter and perhaps make that city their permanent home. As a sort of farewell reception, around forty of their friends and neighbors in and around New Bridge dropped in on the worthy couple unexpectedly Monday evening, bringing plenty of "eats" and sweet cider, and a good time long to be remembered by all present was enjoyed.

F. E. Sewell and family are now located at Hereford.

Mrs. John McLeod and children are home from Walla Walla.

We buy Poultry of all kinds. Arnold LaFrance, Robinette.—ad

Miss Ruth Ralston spent the week end with friends at Cornucopia.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Francis and Mrs. J. V. Selders went to Baker Tuesday.

F. E. Herr writes to change his address from Seven Troughs to Tonopah, Nevada.

M. D. Simonis left Monday for Kansas City, going from Durkee with a shipment of cattle.

If you have something you desire to sell, list it with Thorp for the big auction sale Monday.

Try "Aunt Jemima" pancake flour, made in a minute; the milk is mixed in it. Get it at Raley's.

Lost—A 32-calibre Colt's automatic pistol near Gibson's corner south of Richland; suitable reward for return to News office.

On account of the sale in Dry Gulch last Saturday, the L. E. Green sale at New Bridge was postponed until Monday and held immediately after the Jellison sale.

The school census taken last week shows there are 198 persons between 4 and 20 years of age in School District No. 44, just two less than last year. Of the number 108 are boys and 90 girls.

We notice that in Iowa and many other states, sugar can be purchased only a few pounds at a time. Here in Eagle Valley one has no trouble in buying it in 100-lb sacks—providing one has the price.

Mrs. Thos. Seigel received a fine present from her husband in way of a fine Maytag washing machine which is operated by a gasoline motor attached thereto. As Mrs. Seigel was not expecting the gift, it was doubly appreciated.

Wool blankets have advanced 35c a lb. since we bought ours but we have not changed the price. We also have lots of shoes for men, women and children at the old price. Don't put off buying your heater—get it now. ad) E. & W. Chandler.

Mr. A. Madson, of the Hazelwood Creamery Co. of Walla Walla, was in town Monday in the interest of his firm. At present the Hazelwood has no local buyer but Mr. Madson informs us that several of our farmers are shipping their cream direct each week.

Dave Conrad has leased his ranch for next year, purchased an auto, and with Mrs. Conrad and the children have left for La Grande where they will join Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McAlexander and family with their auto, and together will start for California. They expect to be gone several months.

Two little Richland girls, Pearl Wright and Blanche Craig, on Monday concluded that school and home life was too monotonous, so borrowing one of Mr. Craig's horses struck out for a tour of the world. A telephone message found the children at the home of relatives at Robinette, and they were persuaded to return home Tuesday morning.

We are told that the lands coming under the 640-acre homestead law will soon be designated.

Dr. McArthur Leaves.

Dr. J. H. McArthur has moved his office to Baker and will hereafter follow his profession at the county seat. This leaves Eagle Valley with but one physician, which, however, is sufficient as long as the people continue in as good health as at present.

While we regret to have the Doctor leave, we wish him much success in his new location. Mrs. McArthur and children will continue to make their home in Richland until spring, unless the Dr. should dispose of his sheep before then.
