

LOCALS

George Trickle went to Baker Monday to enlist.

Buy your Christmas Cigars at the Drug Store.—ad

Chas. Keller was over from Cornucopia the first of the week.

Henry Morrison and John Patterson expect to enlist before Saturday.

M. & R. flavoring extracts will not bake, boil or freeze out; get a free sample at Raley's.—ad

Give children fruit, fruit juices, fruit bread and fruit cookies instead of candies and rich cakes.

Jim Kirby has bought the old Boyce ranch of Ed Ritch, and Ed has bought the Waterbury place of Mr. Whittier.

Ladies, come in and let us help you pick out a gift that will sure please your father, brother or sweetheart. Saunders Bro's.—ad

Col. Kirby made his annual pilgrimage to the News office this week, renewing the paper for himself and his brother, Jas. F. Kirby of Avilla, Mo.

Lost—A bunch of keys. These are of utmost importance to the owner but can benefit no one else. Finder will please leave with L. Y. Matthews or at News office.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mack left Monday for Portland. Mr. Mack has enlisted in the government service, joining the medical department, and will go on to Vancouver. Mrs. Mack will return to Richland in the spring and run the ranch.

Only eight more shopping days before Christmas. Do yours early while the stock is full; come in and let us show you through. We have most anything you will need from the trifling toy to the more expensive articles.

(ap) E. & W. Chandler.

If you would learn how Germany has planned to conquer the world and put the non-Germanic population in Africa, you should read "Conquest and Kultur," a 170-page publication issued under government supervision. Copies may be secured free by addressing Committee on Public Information, 10 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C.

Movies tonight.

S. H. Desch will close the meat market this week.

Grant Morgan was a Richland visitor the first of the week.

Nora Moody added her name to our subscription list this week.

Christmas Stationery 35c to $3 per box at the Drug Store.—ad

Red Cross meeting at the home of Mrs. Dan Gover next Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. McArthur moved their household goods to Baker this week.

For that meatless day try our codfish; fresh supply just in. Raley's.—ad

A fine baby girl was born to the wife of Lloyd Chandler on Thursday, December 6th.

The $30,000.00 libel suit resulted in a draw. The next round is scheduled for February term of court.

ONIONS—No. 1 winter onions for sale as 3c per pound at E. E. Brown's place on Powder River.—ad2-tf

The Eagle Valley State bank has been designated a depository for American Red Cross Christmas Membership Funds.

Why not make your wife a Christmas present that will last for years, give her one of our "Blue Beauty" ranges. Raley's.

Chas. Murphy and sister, Miss Allie, accompanied by Miss Opal Matthews, visited over Sunday in Huntington with the former's parents.

Mr. W. M. Muncey and sons, Fred and Edwin, came over from Pine Valley and spent the week end with Mrs. Thos. Seigel, who is the daughter of Mr. Muncey.

Gene Pettijohn of Sparta district left for Kansas the first of the week to bid farewell to three of his brothers who are enlisting in the great war against Prussianism.

Isabel and Ransom McArthur were given a surprise party at the home of Miss Lenora Hewitt on Monday evening. Fourteen young folks were present and were told that a most enjoyable time was had by all. The affair was given as a farewell to the two guests of honor, who have now taken up their residence in Baker.

Pete Masterson has left to join the colors.

Christmas Candy 25c per pound at the Drug Store.—ad

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Payzant went to Baker Tuesday.

High school entertainment at opera house Saturday night.

Rooms for Rent. Address P. O. Box 3, Richland, Oregon.—ad4

Big line of toys and Xmas gifts displayed at Saunders Bro's.—ad

Mrs. F. S. Morrison and son Herbert left for Butler, Mo., Tuesday.

At least 500 trained nurses are needed at once in the cantonment hospitals.

Miss Myrtle Gross has been a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Elliott.

NOTICE—The Richland Meat Market is for rent. Apply to Oliver Corson.—ad

Lawrence Derrick and Robt. Connall left yesterday to offer their services to Uncle Sam.

Sensible gifts of many kinds for both old and young are to be found at Saunders Bro's.—ad

Mr. and Mrs. Frye Herbert of Baker visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Reddick, Tuesday.

Wheat for sale—200 bu. Blue Stem and Forty Fold. $2.20 per bushel at Wm. Ritch ranch on Powder River.—ad1-tf

Ammunition for shot-guns or small fire arms need not be registered under the government order regarding explosives.

Don't fail to see the photo of Baker county's exhibit at the State Fair and the Land Show at Portland, on display at the bank.

Wm. Plughoff, for several years editor of the Huntington News, died at the hospital in Boise last week as a result of cancer and was buried at Ontario.

Thos. Seigel has purchased a caterpillar tractor for use on his ranch. The machine has 10-20 horse power and will be used in place of horses for general farm work. As it is the first machine of the kind to be tried out in this section, the result of the experiment will be anxiously watched, and should it prove a success a number of our farmers will install tractors next season.

10

Gift Buying Time is Here

This year we are better supplied than ever with Practical Christmas Gifts

FOR MEN

We have Jerseys, Mackinaws, Hats, Caps, Ties, Garters, Suspenders, Arm Bands, etc.

FOR THE LADIES

Nifty Handkerchiefs, Glassware, Graniteware and Earthenware.

We have not forgot the Kiddies

We have a big display of NEW TOYS

Come and select your gifts early

WE SAVE YOU MONEY
MAKE US PROVE IT

Raley's Cash Store

20

25

Otis Simonis left yesterday to enlist in the coast artillery.

A complete assortment of jewelry on display at the Drug Store.

Red Cross relief shipments to Europe average over 10,000 tons a month.

See those beautiful new dishes in the Blue Bird pattern at Raley's.—ad

The bazaar given by the Ladies Aid Society last Friday was largely attended, the receipts amounting to over $90.

We were told that the reason a certain Eagle Valley man doesn't run his auto more often is because he is so tenderhearted—he claims the wheels are tired.

Miss Ruth Ralston went to Baker Tuesday to say farewell to her friend, Mr. Geo. Otten, who passed through there on his way East with others in U. S. service. Mr. Otten is a landscape gardener and although he enlisted but a short time since, has been detailed as a trench surveyor.

Buy your Xmas candy at the Drug Store; 25c per pound.—ad

Neighborhood auction at one o'clock next Monday at Wright's corral in Richland.

J. M. May is building a new residence on his ranch at Sparta. B. F. Mitchell is helping him.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Simonis are the parents of a big baby girl born Monday night, Dec. 10th.

The port of New York is under military control, the water fronts being guarded by the regular army. The same control will be established at all other American ports.

A. B. Hall was a visitor from Sparta, Monday, bringing his big "draft team" to put in pasture. He stated that Dick Blackwell, John Farley and himself have just got out 300,000 feet of pine logs for Perry sawmill cut from virgin timber. The logs are all decked out and will be taken to the mill as soon as more snow falls, there being but about three inches at present.

SANTA CLAUS' HEADQUARTERS AT OUR STORE

as usual and he will meet all his little friends here and have something for each one on Saturday, December 15th, at 2 o'clock p. m.

IN TOYLAND FOR THE CHILDREN WE HAVE

Dolls, Doll Buggies, Kitchen Sets, Furniture, Wagons, Auto Trucks, Delivery Wagons, Express Wagons, Sandy Andys, Sand Pails and Shovels, Toy Wash Boilers, Tubs and Wash Boards, Pile Drivers, Rail Road Trains, Pastry Sets, Bell Toys, Aluminum Tea Sets, Trumpets, Whistles, Kiddie Cars, Embroidery Sets, Tops, Sleds, Air Guns, Games of various kinds, Bibles and Testaments, and Books of all descriptions. Don't fail to take the kiddies through Toyland.

Hats, Caps, Shoes, Mackinaws, Overcoats, Sweaters, Bath Robes, and many other Useful Presents

FOR THE "GROWN UPS" WE HAVE

Ties, Arm Bands, Suspenders, Handkerchiefs, Hose Supporters, Coat Hangers, Ear Rings, Knitting Bags, Bead Necklaces, Purses for ladies and children, Dresser Scarfs, Table Runners, Silk Waists, Hair Receivers, Silks, Fancy Colored Silk Hose, Fancy Stock Collars, Towels with Fancy Borders, New Ties in all Colors, Ribbons, Tokes, Sport Sets, Sweaters and Jerseys, Silk Camisoles, Knitting Bag Frames, White Ivory Sets, Manicure Sets, Silver and Plated Ware, Fancy China and Glassware, And Everything in the Line of Useful Presents

Make Your Selections Early
Only 15 Shopping Days

E. & W. CHANDLER

The Different Store