Join the Red Cross NOW

The Red Cross Campaign is on in full blast and by Christmas night every resident in Eagle Valley and vicinity will have been asked to become a member of this grand organization. Thus far practically every person solicited has responded, only a very, very few have absolutely refused to take out membership, and these are being listed separately. The number of persons financially unable to help the Red Cross is exceptionally small and we believe the list of members when the campaign is closed will contain the names of over ninety per cent of our residents.

"The Man Without a Country" one of the most patriotic stories ever written, absolutely FREE. Read display adv on last page.

The first reels of "Gray Ghost" were shown last Thursday night and were well received in spite of the fact that engine trouble caused frequent stops of the machine. The serial promises to be interesting in the extreme.

This is the time of year that everybody should be of good cheer. Cast out that grouch; do something to make some one happy. Join the Red Cross today. Remember the boys who are fighting for you.

Yuletide In The Kitchen

THE cooks should be bustled by day and by night in roasting and boiling for taste and delight. Their senses in liquor that's happy they'll steep. Though they be afforded to have little sleep. They still are employed for to dress us, in brief, Plum pudding, goose, capon, mince'd pie and roast beef.

Although the cold weather doth hunger provoke, 'Tis a comfort to see how the chimneys do smoke. Provision is making for beer, ale and wine. For all that are ready or willing to dine. Then haste to the kitchen for diet the chief, Plum pudding, goose, capon, mince'd pie and roast beef.

All travelers as they do pass on their way At gentlemen's halls are invited to stay. Themselves to refresh and their horses to rest, Since that he must be old Christmas' guest. Nay, the poor shall not want, but have for relief Plum pudding, goose, capon, mince'd pie and roast beef. -Evans' Collection of English Ballads.
