News' Subscription List News.

J. M. May was down from Sparta last Friday and ordered the News sent to his father, W. L. May at Alicel, Oregon.

Wallace W. Irwin, whose name appeared in the honor roll last week, will receive the News for the next 12 months as a gift from R. I. Long.

Joel Tuttle has ordered the paper sent to T. P. Tuttle, Elihu, Ky., for a year.

Walter Saunders renewed the subscription of his father-in-law, G. O. White, Cambridge, Idaho.

Mrs. Vina Ellis, nee Gover, of Halfway, will receive the News as a gift from home folks.

Wm. Ritch was in town Saturday and squared up with the editor. He informed us that he has 200 acres in grain that is four inches high in spite of the fact that a large number of stock are grazing on it.

Chas. Harvill handed us $1.50 before Christmas to apply on his subscription.

Bernard M. Greene of Robinette has joined the family of News readers.

L. C. Holman and Marvin Martin remembered us by renewing before Xmas.

Otis Simonis is another of our soldier boys who will receive the home happenings through the columns of the News, as a gift from relatives.

John Mears, who is located at Inkum, Idaho, had his renewal handed us by Dick Coger.

Geo. Trickle, enlisted in Uncle Sam's Spruce Division, will receive this paper as a gift from his brother Cully.

W. P. Davis sent us $1.50 for his own sub and also had the name of his soldier son, Ferman, added to our list.

Airdale Pups for sale. Two males at $15 each; one female at $10. These are thoroughbred and eligible to registry. Call on or address H. L. Zeigler, New Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gover entertained thirty relatives for Xmas dinner. Four generations were represented.

The Christian church people had a program at the K. P. hall Xmas eve and a collection was taken for the Army Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. Harry Moulton was over from Weiser last week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank High at New Bridge.

A contest between the 7th and 8th grades of the Richland schools in securing Red Cross members resulted in a victory for the 8th graders. More than $55 was targeted in.

The menu of the banquet supper to served by the Pythian Sisters on New Year's night will include chicken, ham, salads, pickles, baked beans, cake, fruit, coffee, bread, butter, etc. As the net proceeds go to the war fund, the public in general should patronize the supper even if they don't care to dance next Tuesday night.

Among the many clippings received from subscribers with request that we publish same, is one of great merit taken from a Kentucky paper. The article is headed "The Devil Pens a Few Words to the Kaiser and Abdicates in Favor of Wilhelm." The author strikes the real issue of Germany's fiendishness in the war and were the article of shorter length we would gladly print it in our columns.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Dr. Bull wishes to say that he will be in Richland until January 20th, 1918, and anyone wishing dental work done should come in at once and see about it and make an appointment. Don't delay; on Jan. 20th I will return to the Willamette Valley to my ranch.
