THE HOME GUARDS

Around twenty citizens met at the K. P. Hall on Sunday afternoon for the purpose of taking steps towards organizing a company of Home Guards in Eagle Valley. C. E. Thorp was chosen temporary chairman and N. B. Ashcraft secretary. The purpose of the organization was explained and sixteen of the men present signified their willingness to join. Another meeting will be held on SATURDAY NIGHT at 8 o'clock, instead of on Sunday afternoon as announced, this change in time being considered advisable on account of so many farmers being busy feeding stock through the day.

To those who are not fully posted on the matter we will say that Home Guards are being organized in every county in the United States. They are not under federal control or subject to federal call; but are subject to the orders of the county sheriff (as a company, not as individuals) to assist in quelling riot or for garded duty, should occasion arise.

It will take an enrollment of 65 to form a company or 25 a platoon. Any male person between the ages of 15 and 65 years may join on payment of $1, the funds thus secured to remain in the treasury of the local company. All officers will be chosen from the ranks by ballot.

No one can tell when the need of a body of drilled men may be needed to defend our own community, therefore it is the duty of every loyal American within the age limit and who is physically able, to enlist in the Home Guards. Not only will it tend to strengthen home defenses but also prove to our enemies that we stand back of our boys at the front.

Come out Saturday night and enroll your name; don't let your neighbor show more patriotism than you.

No Bark for Him

"I don't put my money in any bank," says Slothful Sam. "My inside pocket is good enough for me and I am going to keep it there instead of letting the other fellow carry it."

But does he keep it there? He does not. The butcher, grocer, clothier and druggist get Sam's money and they put it in the bank. Sam don't know where his money goes. But somebody puts it in the bank. Who is putting your money in the bank? If it is good for the other fellow to have money in the bank it's good for you—and the other fellow gets rich at it.

OVER THE TOP!

Eagle Valley Outdoes Baker City in Contributions to the Baker-Cornucopia Post Road—and Is Still Going

Eagle Valley $6000.
Baker $5500.
Pine Valley $3,500.
(Contributions included)

Messrs. John Fraser and A. N. Ingles arrived from Baker Monday and in company with J. C. Bowen, Thos. Seigel, Geo. M. Moody, Bert Rogers, W. E. Barber and L. Y. Matthews, canvassed this section the first of the week for subscriptions to the Baker-Cornucopia road.

That our citizens heartily endorse the movement was shown by their liberality; with but few exceptions every man solicited turned up most willingly. While Eagle Valley's allotment was but $3,000, the sum total now reaches $5,000 after two days work—and here'll be more forthcoming.

No effort was made to secure contributions from any but the well-to-do class and nothing less than $25 was accepted, however, as there are a number of men in this vicinity who favor the road and wish to show their loyalty to the community but who are not financially able to contribute so great a sum, we have had the committee leave a number of the blanks at the News office and announce that anyone so desiring may call and fit out same for any amount they wish. The names of such contributors will be published later.

This is as it should be, for no one will deny that better roads are needed in this section, and never before has such an opportunity been presented to get so much assistance from the state. The more we raise the more influence it will have on the State Commission towards hastening the completion of the road.

We are unable to secure a list of the contributors at this time but will endeavor to publish same next week, so that all may know the names of the business men and well-to-do farmers who favor the further development of Eagle Valley.

While the federal government has asked that less work be done on "highways," it urges that more attention be given to building good roads into farming communities distant from railways. This is direct encouragement to the Baker-Cornucopia post road which will traverse from end to end the richest agricultural, stockraising and mining sections of Eastern Oregon.

Will This Order Get You?

Milton A. Miller, Collector of Internal Revenue at Portland, has issued this warning:

"Somebody is going to tell on you if you don't pay your income tax. Congress has fixed it so that somebody must tell, whether he wants to or not."

One section of the War Income Tax Law, exhaustively comprehensive in scope, requires every person, without exception, and every corporation, partnership, association, and insurance company, in whatever capacity acting who paid $800 or more to another person, corporation, partnership, association or insurance company, as interest, rent, salaries, wages, compensation, remuneration, etc. to report the name and address of the person, corporation, etc., to whom the payment was made together with the amount of payment, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington. Form 1099 must be filled out and returned on or before March 1st, 1918, accompanied by Form 1096 which is a letter of transmittal and affidavit certifying the accuracy of Form 1099.

Come, hustle up, Pine Valley; it's nice to be over the top.

Wheat-Corn Bread

Wheat-corn bread is more nutritious than bread baked with wheat flour alone. Thousands of American families today are using this mixed flour bread, and in so doing are enabling America to provide more wheat flour for the allies. Here's a tested recipe for this bread: Take one and a half cups of milk, water or a mixture of the two; one-half cup compressed yeast, one and a half teaspoons salt, one tablespoon sugar, one tablespoon of fat if desired, one cup cornmeal and two cups wheat flour.

Put one and a half cups of water, the cornmeal, salt, sugar and fat (if used) into a double boiler and cook twenty minutes. The water is sufficient only to soften the meal a little. Allow the meal to cool to about the temperature of the room and add the flour and yeast mixed with the rest of the water. Knead thoroughly, make into loaf, place in pan of standard size, allow to rise until nearly fills the pan and bake 45 or 50 minutes. It is hardly practicable to use a greater percentage of cornmeal than this even in emergencies, for bread so made differs very little from baked mush. Less cornmeal can be used and in such a case the general method given above may be followed.

It is possible to make a yeast raised corn bread without first cooking the cornmeal. In this case not more than one cupful of meal should be used to four cupfuls of flour. In other respects the bread is mixed and baked as in the above recipe.

E. S. Taylor is reported seriously ill this morning.

The Oregon Voter Says:

"Politically Irresistible."
"That's what Eastern Oregon will get to be if it keeps up its present gait."

"It has led Oregon in every patriotic drive when compared with Western Oregon as a whole, although there have been isolated instances like Benton or Douglas counties where tremendous records have been made."

"Eastern Oregon is demonstrating that it has the highest type of leadership in the state—men who enjoy the confidence of their townspeople and the farmers."

"The people in Eastern Oregon are not suspicious of each other."

"Eastern Oregon can come to Portland with nearly a solid vote for any candidate or any measure that catches the enthusiasm of its people. If it can secure some support in the big city and a lot of co-operation from the live counties of Southern Oregon and the Coast, it will do big things politically."

"One thing that makes Bob Stanfield's candidacy so formidable is that he typifies the progressive, forward spirit of Eastern Oregon."

"Let'er buck, Eastern Oregon; what you are doing to the balance of the state isn't hurting it a bit."
