RED CROSS

Eagle Valley Auxiliary shipped the following articles to the Baker Chapter last week: 15 pajama suits, two sweaters, 50 towels, 38 dish towels, 9 pair socks.

There is an enormous lot of work to be done, and there are dozens of ladies in this vicinity that have yet give no assistance that could "do their bit" by helping sew at the K. P. hall.

E. V. High School Auxiliary of the Junior Red Cross has a membership of twenty-three, and at work making clothes for the Belgian and French refugee children. If you have any woolen coats, dresses or other garments of any color but red or green, that can be spared for this cause, notify Miss Ralston or any student of the high school.

The grade schools of Richland organized an auxiliary of the Junior Red Cross last week with 100 per cent of the scholars enrolling as members. $30.50 was taken in as membership dues.
The children are knitting wrist-lets and mufflers and making tray cloths, sponges, gun wipers, etc.
Old table cloths, sheets, linen or cotton cloth of any kind is needed for this work, and if you have any to spare hand same to any scholar or send to Maude Halley, principal.

A Hint to the Aged

If people past sixty years of age could be persuaded to go to bed as soon as they take cold and remain in bed for one or two days, they would recover more quickly, especially if they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There would also be less danger of the cold being followed by any of the more serious diseases.

Pine Valley's Contribution

In looking over the subscriptions secured for the B-C post road, published in the Pine Valley Herald last week, we note following:

Pine Mercantile Co. $500;
N. D. Brown $200;
$100 each: H. DeLour, Claude
Oiler, American State Bank, Fred Cooper, J. P. Ritter and H.
Jeldness;

There were ten men who put up $50 each; one $30; 36 put up $25 each; five $20; twelve $15; twelve $10, and twelve $5.

When one stops to consider that the bottomless "Sag"—the worst piece of road on the route—is to be made passable by the extreme liberality of Pine Valley citizens is to be commended.

Odd Fellows Install Officers

Eagle Lodge No. 123, I.O.O.F., installed the following officers last Saturday night:

Claus Nave, N. G.
Ianthus Chandler, V. G.
C. H. Elliott, Treas.
W. E. Barber, Sec'y.

Regular meetings of the lodge are held every Saturday evening.
Visiting brothers are always welcome.

Mrs. Mary Howard was able to be out on the streets yesterday, the first time for several weeks.

Card of Thanks.

To the kind people of New Bridge and other parts of Eagle Valley who so generously gave assistance and comfort during the illness and death of James M.
Schultz, we desire to express our most sincere thanks.
Mrs. Vienna Schultz and family.
