Certainly Deserving of Praise

Having had my wife in the St. Elizabeth Hospital at Baker for 15 days, where she underwent a mastoid operation; I was there a great deal of the time myself and knowing how she was taken care of and seeing to some extent how others fared, I feel that I cannot speak in too high a terms for the hospital and their help.

My wife could not wish for better care; of course it is not free, at least to those that can pay, though I don't consider their charges unreasonable as their expense is heavy and interest on capital invested to be considered. Also I shall speak in the highest terms of Doctors Pearce and Barton, they surely master their professions well.

There was about 14 operated on while was there, 5 or 6 for appendicitis; all were doing well when I left Baker. The above named doctors did not do all the work. G. W. Martin.

A Candidate for Governor

L. J. Simpson, in announcing his candidacy for nomination for Governor on the republican ticket at the primary election to be held May 17th, gives too lengthy a statement and platform to allow our publishing same in full although it is of much merit.

Among other things Mr. Simpson says: "I am an American and believe in the principles of my country. I pledge the people of Oregon, that, in conducting my campaign I will not support any particular candidate for office in preference to the other candidate for the same office; that I will not promise appointment or political patronage to anyone."

Our Wife's Ultimatum

I've beamed when you hollered "Oh, Girlie!"
I've hopped when you bellowed, "Oh, say!"
I've fallen for "Dearie" and "Missus,"
And everything else till today;
But there's one thing that's got to be different:
From now till the Great War is done—
Unless you're prepared for a riot,
You've got to quit calling me "Hun!"

To Whom It May Concern:

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Socialists Oppose System

Many of the Germans, as has been already indicated, do not believe the reports of the atrocities committed by the Belgian civilians and refuse to accept the system of frightfulness. The Vorwaerts, the leading socialist paper, which has a very wide circle of readers, has opposed the policy of frightfulness. All honor to its editors who have so courageously opposed the powerful military authority! Its editorial, entitled "Our Foes," published August 23, 1914, reads as follows:

"What should one say when even such an organ as the Deutsches Offizier-Blatt expresses its sympathy with a demand that 'the beasts' who are taken as franc-tireurs should not be killed, but only wounded so that they may then be left to a fate which makes any help impossible? Or what should we say when the Deutsches Offizier-Blatt states that 'a punitive destruction even of whole regions' cannot afford full recompense for the bones of a single murdered Pomeranian grenadier? Those are the desires of blood-thirsty fanatics and we are thoroughly ashamed of ourselves because it is possible that there are people among us who urge such things."

"Barbarism," Declares Vorwaerts.
On the following day, August 24, 1914, the Vorwaerts returned to the attack in an editorial "Against Barbarism."

"One might, in the first place, possibly believe that such a demand for a bloody vengeance [against alleged Belgian outrages] emanates from a single disense-racked brain; but it appears that whole groups among certain classes who represent German kultur want to indulge in orgies of barbarism and to devise a whole system for the purpose of organizing 'a war of revenge.'"

"What of law and custom! Such thoughts do not stir a 'great nation.' Thus in a leading article of the Berliner Neueste Nachrichten, the demand is made that all the authorities in Brussels—one, the second burgomaster, is generously excepted—should be immediately seized and subjected to trial in order to expiate the wrongs which, according to fragmentary and highly uncertain reports, were said to have been committed by the people. They demand that the captured city should immediately pay a fine of 500,000,000 marks; that all stores of the conquered territory be requisitioned without paying the inhabitants a single penny for them."

Pulled the Rule Book on Him.
"How did you get along in your golf match?"

"Lost it."
"The other fellow outplayed you, eh?"

"No. I hit the ball as hard as he did, but he knew the rules better than I did and claimed six holes on technicalities."—Detroit Free Press.

AND NOW THEY ARE COOKING TOBACCO TO MAKE IT BETTER

For a good many years The American Tobacco Company have been conducting a series of experiments having as their object the improvement of smoking tobacco.

And it is interesting to know that one of the greatest of their discoveries was one of the simplest, and that was, that cooking or toasting tobacco improved it in every way, just as cooking most foods improves them.

They took a real Burley tobacco, grown in this country; toasted it as you would toast bread; moistened it to replace the natural moisture driven off by toasting; made it into cigarettes, called them "LUCKY STRIKE, the toasted cigarette," and offered them to the public.

The result has been the greatest demand ever created for any tobacco product in a similar length of time.

The change produced by toasting is not only most wholesome, but the flavor is greatly improved, just as cooking improves meat, for example.
