Patriotism is not pessimism.

When sometimes seems drudgery, think of the trenches.

The squirrel does not know how to can, but he stores his food for the lean season.

"Economy makes happy homes and sound nations; instill it deep."
 -George Washington.

Ben F. West has announced his candidacy for republican nomination for State Treasurer.

The people who are fussing so because they have to go short on sugar, are the grandchildren of the sturdy old timers who used to be awfully pleased to get bread and molasses. -The Astorian.

Ben W. Olcott, who has announced his candidacy for governor on the republican ticket, writes us that the present outlook for his nomination "is fully 100 per cent better than at any period during either of my preceding campaigns."

Hell's Too Good for the Brutes
 Miss B. Bennett, one of England's best war correspondents, and who has made frequent trips through Belgium and along the battle line since the war began, in a recent interview said:

"Do you know that there is a hospital in France filled with 1500 young girls between the ages of 14 and 18, who are going to have babies with German fathers? I think you Americans are mistaken in putting all the blame on the kaiser—he is a fit emperor for such a people."

1500 white-face yearling ewes for May 1st delivery at Robinette. Guarantee stock to be good. Will be sold in lots of 300 up. - Address Geo. W. Densley, Baker, Ore.-ad

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doan's Catarrh Remedy, and by constantly taking it, you will find relief. It is a great remedy for all kinds of catarrh, whether it be of the bladder, prostate, or bowels, and it is sold in bottles of 50 cents and $1.00. It is a sure cure for all kinds of catarrh, and it is sold in bottles of 50 cents and $1.00. It is a sure cure for all kinds of catarrh, and it is sold in bottles of 50 cents and $1.00.

Double Duty Dollars
 War Savings Stamps make dollars for the bank and for the trenches. Every time you buy the you defend old age and Old Glory. Uncle Sam makes shirts and uniforms and hospitals and aeroplanes with the money, and you make the safest and best investment on earth.

These little stamps are fractional Liberty Bonds—miniature loans to the Government—small change enlisted for national service—"widows' mites" in khaki—spare earnings on the firing line—your cash fighting for the flag and earning an income all the while.

Here's patriotism put out at interest.
 Here's a way to hit the kaiser every day and be paid for doing it.—Exchange.

Every food-saving kitchen takes three "pot-shots" a day at the enemy.

Often the spirit of perseverance strikes a man when he is in the wrong.

You can't look on the dismal side of things when you smile—and neither can the other fellow.

Sydney Smith's Wit.
 As Lord Brougham one day rode by in his carriage, on the panel of which was a large B, Sydney Smith is said to have remarked:

"There goes a carriage with a B outside and a wasp within."

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE

Until this new "smoke" was made you could never have a real Burley tobacco cigarette. It's the best yet.

IT'S TOASTED

The toasting brings out the delicious flavor of that fine old Kentucky Burley. You never tasted anything so agreeable—think what roasting does for peanuts.
