THE TRUE PATRIOT

Below we give an extract from an oration delivered by Daniel Webster at Fryeburg, Maine, on July 4, 1802, when Webster was but twenty years of age.

"Unhappy Europe! The judgment of God rests hard upon thee. Thy sufferings would deserve an angel's pity if an angel's tears could wash away thy crimes. The Eastern Continent seems trembling on the brink of some great catastrophe. Convulsions shake and terrors alarm it. Ancient systems are falling; works reared by ages are crumbling into atoms. Let us humbly implore Heaven that the wide-spreading desolation may never reach the shores of our native land, but let us devoutly make up our minds to do our duty in events that may happen to us. Let us cherish genuine patriotism. In that, there is a sort of inspiration that gives strength and energy almost more than human. When the mind is attached to a great object, it grows to the magnitude of its undertaking. A true patriot, with his eye and his heart on the honor and happiness of his country, hath an elevation of soul that lifts him above the rank of ordinary men. To common occurrences he is indifferent. Personal considerations dwindle into nothing in comparison with his high sense of public duty. In all the vicissitudes of fortune, he leans with pleasure on the protection of Providence and on the dignity and composure of his own mind. While his country enjoys peace, he rejoices and is thankful; and, if it be in the counsel of Heaven to send the storm and the tempest, his bosom proudly swells against the rage that assaults it. Above fear, above danger, he feels that the last end which can happen to any man never comes too soon if he falls in defence of the laws and liberties of his country."

Mrs. Oscar Kendall arrived home from California yesterday.

$21,700 worth of Third Liberty Bonds have been bought in this section to date. Let's make it $30,000 before May 4th.

At the last meeting of the W. H. M. S. the members voted to take out a five-year membership in the Red Cross. A fine quilt was also donated to the Belgian relief committee.

One pair of eyes is all you will ever have. Be fair with them. M. D. Fleming, optometrist of Boise, who is registered in both Idaho and Oregon and has had 20 years experience, will again visit Richland on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 26, 27 and 28. If your eyes are causing you trouble, this is the opportunity to have them examined by an expert.—ad

Miss May Murphy, home demonstration agent, came in Monday evening and on Tuesday afternoon gave a lecture before the home study class in domestic economy. The meeting was one of the most interesting and best attended that has been held in Richland and Miss Murphy is much pleased with the progress being made along the line of food conservation.

Injured in Run Away

R. H. Goodwin was severely bruised and scathed Saturday afternoon by being thrown from the wagon when his team ran away. He was taken into the C. H. Elliott home, near where the accident happened, and is still suffering considerably. Fortunately no bones were broken, yet Mr. Goodwin will be unable to do much farm work this summer. Mrs. Goodwin and daughter were also in the wagon but escaped without injury.

To Irvine Lodge No. 86, K. P.

The officers and members of the Christian church of Richland most heartily thank the Knights for their courtesy and generosity in extending to us the use of their lodge rooms for church purposes during the time we were without a church building in which to worship. We are truly grateful and extend an earnest invitation to all Knights to worship with us in our new home.

The Best Worker

You may work regularly so many hours a day and so many days a week, year after year, for money, but there's a harder worker than you are.

You will appreciate him when you get him to working for you. His name is MONEY. Once get money to working for you instead of you working for it and you will find that money never sleeps but works for you day and night 365 days in the year. Can you equal it? Certainly not. Start a bank account with us and you will soon have money working for you.

Thrift and War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds are the answer. Are you answering?

Elmer Schultz, who has been suffering from spotted fever for some time, is in critical condition at this writing.

Mr. Herr has received word that this district has been awarded an "Honor Flag" for promptness in going over the top for Third Liberty Bonds. The flag will float below Old Glory on special occasions.

"Uncle Billy" Usher has had a 40-foot pole erected at his office and keeps Old Glory floating from its top. When it comes to genuine patriotism Uncle Bill is 100 per cent American.

The United States army must have immediately, for service in France under General Pershing, 12,000 skilled men in special lines of work. This is the greatest opportunity yet offered for volunteers as special recognition will be given both now and after the war to those that enlist now.

IT MUST BE KEPT ALIGHT.

Upon America, devolves the sacred duty of keeping alight the torch of Liberty and upholding justice and democracy throughout the world. Let us not falter or count the cost, for in the freedom of the world lies our only safety, and the preservation of our American liberties and institutions.
