Last week W. R. Usher shipped to his niece, Mrs. D. Soldoni at Bayamon, Porto Rico, a lot of old family portraits and heir-looms. These were enclosed in a chest that was of itself a historical relic, having been made from a beam taken from a house built in 1601 in the village of Bodicote, Oxfordshire, England, being the noon, May 11, to n house in which Mr. Usher was this season's work. born. The chest was of oak, quaintly carved by hand. Among other things enclosed were several books written by Uncle Bill's father, who was a scholar gon and we must keep it so. and author of considerable note.

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs.

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suited to his age and occu-pation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel duli and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect .- adv
