

MICKIE SAYS

AIN'T IT STRANGE HOW SOME GOOD SCOUTS IN THIS TOWN WHO PAY ALL THEIR OTHER BILLS PROMPT AND REGULAR WILL FORGET THE NEWSPAPER MAN PER TWO OR THREE YEARS AT A STRETCH?

LOCALS

Make thrift your buy-word. Get your "Deering" repairs at Raley's. Miss Isabel McArthur of Baker is visiting here. Miss Hazel Herr arrived home Monday evening from Boise. Firestone cases and inner tubes on sale at Richland Drug Store. Mrs. Chas. Keller and Mrs. Hayman Swisher went to Cornucopia Tuesday. Several thousand head of February lambs will be shipped East by local sheepmen this week. National War Savings Day is only one day; our men in the army and navy have their day every day. A shower visited Eagle Valley on Tuesday evening and a heavy rain fell in the Five Mile and Sparta districts. J. M. Chase reports additional contributions to the Red Cross War Fund as follows: J. P. Halley $5; Dan Stanciu $5. If your eyes trouble you, don't fail to call on Dr. Fleming at the Richland Hotel on Saturday and Sunday, June 22 and 23. Mrs. Minnie Nedrow and family (except Misses Ethel and Minnie Wright) left yesterday for Vancouver, Wash., to make their future home. At the regular church services at New Bridge Sunday morning, Rev. J. M. Johnson will deliver a lecture on Thrift and War Savings Stamps. In the evening the Children's Day exercises will be held. The rope on the flag pole was broken by the high wind one day last week. As the pole will have to be taken down in order to put in a new rope, several townsmen have suggested that the pole be repainted and reset at the street intersection instead of its present location. Cholera Morbus This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Enyeart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."

After all, saving is not sacrificing. J. W. Patterson went to Baker Friday. Oris Howell has purchased Ray Taylor's auto. Buy Ingersoll Watches at Richland Drug Store. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Selders departed for Portland last Friday. Get your dishes for haying at Raley's. New supply just in. Mrs. Geo. W. Jones was elected clerk of School District No. 45 at New Bridge. Little Miss Lavesta Irwin of Tekoe, Wash., is visiting her aunt Mrs. Bert Rogers. A farewell party was given Ralph Byrne at the home of Mrs. C. M. Dimmick on last Thursday evening. Melville M. Palmer, a Baker county pioneer, died last Friday and was buried at the county seat Tuesday. W. H. Stout has received 120 head of blooded sheep from Washington which he will pasture on his ranch. The Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. L. Y. Matthews tomorrow (Friday) afternoon. All members are urged to be present. Haying season is here; we are prepared to supply your needs in machinery and repairs, also anything you may need for the table. Saunders Bro's. Mrs. Winter Wright is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Helen Pulliam of Washington, D. C., and little son. The visitors will remain until September. I. B. Hazeltins, district game warden, was a business caller last Thursday, while on his way to Baker from Cornucopia where he had been investigating violations of the fish and game laws. An infant daughter was stillborn to the wife of Mr. H. J. Haskins on Sunday night and was buried Monday afternoon. Rev. J. M. Johnson conducting the funeral services at the cemetery. "Eagle Valley Jim," the turkey sold at the Red Cross benefit Friday night, is being fed and taken care of by Irvine Lodge No. 86 K. of P. while elaborate preparations are being made for his future adventures, the plans of which will be made public later. We can divulge this much, however, the bird is going to do "his bit" for the Red Cross and at the same time be a booster for Eagle Valley. A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Olson on Tuesday, in honor of Mrs. Olson's three sons who are leaving to serve their country. As fate would have it, Art, Mel, Byron and Harry Thompson have been called to service, Art having been granted a 60-day extension of time will not go now. This, we believe, will give Mrs. Olson the distinction of being the champion "war mother" in this part of the state. Has a Good Opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets. "Chamberlain's Tablets are a wonder. I never sold anything that beat them," writes F. B. Tressey, Richmond, Ky. When troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. Buy Ingersoll Watches at Richland Drug Store.

Read "My Vision" in this issue Chas. Howell had cattle on the Portland market Monday. Save, save, save, for the sake of the "home boys" in service. Be sure and buy your flags for July 4th at Richland Drug Store. If you wish a Hartford or Perfection oil stove call on Saunders Bro's. Mrs. Bernard Greene of Robnetta has been visiting Mrs. C. M. Dimmick. Mrs. Lola Steele has arrived from Eubanks, Ky., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Will McDowell. Jno. F. Herr was unable to attend the convention of W. S. S. chairman last Friday by a call from the state bank examiner. At the command of the United States Government no church services will be held at New Bridge on next Sunday afternoon or at Richland in the evening. Dr. Fleming, Optometrist, will be at the Richland hotel on Saturday and Sunday, June 22 and 23, and at Halfway on Monday afternoon and all day Tuesday, June 24 and 25. R. H. Goodwin, who has been taking medical treatment in Baker for several weeks past, has returned home but it will likely be a long time yet before he is able to do much work. At the annual school meeting of District No. 44 held Monday, John Chapman was elected director for three year term, and C. E. Thorp re-elected clerk. A special tax of 3 1/2 mills was voted. The clerk's financial statement showed that all back warrants had been paid and there was a balance in the bank. Eagle Valley now has a dentist, Dr. R. H. Beck of Portland having located here. He has had five years experience in the business and comes highly recommended. Dr. Beck is in the U. S. Naval Reserve and will remain here until called for duty, which he has been informed will not be for several months. The Doctor has his office in Room 1 at the Richland Hotel, and will be assisted by his wife who has taken an advanced course in prophylactic work. The Red Cross benefit given on Friday evening in honor of the boys who are leaving to fight the huns, was a success both socially and financially. At the K. P. hall the ladies were kept busy serving ice cream and strawberries, while at the opera house the dancers were liberal patrons of the lemonade booth presided over by Maude Halley and Josephine Ayres. A mammoth turkey gobbler, donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cropp, was auctioned off a number of times, bringing $60 into the treasury. In all the net proceeds amounted to $138.75 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Barber having donated the ice cream, thus reducing the expenses to a considerable extent. Sour Stomach This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.
