DAY OF WAISTCOAT

Paris Sketches Predict Advance of the Long Garment.

Promises to Be Dominant Feature of New Autumn Clothes Which Will Be Introduced in August.

Last January, the women in Paris wore waistcoats of fur, velvet, knitted wool and dyed homespun that reached from the collar bone to the knees. The heads of dressmaking houses, who are carefully watched wherever they go, contributed to the fashion for these accessories by placing them in their own suits.

America introduced few of them, and she did not find even the short waistcoat of last February, a success, declares a writer on fashion topics. It was worn by a few segments of smart women, fashionable and unfashionable, rich and poor, but the long waistcoat was treated as an outcast. It was not even recognized. But France persisted and the dressmakers in New York are putting it into suits and frocks for summer resorts. The prophecy runs that it will be a dominant feature of new autumn clothes.

In a large bunch of Paris photographs that have come over, this long waistcoat is repeated in many fabrics on women who are snapped as they go about their new and active life. The sketches that come over from the big designers as heralds of what will be advanced in August, show the long waistcoat also. It is made in a different color from the gown; it is used for protection or for beauty, and although it is probably taken from the reign of Louis XIV, it has none of the elegance or jauntness of its predecessor. It merely looks warm and comfortable, or gay and colorful.

It is the longest waistcoat that has

VOILE AND ORGANDIE FROCK

Of the many varieties in summer frocks this of voile stands out as a pleasing and attractive dress. The frilled organdie breaks the long skirt line, and is used for collars, cuffs and belt.

USE MADE OF FOOD CARTONS

Oatmeal Containers Easily Transformed into Attractive Scrap Baskets for the Table.

"Why in the world are you Hoovering all these oatmeal cartons? I always burn mine," said the visitor in astonishment as her friend opened a cupboard and disclosed a shelf filled with a collection of oatmeal cartons, the round kind.

"I will show you," said her friend, leading the way into the living room and taking an object from the table. "What do you think of that? I call it a table scrap basket."

"A table scrap basket!" exclaimed the visitor. "What could be more useful and what could be prettier?"

"You know," explained her friend, "I always save the odd lengths of wall paper left over. There is a box full in the storeroom. One of these pieces of wall paper is of a wonderful blue, the kind with green in it, a mat tint. I took a carton, cut and fitted the blue paper to it and pasted it on. Then ever been worn by woman. It was matched in length by those worn at the court of the Grand Monarque. Looking at it in its most essential feature, it is merely another way to straighten the figure. It, therefore, can be adopted by those to whom middle age has brought an undesired roundness.

DARK BLUE HELMET TURBAN

Charming enough would be this dainty helmet turban alone, but its designers were not satisfied, so they added the charming summer veil. The hat is dark blue, covered with a multitude of summer flowers. The same flower motif is carried out in the dark blue veil.

SAND PILE KEEPS TOTS BUSY

Affords One of the Greatest Amusement for Youngsters—Can Model Clay Designs.

What else is there with which little children's hands can be kept more satisfactorily occupied than sand? Just turn the children loose in a pile or table of sand, with a spoon, a pail, a cup or anything with which they can dig or shovel.

You do not like sand in the house? If you have a suitable place for it, it need not make any trouble. An old kitchen table turned upside down, with the legs cut short and put on the other side, makes a good table for sand. A piece of burlap or denim placed under the table keeps the sand from being scattered over the house.

With clay, a simple little cradle may be made. The child first rolls a piece into a ball, cuts it in half with a string. One of these halves forms the lower part of the cradle. The other he cuts in two, using one piece for the top and remodeling the other into a "ball for baby."

Birds' nests with eggs can be made with clay; also apples, oranges, cups and saucers, and even animals may be attempted.

Hats Off for Hair.

Keep your hat off as much as possible. Hair cannot lie too easily or loosely for its own health, and that of the nerves and head. Anything like pressure, heat or strain about the head will injure the brain and the finest parts of the nervous system. Pulling the hair up too tightly from the back of the head and ears will cause the glands of the neck to swell. Notice what a relief it is to take all your hairpins out of the hair and let it hang loose for a few hours.

If you adopt an easy, artistic and natural hair dressing, nervousness will disappear and headaches will be unknown. It is not only beneficial to the growth of the hair, but to the nerves of the head to wear it tied with a ribbon at the nape of the neck, free of hairpins, whenever possible.

there was another end of wall paper left over from the dining room frieze. It was a French paper showing a riot of gaily colored birds in a jungle of leaves and flowers. From this paper a rich blue parakeet, balancing on a red stem, was cut and pasted on the darker blue background, taking care to paste it over the seam where the paper on the carton is joined together.

"Then the edges, top and bottom, were bound with furniture gumme which matches the blue paper. For handles I took two large rings such as are used for curtain pulls, covered them with buttonhole stitching in black and hung them on either side of the carton, forming little drop handles. The bottom and inside of the carton were dyed a deep red, harmonizing with the touches of red in the parakeet. Other cartons were covered with a light yellow paper and mounted with brown and yellow birds with gumme to match and black handles.

"My table scrap baskets, I find, make useful and much-appreciated gifts. And that is why I am Hoovering the oatmeal cartons."

Stopping Razor on the Hand.

It is claimed that the finest stop for a razor is the fleshy part of one's hand below the little finger. If it is a safety razor blade grasp it between the thumb and first finger of the right hand and strike finger nail and blade at the same time on the fleshy part of the left hand. If you will do it slowly at first the motion becomes automatic. A little vaseline on the cutting edge is said to keep the blades constantly in first-class condition.

Keep Smiling.

Happiness of heart and soul can be willed. It is psychologically true that the laugh which is at first forced may later be made genuine. Try it. Try reading the joy column of the papers and magazines. Treasure the good ones and pass them on to friends. Don't destroy a play because it is for laughing purposes only. Hunt such comedies and tell others of them. Start every day in good humor, with a smile. It will help brighten the day for others.

Holderless Pen.

A European inventor has devised a metal blank with four clamps which carries a pen at the end. This device clamped around the forefinger is said to make writing much easier than when a penholder is used.
