An Old Man's Stomach

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

Give once but enough for all.

Keep the pep in the boys who are peppering the Kaiser.
 Give to the United War Work Campaign.

Certain Cure for Croup.

Mrs. Rose Middleton, of Greenville, Ill., has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."

Lady Driver Makes Record

Occasionally mention has been made of fast driving between Baker and Richland, and many of our men have blown about making the trip in about two and one-half hours and a few have made it in two, but the swiftest of them will have to acknowledge that one must travel like an airplane to beat the record made yesterday morning by Mrs. Geo. W. Densley, who, accompanied by Mrs. Dick Cavin, drove the 45 miles in 115 minutes. Those acquainted with the "good roads" realize that this is an exceptional record.

Cattle Worth Big Money

The most valuable bunch of beef cattle ever leaving Eagle Valley at one time were driven to Robinette for shipment Tuesday. The cattle were weighed Monday and figuring at the market price the 350 head would average $120 per head, making a total of $42,000. They were the property of Lovell, Dan and Carson Gover and Walter Cundiff.

A nine-pound boy was still-born on Sunday morning to the wife of Harry Moulton and was buried in the Eagle Valley cemetery. Mrs. Moulton is making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank High; her husband being a member of Co. B, 22nd M. G. Bn. and sailed for France a few days since.

Volume 7, Number 1.

With this week's issue the Eagle Valley News starts on the seventh year of its existence and fifth year under the present management. The war against the hun has been going on but a few months at the time we took over the News and in spite of the extra burden resulting since the United States entered the conflict we have been able to issue the paper every week while hundreds of papers throughout the United States were forced to suspend.

We admit that many times we thought seriously of closing shop until after the war, as our receipts were barely sufficient to meet expenses and we could have made more money elsewhere, but we stuck at our post because of the good we felt we could do in our limited way towards bringing the huns to their knees.

We are indeed grateful for the loyal support accorded us by the residents of this district and trust that it may continue in the future, giving to all the assurance that we mean to give a square deal to every man and are back of Old Glory first, last and always.

C. E. Thorp.

Watch Us Celebrate

Eagle Valley citizens were so confident of the downfall of the hun that they did not consider any sort of celebration necessary. Elsewhere throughout the United States enthusiasm ran rampant. Let us show that we, too, appreciate the allied victory by over-subscribing our quota to the United War Work Fund.

For a Weak Stomach

As a general rule all you need to do is to adopt a diet suited to your age and occupation and to keep your bowels regular. When you feel that you have eaten too much and when constipated, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets.

It is impossible to do too much for those who bearing the brunt of this war.
