"Somewhere in the West"

There is development going on in 1919 that you want to know about. It may be a reclamation project, a new mining project, a newly discovered oil field, openings for manufacturers, opportunities in growing sheep, cattle, hogs, horses or other livestock, or you may want to know something of the scenery of the West—what to see when you motor across country on the new highways that are being built.

"Building the West"

The New West Magazine is the only publication in the United States devoted solely to "Building the West," and it is the nation's exponent of the advantages and opportunities to be found in the West. It is bringing the "landless man to the manless land."

Among the important subjects that will be carefully presented with accompanying illustrations in The New West Magazine in 1919 will be:

Western Reconstruction Waste Lands to be Reclaimed (a series) Giving the Settler a Chance Agriculture the Basis of Commerce What Capital Demands of the West Efficiency on the Farm Making Satisfied Farmers State Aid for Industrial Development Good Roads and Distribution	Alaska America's Unexplored Empire Distances that Prey on Alaskan Development Fish More Valuable than Gold Scenes of Impending Grandeur The Railroads of Alaska Recent Alaskan Mining Development Adventures in Wonderland

Developing Home Industries

The observance of "Western Consumers Week," which originated with The New West Magazine six years ago, will be carried out on a larger scale than ever in 1919, the second week in April being the regular date chosen. During this week all the people of the West—and especially the women—will be asked to call for and use Western-made goods, and retail merchants will make special displays of articles manufactured in the West.
