A great doctrin

They framed up a great doctrin in the New Testament to get out of a little work. Their heavenly father would feed them the same as he does the fowls of heaven if they would live on bugs, acorns and wild plums and dident multiply too fast. A God that would hear a mans prairs that wont do any thing but preach and pray is crazy but to show you that ny heart is in the rite place I will give the poor in Europ one hundred sacks of potatoes if any body will furnish the sacks and pay the freight. I've got the spuds. G. W. Jones.—adv
