E. & W. Chandler The Different Store

Spring Millinery Opening Now On in Full Blast

We will have on display for your inspection and approval all of the Latest Creations

from the Best Designers of America

The Public Cordially Invited

New Line of Middies Just Received

JELLICOE SHOWS

British Officer Surprised by Caution of Fee During First of War.

Short of Cruistie Destroyers and Had Defenceless Cares in Early Months of Conflict - Distriber Big Battie of swilland.

Eritbeh grun Tentroper at in the fall of D. I. as out from Longit.

sen when the Bit is ungerin Scape Flow.

Neither in October, 1914, nor in May, 1916, Admiral Johlese says, did the The British margin of superfority Justify him in discounting the enemy's forpedo fire. The abuniton gradually Improved after 1976, especially as the fight cruiser and destroyer forces with the grand fleet increased steadily after the battle of Juriand, considerably reducing the danger of successful torpedo attack, while the inclusion of class K submarines made it probable that the enemy would suffer more severely from submarine attack than the British.

Tables Are Turned. Regarding 1918, Admiral Jellicoe

"The position was assured and we could have afforded to take risks which In 1916 would have been unwise, If the German fleet had come out to batthe, a terrible punishment awaited or invasion on the fleet alone, It is them. One-third of the admiral's book is levoted to the buttle of Jutland. In a possible enemy in all classes of vegfamiling up the lessons of the buttle. | sels than we did in August, 1914." Admiral Jellicoe dwells upon "the dan-was the one and only factor vital to the existence of the empire, and, indeed, to the allied cause,

"We had no reserve outside the battle fleet which could in any way replace it in the event of disaster or even should its margin of superlority be eliminated," the admiral continues,

Admiral Jellicoe says he knew that his ships were inadequately protected with armor compared to the German vessels of the battle cruiser type, while the German floot in the battle of Julland was for better off in the number of destroyers. In addition, the Germans possessed "a most efficient armor-plereing should

Describes Hig Battle. The admiral costinues:

here was a difference of reckoning their cross a between the Bullet buttle fleet and This parts the battle critical attendrous, due to (waiting) re of enteres the emplois has not be entered for Thomas nest time and [absent pones and in his reportedly provide alberted their ross - 11 -100, parrent of t stead, the effe- regard i. P. Dang and Tay appeared on the chourd how,"

our, the adtelling of the sure and to the todeploy on the renet, contine the port who diese the contilling the Germanto har all to starbened to avoid befor record. This numeriver, which has been described as musterly. d. White memoraver, by reviewers, throw the enemy into complete confiners. The German conmunder in chief the little that his only hope lay in evenie, prefitting by his Swilly and only returned to the North | superiority in records craft, low vistbility, the approach of darkness and the proximity of his bases and mine

The enemy at this period fired hundreds of torpedoes, as German officers. have since stated, Admiral Jellicoe continues, and although the Germans were in the gravest peril, the position of the grand fleet itself was menaced by determined torgedo attacks in thick wenther. But the British fleet by turning its battle line four times during the action, the admiral says, got clear of the torpedoes, which were racing toward the British ships, and defeated the factics upon which the Germans based their hopes,

After estimating the relative strength of the two fleets early in the war, Admiral Jellicoe expresses surprise that the Germans were so cautious and

"If this country in the future decided to rely for safety against raids essential that we possess a considerably greater margin of superiority over

IT'S WORTH WHILE-THAT'S WHY

Tense Minutes latore Argenne, of American ites in That Fight as W - orful-"Will Forever monor Thom,"

"It was the zero hour in the Argenne," remarked Maj. H. T. Hoyden, an English officer, now in this country, "when I was first impressed with the greatness of America. I happened to detailed to an American unit. There were French and American and English soldiers there, but I was with an American command. It doesn't matter what the occasion. When the buttle of the Argonne began I was in a dugout when an American officer commanding a regiment of artillery stood with his watch in his hand, counting the seconds. He had been ordered to begin firing at 5.330 in the "When the battle flocis approached miles the cost of the groupings had in hed P-London Shift. The zero hour was 5:30, there from I countril | pary : ero cume. This officer sting waiting for the Leok ... or off my filling of as if retimes, at that, to be broken loose.

a how any luman being Indianapata News. a such a thing, but we ones the guns spoke, and then for a brief period there was a cessarion. Once more they started, and it was not until after noon that they storaged. Meantime the infantry was preparity to make its charge. I rode along the front lines of artillery in the early morning. Below I saw the American boys getting rendy to make their drive. It was the most Wonderful, the sublimest sight I ever saw or ever expect to see. I shall never forget, because it is stamped the delibly in my brain, the enthusiasm and the exuberance of the American gunners. They may have had no previous training, but I shall forever bonor the American artillerist, and I shall never forget the opening of the battle of the Argonne."

Poetic Justice!

The first four letters of the name Amerongen, which designates the mosted eastle in Holland where the former Kalser Withelm II is observing the twilight of the Hohenzollerns as rulers, compose the French word meaning bitter. One might find in this a and for mostly at a community it may Pression imperiments. Include the Rebensions has been been and no floatet they are bitter.

Chuerful Billided Soldiera.

Cheerful news comes along from St. Dunernn's allotment holders. Here, as in other directions, the blinded subflers are making good. E. Clarke, a poultry farmer at Lidwinstows, is winner of the first prize for the best pointoes and carrols at a local show, we read in the current number of St. Dunstan's Review, and on another page of this bright little record of the blinded soldiers' work and sport, we rendr "One allotment helder, who is otherwise ocupled during the day, contends that he has the advantage over ordinary sighted people for he need not hurry frome to put in so hear before dark; morning. At along that line of many he can get on with it while they are

J. R. Courtlell of Vandalia, Intl. med to drag on awaid paraches, not thus December smake and. It was not never sourted or a piece of timber and a contain, and matter to a contain, that dog even peter. It was a whole, but a least others a tree and places at the grandest shock over the am hound to a five-food under of the artillery. Such northly The state had the at like and notes the guns proposed of horizon small and a role ow only once in a life let, but here in then of shood that an eccasion, it secured and had seemed a claim most ago We missed the cultur egg fast July,"- Ownership.

"Are you in theor of government ownership?

"Well," replied Senator Sorghum Tve been trying to make up my mind. Everything depends on whether a business is run with intelligence and care, regardless of who owns it. And I've seen some men who thought they could take on all kinds of government responsibility that I wouldn't trust to run a pennut stand,"

Its Profits.

"I see where they are going to have a cat show to New York for the soldiers and sallors." "Well, the profits ought, of a show like that, amount to a considerable purr cent."

German Deterioration.

German doctors estimate that the average person in cities of that country lost about one sixth of his weight during the war. Men lost slightly more weight than women. Farmers lost no weight at all.

Want Column

Advertisements under this head are printed for five cents per line each insertion.

Lost, Strayed or Stelen Two hogs weight about 140 lbs each; marked with square crop off each car, $5.00 reward for their return to Ed Augustus.

For Sale-110 sere ranch near New Bridge; 25a under ditch; plenty water; fair improvements. Call on or address D. A. Rinard, New Bridge, Ore. - 22p

BACON-Home cured, 250 lbs. at 38c to 40c. In thus Chandler,

FOR SALE-Two good work herses, 4 and 5 yrs old; also good wagon and harness, saddle and many other articles, at livery barn. Will sell on 7 months time, good note. G. W. Martin, Richand, -ad

For Private Sale - a lot of miscelluneous household goods. Call at my home. Oscar Ken full ad

WILL TRADE a pool Hameh John Deere walking place for a

For Sule-Montant of June if beauty cannot fruit; st. C. Bowen, New Bridge .

Order that the from Halfleny Gurage at once and save free per cent war tax. Milage gunranteed, adv

FOUND-Braided Hair Hat Band. Owner may have same by calling at News office and paying for this notice.

MAMMOTH JACK, "Broadway," will stand the season of 1919 at our ranch 12 mites west of Richland. Fee reasonable. H. H. & H. A. Jacobs, -ad19p.

The American Young People, a high-prade monthly magazine for boys and girts, (price $2 per year), and the E. V. News, both ane wear for anly. S

Public Safe.

On the buy in the groom, March he follow bur property will be without his highest blatter with

Two great mileti rows, Popular on it is seen to we with Pivo shouts, Simo ald.

Five Pigs, firms al. One broad saw With 6 pigs, One brond saw.

Om do an chicken, One colt, yearling post. Three yearling ew-

One Mitchell wagon complete. One double shove; plow, One Majestic steel range, Hed steads and miscellaneous articles too numerous to mention. Sale will be held at the old Tayor ranch west of Richland. Terms: Sums under $10 cash, on sums over $10 a credit of eight months time will be given to purchasers giving bankable note drawing 10 per cent interest.

Mrs. Ed Derrick, Owner.

Friends of the News who have occasion to publish legal advertisements in settlement of estates or other probate matters or in cases in the district court will do this paper a favor by directing their attorney or the county official having such matters in charge to have such publication made in The Eagle Valley News.