CHURCH DEDICATED

Last Sunday was a time of much rejoicing at the Methodist church, the occasion being the dedication of the edifice. This church is now entirely out of debt, a fact due to the efforts of the pastor, Rev. J. M. Johnson, and the board of trustees: John Fraser, D. T. Allen, G. B. Saunders, W. E. Summers and E. E. Holman, as well as to the loyalty of the membership in general.

A large audience was present at each of the services, the programs of which are given below:

MORNING SERVICE, 11:00 A. M.
Voluntary.
Hymn—No. 2: "Come Thou Almighty King."
Prayer.
Anthem by Choir.
Old Testament Lesson, Gloria Patri.
Lesson from New Testament.
Notices and offering.
Hymn—No. 46: "Coronation."
Sermon, Rev. H. S. Shangle, D.D.
Dedication.
Hymn—No. 57: "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord."
Doxology and Benediction.
Dinner at the church.

AFTERNOON SERVICE, 3:00 P. M.
Hymn—No. 113: "Love Divine."
Prayer.
Solo, Mable Saunders.
Sermon.
Baptismal Service.
Hymn—No. 176: "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."
Benediction.

EVENING SERVICE, 8:00 P. M.
Voluntary.
Hymn—No. 16: "Day is Dying in the West."
Prayer.
Anthem by Choir.
Scripture Lesson.
Offering and notices.
Solo, Miss Lida Saunders.
Sermon.
Hymn—No. 177: "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."
Benediction.

We Don't Tell.

"It's funny," says Sam Wiseacre, "I was in the bank the other day and thought I'd find out how much old Skinum had on deposit but do you think they would tell me? No sir, they wouldn't. Politely informed me that it was against their rules to give any information about anybody's account." That's right. It is the policy of this bank to hold in strict confidence every transaction of whatever nature. We want all of our customers to have confidence in us and we strive to earn this confidence by not talking about matters entrusted to us.

DIED THIS MORNING

William Cooper died this morning at about 3:30 o'clock, aged 60 years and 3 days. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

The deceased is survived by his wife, three sons, Fred, W. B. and Maurice, and one daughter, Mrs. Imogene Cooper.

An obituary will be published in our next issue.

BACK HOME AGAIN

Sgt. W. E. Strang who enlisted in the aviation service in 1917, has received his honorable discharge and arrived Monday at the home of his parents at Sparta where he will visit for some time. "Ed" was in France for more than a year, serving in the 642nd Aero Squadron, 3rd A. I. E., as a mechanic, and although he failed to see any fighting he witnessed many thrilling accidents, several of which resulted fatally to the occupants of the machines. He was up on several flights and says he enjoys flying very much. The Sergeant is as fat and plump as a "brownie," an evidence that army life agreed with him.

Corporal Clarence Bradford, Co. M, 14th Inf., came in Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Rosa Bennett, and other relatives and friends. Clarence had been stationed at Camp Grant, Ill., for several months past but received his discharge at Camp Lewis. He will go from here to Portland where his wife awaits him and they will make their future home in that city.

Corp. Clarence W. McCormick who served in the 7th Aviation Instruction Detachment, 33rd Aero Squadron, recently received his discharge from service and arrived Monday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Matt Welter, near Sparta.

Sgt. G. E. Brooks returned to the Valley yesterday. Since his discharge from service he had been working with Federal Emigration Department on a patrol boat off the coast of Mexico until a few weeks ago when he joined a U. S. geological survey party and will go to Alaska within a few weeks. Other than being a little better looking, he is the same old happy Everett.

All Should Join.

Having been appointed chairman of the Boy Scout movement in this section, I wish to know how many want to see this work organized here. Will the parents, teachers, and others who desire to see the work started, kindly let me know of your wish? Also, will the boys in the Valley between the ages of 12 and 18 years who want to join a Boy Scout Local, please give me their names?
I wish to make definite arrangements about this work by next Sunday evening.
J. M. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman and son, Merton, spent Sunday in Pine Valley.

Church Notices.

Good choruses and special music will be a pleasing part of the services at the Methodist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

The subject for discussion will be: "Are the Prophecies of Scripture Being Fulfilled in the World Events of Today?"

Preaching at New Bridge in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

All who are interested in a Sunday School picnic are invited to be present in the Sunday schools, and on time, so that arrangements can be made to suit both schools.

J. M. Johnson, Pastor.

Tent Meetings.

Beginning tomorrow (Friday) evening and continuing indefinitely, the local Nazarene church will hold a series of revival meetings in Richland. Rev. W. P. Jay of Texas will be the evangelist. Mr. and Mrs. Jay and family are all musicians, and first class music and old fashioned gospel singing will be featured at each meeting. Everybody is invited to attend.
