Hardy an Ideal Citizen.
There is a story told of an ancient dandy in London who, taking, one sunny afternoon, his accustomed stroll down Bond street, met an acquaintance hurrying in the direction of Westminster. "Whither away so fast this hot day?" murmured the dandy. "To the house of commons," cried his strenuous friend, brushing past him. "What!" said the dandy, with a yawn. "does that go on still?"—Exchange.

Gun Barrels.
A rather interesting side light on the question of gun barrel life is a determination of the actual length of time to which a good shotgun barrel is subjected to the force and burning effect of the powder charge during its lifetime. If 100,000 shots are fired from a shotgun the inside of the barrel is actually exposed to the flame of the powder charge for about four minutes.

BOY SCOUTS

SCOUTS ARE NOT FOR SALE

Another letter received at national headquarters suggests a criticism. This letter states:
"There is hardly a week that some business house does not have some plan to offer for using our organization to sell goods."

It is an unfortunate fact that so many men have failed to understand that the ideal of service wrought into the boy scout movement is entirely free of the spirit of gain.

The scout good turn which takes on so many forms and has even risen to the high plane of national service in the time of war cannot be bought. It is not devised to help increase the gains of any person or business or institution. It is helpfulness outside of the field of commercialism.

It is true that scouts can work for money. But it is equally true that neither a scout nor a troop should be worked for money. Let no individual and no concern try to break down that fine distinction.

If a boy scout does any one of the many honorable things a boy can do for business concerns and for others to earn money, he does it as a boy, not as a boy scout.

BOY SCOUTS TO FEED BIRDS.

Twenty-eight troops of boy scouts were assigned in Minneapolis by L. S. Dale, scout executive, to take care of the bird-feeding stations in 14 parks.

"Feeding of birds usually should only be done after storms or during severe weather," says Mr. Dale. "The idea is to keep the birds with us, but not to overfeed them. During mild weather they are generally able to make their own living, but this has been an exceptional season, and the natural food supply for birds has about been exhausted."

"There are 1,800 boy scouts in the city, and every one of them is interested in the protection of birds. It is hoped that the scouts will open the eyes of the public generally to the necessity of co-operation in affording this protection to bird life in our parks."

MARK ROOSEVELT TREES.

The city parks of Los Angeles will in the future bear living testimony to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt in the form of trees to be furnished and planted by troops of boy scouts. These trees will be 36 in number.

The first 36 troops (there are 129 troops under the Los Angeles scout council) to sign up at headquarters will each have the honor of planting an oak tree, at the foot of which will be placed a bronze tablet inscribed as follows: "Planted Arbor day, 1919, by Troop No. —, Los Angeles Boy Scouts of America, in honor of Theodore Roosevelt."
