Got Poor Pay.
W. R. Usher celebrated his 87th birthday last Saturday, having been born on June 21, 1832. May he live to enjoy many more happy returns of the day is the wish of his host of friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Usher arrived in Eagle Valley in 1878 and paid $300 to John Swisher for his squatter's right to the land that is now the townsite of Richland and the Usher Ranch, this country being unsurveyed at that time. In '79 the survey was made and Mr. Usher took up the land as a homestead.
"Uncle Billie" called at the News office Saturday and among other subjects spoken of was the exceptional inducements offered the young men of today to enter U. S. service. "During the war with Mexico in '46," said he, "we were paid $7 in gold a month, but when we were in Mexico our officers generally drew the gold and bought Mexican dollars with which they paid us soldiers and most of that coin was counterfeit. In fact, once when I drew two months pay every one of the fourteen dollars was counterfeit, but I made the greasers take 'em just the same."

Obituary.
William Cooper was born in the state of Kentucky on June 16, 1859, and died in Richland, Ore., on June 19, 1919, the funeral being held at the Methodist church the following Friday, Rev. J. M. Johnson conducting the services, and the remains laid to rest in the Eagle Valley cemetery.
He was married to Martha Randolph on March 2, 1882; nine children were born to them; five of whom have passed to the great beyond. He made his home in Kentucky until seven years ago when he came to Eagle Valley. For several years Mr. Cooper had been practically helpless as a result of paralysis and was seldom away from his home. He was converted six years ago under the pastorate of Rev. A. F. Stem, and was a Baptist in faith.
The deceased is survived by his wife, three sons and a daughter, also two sisters and one brother, to all of whom the sympathy of community is extended.

Has Leg Broken.
Herschel Kirby had his left leg broken in a peculiar manner last Thursday evening. He was lying on the ground in the stack yard at his father's ranch on Daly Creek when a sudden gust of wind blew over a hay slip that was standing against the fence, the heavy slip striking him just below the hip. Dr. Wilson was summoned and after setting the bones brought the boy down to the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Gover.

Death Claims Young Wife.
The entire community was shocked last Thursday afternoon when the word came that Mrs. Ira Bradford had passed away at the hospital in Baker, as it was generally supposed that she was recovering nicely from the effects of the operation undergone several days previously. Death was the result of complications which set in but a short time before the end. Her mother, Mrs. W. P. Williams, was on the way to visit her, believing that she was convalescing, but before reaching Baker death had come.
The remains were brought back to Eagle Valley and interred in our beautiful cemetery on Saturday afternoon, the funeral services being held at the Methodist church, Rev. J. M. Johnson officiating.

Edna Ellen Williams was born in Eagle Valley on Sept. 24, 1900, and was a daughter of Mr. and W. P. Williams. On June 17, 1917, she was married to I. W. Bradford, but had always resided in this community.
By her parting there is left motherless a little babe but four months old. She is also survived by her husband, her parents, and four brothers and three sisters. It is sad indeed when death comes to one so young as Edna, and the unexpectedness of her passing makes it more so. That the bereaved relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community was clearly evidenced by the large crowd present at the funeral as well as by the numerous floral offerings.

Another Soldier Returns.
Gene Gibson returned to the Valley, Monday, having received his discharge at Camp Lewis last Saturday. Gene enlisted on June 9, 1917, and was assigned to Batt. B, 11th Field Artillery, landing in France on July 26, 1918. He was at the front for about three months and under continuous shell fire from Oct. 25th until Nov. 11th on the Argonne Meuse. He had many close calls but came through unhurt; was struck on the leg by a fragment of high explosive shell but not with sufficient force to do injury other than bruise the flesh. He says the 11th F. A. did great work but sustained a great many casualties. He gives great praise to the Salvation Army, Red Cross and K. of C.
