H. A. MOORE, Receiver.

Fred Roth, the genial traveling man, was in Moro yesterday.

Al Wright, our newly elected county commissioner, was in town on Wednesday, on business.

B. F. Pike and wife are in Astoria this week, in attendance upon the grand encampment G. A. R.

Mrs. L. D. Holder is recovering nicely from the operation of a few weeks ago, and in a few weeks will be as well as ever.

Sandy Campbell, the popular protector of widows through the agency of the Penn Mutual Life, passed up the line Tuesday, south-bound.

Miss Harwood, one of our popular teachers in our just-closed public school, left on Monday's train for her home near Portland, where she will spend her vacation.

No more candidate cigars are smoked now, and those who loved to smoke the fragrant weed at some one else's expense during the past month will now have to either dig up the price themselves or go back to the old short-stem clay or crum-cob pipe again. It's tough, but it can't be helped. The candidate has petted you long enough; now you will have to pet him. It's a cold world, anyhow.

Following are the names of the men constituting the Elrod & Moore nine, which is to cross hats with the Wasco nine tomorrow. The names are substantially the same as those who played before: Panky, c; Meach, p; Parry, s s; Tomlin, 1st b; Bryant, 2d b; Axtell, 3d b; Heydt, c f; Lee, r f; J. Parry, 1 f. Not one of the men is

E. Peoples returned from Long Beach, California, and was shaking hands with friends on our streets Monday.

The fence around the ball ground is completed, at a cost of about $400. This necessitates charging a small admittance fee to the game.

Walter Stanley and family have moved into the Fitzmaurice residence, which he has rented for a year. This leaves Fitz in the hotel for that period, at least.

Our city was electrified at noon today by the report that Furnish gained on his opponent until he was 144 votes ahead, with Crook, which is for Furnish, to hear from. The news seemed too good to be true; and, to ascertain the facts in the matter, Mr. Ginn wired the republican headquarters in Portland, and Matthews stated that while it would be very close, he had no hopes of Furnish being elected.

A disastrous fire occurred in Grass Valley yesterday morning at 2:30, resulting in a loss of between $12,000 and $14,000 to that thriving city. Fire broke out, it is supposed, from a gasoline stove in a lunch counter, spreading thence in both directions, destroying the Grass Valley Journal office, the general merchandise store of Geo. Clements, the billiard hall of Frank French, and the saloon of Henry Patison. Patison saved considerable of his fixtures and bulk and case goods, and Bro. Westerfield managed to secure enough to get out this week's issue of the Journal, which will be printed in Moro tomorrow, as his press was injured. We could not ascertain what in-

E. R. Hickson returned to the bosom of his family from Goldendale on Sunday. Mr. Hickson says the town over there is booming, and is full of Eastern people buying land.

Sherman County's Lands.
The wonderful productiveness of Sherman county has never been fully understood, even by her own citizens. Here is a county that is about the smallest in area of any in the state, but when it comes to wheat producing we find that one-sixth of the entire crop of wheat of the state of Oregon is harvested in this little county. Not only does she produce an immense crop of wheat, but barley, oats, apples, peaches, plums, and all kinds of vegetables flourish and yield in abundance. The people are wide awake and progressive, as is evidenced by the good schoolhouses in every locality.

Land is cheap, selling from $5 to $15 per acre, and all within easy reach of market.
Persons desiring to know more of Sherman county would do well to address O. P. Hulse, Moro, Oregon, who takes great pleasure in giving information concerning its resources and possibilities.

THE MORO BULLETIN.

THURSDAY JUNE 5, 1902

IN AND AROUND TOWN.

Miss Edna Strahl was a visitor to Grass Valley this week.

Miss Elva Creighton of The Dalles is a guest of Mrs. Rev. Smith this week.

Misses Myrtle and Addie Lewis spent the earlier part of the week visiting friends in Grass Valley.

The Moro band has been practicing every night this week, getting ready for the celebration tomorrow.

Miss Mary E. Brown, a deaconess from Spokane, will occupy the pulpit in the M. E. church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are invited to be present and enjoy this occasion.

Miss Frank Spear is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Robt. Dear, in this city. Frank comes back to Moro every once in a while to renew acquaintance with her friends, of which she has not a few in this part of the world.

The grand ball at Moro tomorrow night promises to be the best dance we have had here this season, and the orchestra is working hard to present some first-class music to those who are fortunate enough to be able to attend.

I. D. Pike, of the Moro Implement Co., was out taking orders for headers nearly all last week. He informed us yesterday that he sold nine headers to farmers in Sherman county while on the trip. The firm handles the McCormick, one of the best machines made.

Children's Day services will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday next, June 8th. Sunday school at 10 a. m., Children's Day exercises at 11 a. m. Recitations, Scripture selections and songs. Evening services at 7:45. Special sermon for the children. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Special Excursion.

The Columbia Southern will run a special excursion tomorrow for the benefit of those in Wasco and Grass Valley who desire to attend our celebration and picnic, together with the baseball game between Wasco and our city, and the grand ball in the evening. Small posters are out announcing the schedule of trains. The fare for the round trip from either place is only 60c.

Chicken dinner with strawberries at the City Hotel tomorrow. Come on, ye hungry ones.

Capt. Thompson of Monkland left for Astoria Sunday, to attend the grand encampment G. A. R.

Miss Lulu Bolton left for Albany Sunday, to visit with her grandparents. She will be gone all summer.

Harry Benson was operated on by Dr. R. W. Logan on Tuesday of this week for a deep abscess in the thigh. The operation was a delicate one, though successful; and Mr. Benson is resting easy. At this writing Dr. Logan reports his condition as highly satisfactory.

Alex E. McLennan, a prominent sheepman of Antelope, and who is well known around Moro, met with an accident that cost him his leg. A week ago, in handling a fractious horse, the horse and Mr. McLennan became tangled in a barb wire fence, and the fence got wrapped around the latter's knee, lacerating the leg frightfully. The cuts were dressed, and it was decided to send him to the hospital for rest and treatment. G. Eugene was discovered in the member just about the time he was going to start for Portland, and surgeons deemed it a measure of safety to take no chances on his getting to Portland alive, and amputated the leg just above the knee.

The commencement exercises of the Moro public school last Thursday and Friday evenings packed the opera house to a standstill. A huge crowd of spectators was present each evening, the first night to listen to the tots, the next to hear the older pupils. The exercises of both evenings were instructive, refreshing, delightful, from the opening address the first evening by a boy of seven to the banquet given by the teachers to the graduates at the termination of the entertainment on Friday night. State Superintendent Ackerman was on the platform the second evening, with the directors and numerous city and school officers, and each was well pleased with the progress of the pupils, and no less so with the efficient and well liked staff of instructors, to whom the success of the school is largely due, and for whom the scholars, young or old, have the greatest pride and respect and affection. There was not an uninteresting number on the two programmes. The teachers have reason to be proud of their pupils.

a professional, but all are crack players; and we expect to see a score tomorrow of 1 to 0.

Bradberry, the Sweet Candy Co. man, is in town today, transacting his saccharine business with our merchants.

The light showers which fell the first of the week were very grateful to the crops. Already doing splendidly, the weight of the crop will show a marked increase from the rains' effects.

If you like the Bulletin, send on your dollar and you will get 52 numbers filled full of news during the year. If you haven't got the dollar handy, just write us (or call upon us), saying so, and we will send the paper right along, and you pay us at your convenience. This is fair, is it not?

E. Peoples, of Moro, having sold out his stock of furniture to G. W. Brock & Co., will now devote his attention to the undertaking and sewing machine business exclusively. Mr. Peoples is sole agent for the world-famous White sewing machine, as well as several other standard makes, and will sell them on the most reasonable terms. His business will be conducted at his old stand in Moro.

insurance was carried on the burned property and buildings, but presume they carried the average fire protection. It is a sad blow to the city, and the losers have our sympathy; but they are a hardy, vigorous class of people, and in a few days business will be resumed as though nothing had happened.

W. C. T. U. Annual Convention.
The 14th annual county convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will convene in Moro about the third week in this month. The exact date will be given later. We hope all members of the union and all interested in the advancement of truth and righteousness will attend. Now is the accepted time. Now is the time to work, for soon your opportunity will be gone. Ladies, "come with us and we will do you good."
