Gov. Geer has some large-sized expectations if he is really sincere in expecting to be elected United States senator to succeed Simon by the coming legislature. Gov. Geer does not deserve such recognition, as any man that who will allow his name to come up before the people as a candidate for governor, and after he finds he has no show backs down, then comes out for senator after knifing, sulking and defeating the regular nominee for governor, deserves nothing from the republican party but utter contempt. Governor Geer as a senatorial possibility makes all decent men of either party sick at the stomach. If it is Geer or nobody, give us the nobody, as he is by far preferable to Geer.

It is currently reported that Gov. Geer intends calling a special session of the legislature this fall. We do not see the necessity of a special session, as it is only a short time until the regular session meets, and the new members will then take their seats; and they are undoubtedly able to attend to the business just as well as the old ones. The people do not care to have a lot of expense piled upon them just for the fun of the thing. If anything was really suffering in the state, or would work the state an injury by being left alone for a few moments, then in that event a special session would be justifiable. Otherwise it would be uncalled for.

There is some talk of getting up a baseball tournament to meet at Moro and cover three days. H. A. Moore is now busy making arrangements, and if they can be perfected the meet will come off about the 20th inst. It is the intention to secure nines from Pendleton, The Dalles, Wasco, Shaniko, Grass Valley and other points, and give our citizens baseball to the point of insomnia. In case details are settled posters will be scattered announcing the fact and dates.

It is very likely that Merrill and Tracey, the convicts who jumped their job at the pen on Monday, have the same assistance on the outside that they had on the inside, and that the chase to recapture them will end only with their death. They are desperate men; death awaits them if they return to the penitentiary, and the bullet is preferable to the noose. If they are caught, the pursuers will take back with them two bullet-ridden corpses.

The prospectus of the Sherman County Horse Fair Association, to be held at Wasco on July 4th and 5th, is out. This horse fair will be one of the many attractions of the Fourth of July celebration at Wasco, and the officers of the association will spare neither labor or money to make it an agreeable affair.

Probably the closest run ever made on the state ticket of Oregon is the contest between Furnish and Chamberlain for governor. Indeed, even yet, eleven days after the election, the latter gentleman is carrying a dense, heavy covering of perspiration that will probably stay with him until July 1.

Our friend Ireland of the Observer was 'way off last week when he said Hon. J. N. Williamson was elected by 3000. Why, my good man, his election is assured by nearly 9000. Some difference between these figures, ain't there?

In proportion to the vote polled in the various counties of the state, Lincoln county gave Furnish the largest majority for governor, with Sherman county a close second. Hurrah for Sherman county!

It has been intimated that the water-cure said to be practiced in the Philippines was conducted by soldiers who carried the prohibition principle of taking nothing into the stomach but pure, cold water and was the natural outgrowth of abolishing the canteens. If this be so, it would appear that the water cure was about as disgraceful as the whiskey cure.

There have been attempts made in the vicinity of Portland to start rumors on their rounds stating that our mountains—Hood, Jefferson, Adams, and others—were seen covered with smoke on such a day. These rumors, unfounded though they may be, arouse a train of thought of a very uncomfortable nature, and should be discouraged, particularly as an eruption by one of these cones is not entirely without the range of probabilities. The same causes operating here as in Central America would very likely bring about the same results. The Cascade range may be said to be the connecting link joining the great volcanic mountains which stretch along the west coast of North and South America from Patagonia to the Behring sea. Cones innumerable are scattered along this chain, some of which have been active volcanoes since the dawn of history, and the others "extinct" for that period. In the ages past, as examination shows, the Cascade mountains have been riven, shook up, shattered and broken so by earthquakes that it is seldom indeed you find a piece of solid basalt two feet in diameter. What has happened before may occur again. It seems to be the impression of geologists that this chain of volcanoes blew themselves out completely when they covered thousands of square miles of the Western country with lava to a depth of from 1 to 5000 feet. We must say it looks like it. They did one good thing, however, and that was to cover up the lava in this part of Eastern Oregon with a beautiful coat of ashes, on which we raise our 20 bushels per acre of wheat yearly, and without which coat Sherman county would be a barren waste.

We understand that some Dalles parties have an eye on Page's meat monopoly in Moro, and are going to establish another butcher business and try to break up the combine. This will undoubtedly lead to another "merger" in the future, if the city council do not get together and pass an ordinance governing the trusts.

Just one hundred years ago the military academy at West Point was established. During the existence of the academy it has trained many youths who have become our brightest men.

The annual sheepmen-cattlemen range war over in Grant county is on in full blast. We assure our readers that this is no joke.

HERE, THERE, EVERYWHERE.
Mrs. J. J. Wiley was a north-bound passenger on the train today.

W. H. Moore was a passenger on this morning's train for Portland, to be absent several days.

Moro merchants are doing a fine business for this time of the year. It should be remembered that just now the season is not so lively as it will be later on; and yet they manage to put in fifteen good hours a day attending to their customers' needs.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term by the A. O. U. W. lodge on Tuesday night: P. M. W., R. M. Brash; M. W., A. M. Wright; F. E. Thompson; O. H. A. Thompson; recorder, H. S. McDanel; receiver, G. N. Bolton; fin, A. E. Cousins; G. C. M. Whitelaw; I. G. T. H. Frasier; O. G. W. B. McCoy.

A traveling man in from Shaniko tells us that it is the busiest place on the Pacific coast just now. Wool is coming in ton after ton, baling is on at the warehouses, and the town is so full of wool buyers, graders and laborers that it is almost an impossibility to secure a place to sleep, with all its accommodations. We have been in Shaniko for the past two seasons, and know how it is; but we never yet failed to find a place to eat or sleep.

Wm. Head, a prominent wheat-grower of Arlington, registered at the City Hotel Tuesday.

Geo. T. Parr, the E. O. Land Co. man, was in our city Tuesday, installing R. S. Fisher in his headquarters.

The smiling face of Jack McMillen appeared on the train this morning. Jack has worn himself out rustling wool and freight at Shaniko, and is going to take a few weeks' lay off and rest at Wasco.

E. Peoples, of Moro, having sold out his stock of furniture to G. W. Brock & Co., will now devote his attention to the undertaking and sewing machine business exclusively. Mr. Peoples is sole agent for the world-famous White sewing machine, as well as several other standard makes, and will sell them on the most reasonable terms. His business will be conducted at his old stand in Moro.

The band boys' picnic on Friday last was a grand affair, not less than 2000 people being present from various parts of the county. The day dawned bright and clear, and about nine o'clock the teams began to roll in, until no more stable room could be had and the rigs were stattered over town, filling the streets everywhere until there was barely room for the parade to pass. The Wasco and Moro bands were out in full force, discoursing some stirring marches as they paraded and took the crowd to the pavilion-transformed warehouse. J. B. Hosford delivered an address of welcome to the visitors and tendered them the freedom of the city in his usual happy vein. He was followed by others, and more music and singing, recitations, etc., up till dinner time, when a rush was made for the hotels. After dinner there were horse-racing, pillow fights, a tug of war between Moro and Grass Valley, in which Moro came off victorious, and the baseball game, described elsewhere, the day's amusements terminating with the grand ball in the evening.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Moundville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." Geo. Bolton.
