THE MORO BULLETIN.

THURSDAY - JUNE 26, 1902

IN AND AROUND TOWN.

George Clements and wife of Grass Valley were down on Tuesday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stewart.

L. D. Holder and wife and Chas. Hulse left on a fishing trip to Bend on Monday. They will probably be away a couple of weeks.

A. E. Hammond, the genial surveyor and head engineer of the C. S. Ry. Co., passed down the line on Tuesday. A. E. is sadly in need of a new hat.

H. S. McDanel is back at his post in the clerk's office again, after a visit with his wife to Portland. Mrs. McDanel remained with her sister, Mrs. Moore, in the city.

Mrs. Clark Durlan and daughter Miss Vleda were up from Wasco on Friday last, attending the W. C. T. U. county convention. We acknowledge a very pleasant visit from these charming ladies.

Johnny Fitzmaurice, Arthur Page and Bob Hickson are now at the Cross Keys, having a picnic on the Columbia Southern extension survey. The boys are doing fine and much better off than loafing around town until school opens in September.

Editor Reed of the Dufur Dispatch attended the ball game here on Saturday. Bro. Reed was very favorably impressed with our city, its prospects, possibilities and inhabitants, and the reception tendered the Dufur boys. He is always welcome.

The White Collar Line will sell round trip tickets for one fare for the round trip, good going July 3d and 4th and returning to and including the 6th, for the benefit of any who may wish to take in the Fourth of July celebrations at any of the points on the river.

R. P. Dear took a spin through the Gordon Ridge country on Tuesday, and came back full of praise for the wheat crop in that neighborhood. He says Charley Hulse has a half-section that will produce 45 to 50 bushels to the acre. Mr. Dear also mentions Kaseberg Bros. as having a splendid crop. These men farm 2560 acres, half of which they sow to grain each year, allowing the other half to lie fallow. They will harvest 30 to 40 bushels to the acre this fall, if nothing extraordinary happens.

E. Jacobsen, representing J. K. Gill & Co., registered at the City Hotel yesterday.

There will be a match game of ball between Grass Valley and Moro on Saturday.

Several newcomers are having quite a time in town looking for houses to buy or rent.

Mrs. Hall, of the City Hotel, made a visit to The Dalles Thursday, returning on Saturday.

Mrs. Simon Elcock and family were passengers on Tuesday's train for Garfield, Wash., to visit the Yarber family.

Steve Hays returned on Sunday from a week's trip to Gilliam county, where Steve was looking after some bargains in real estate.

Geo. Higinbotham recovered a horse on Monday that had been lost for over three years. The animal was found over near Condon.

Master Henry Moore came up from Portland on Monday. Harry says he likes the boys in Moro better than his playmates in Portland.

W. C. Stranahan and wife of St. Louis was a Moro visitor on Tuesday. Mr. Stranahan was figuring on buying out the Higinbotham & Schaeffer store.

Disastrous fires are now of daily occurrence. See that everything about your premises is cleaned up, as trash lying around loose this time of year is dangerous.

C. P. Ragsdale, the sheep king of southern Sherman county, sent his sheep down the Columbia last week and will summer them in Skamania county, Wash. Mr. Ragsdale will leave with his family for Collins Landing tomorrow.

Billy Gibson has sold his ranch on the John Day to John Gibson. Billy will take a trip to his old home in Canada, and visit with his brother, whom he has not seen for 48 long years. Mr. Gibson is one of the old settlers, who are fast disappearing.

Johnny Holman met with a serious accident on his return from Wasco Thursday last. His horses went off a grade down near DeMoss. The rig was badly mashed up, and so was Johnny's nose. Dr. Logan fixed it up in good shape with four long stitches.

T. R. McGinnis, our genial sheriff, returned with his family last week from an outing to Hood River. Tom says everything was all right but the fishing, so we presume there is not much fishing in Hood river until the salmon trout begin to run in the fall.

If you like the Bulletin, send on your dollar and you will get 52 numbers filled full of news during the year. If you haven't got the dollar handy, just write us (or call upon us), saying so, and we will send the paper right along, and you pay us at your convenience. This is fair, is it not?

The W. O. W. held their regular meeting on yesterday evening. All members of the camp will please take notice that at their next meeting on the second Wednesday of July there will be an installation of officers and other important business. Therefore it is to be hoped that all the members, and especially all officers elected, will attend.

Irwin Pike, of the Moro Implement Co., accompanied by his wife and family and Miss Minnie Holder of Grass Valley, is enjoying a week's outing up at Bend, 140 miles south of us, along with our editor-in-chief, Wm. Holder. We hear that timber claims in the Bend neighborhood will be materially reduced by the time the party gets through locating.

The best baseball game of the season will take place in Moro on the 1st of July, between the celebrated Chemawa Indian team and the Moro nine. These red men play in paint and feathers, the identical dress their forefathers wore when they played baseball with the heads of the early settlers. It is a chance of a lifetime to see the wild Indian play ball in all his barbaric splendor. The game will commence at 1:30 p. m. sharp.

J. M. Parry made a trip over to the John Day yesterday, to look over some land.

C. E. Dawson, the genial traveling man for Mays & Crowe, hardware and grocery men of The Dalles, is in town today.

Two youthful ball players, with more zeal than sense, sent a ball through Bob Ginn's plate glass door last week. Papas will have to foot the bill.

R. Wiltse and Wm. Lee are building the brick manholes on the new sewer. The sewer system is very complete, and is being finished in up-to-date style.

Don't forget to come and see the ball game on the 1st of July, between the Chemawa Indian baseball nine and the Moro boys. It will be well worth while to see this celebrated team of noble red men play the national game.

H. D. Parkins, representing Parkins & Co. of The Dalles, successors to Menefee & Parkins, was a Moro visitor today. Mr. Parkins is selling the celebrated Chickering, Weber and Kimball pianos. His company sold several instruments in Sherman county last fall, all of which are giving entire satisfaction.

Lyle, the terminus of the C. & N. Ry., is thronged with business. Grading has commenced, and all classes of freight is piled up on the river bank, making a picturesque sight to pleasure seekers who happen to pass. So thought B. A. Gifford of The Dalles, as he passed down the river a few days ago, as he took a fine view of the camp.

At a special meeting of the city council held on Wednesday evening of last week, the council passed an ordinance to appropriate $1660, the amount left over in the treasury from money raised by issuance of water bonds, for the purpose of constructing a sewer system. The sewers are finished except the construction of manholes, and now it is up to owners of property along the line to make connections.

Dufur vs. Moro--Baseball.

Under the most favorable weather conditions possible Moro defeated Dufur on the diamond to the tune of 9 to 3 last Saturday. The game up to and including the seventh inning was very interesting, owing to the speedy work of both teams. An error by Douglass, Dufur's right fielder, allowing four men to cross the plate, cost Dufur the game. Up to this the game stood 3 to 1 in Dufur's favor. The game had but few spectacular features, Dufur's individual work being of a high order, while Moro surpassed in team work. Meach of the Moro team was the bright particular star, his work easily outranking that of any man on either team. The Moro team surprised its supporters by the numerous hits made off Vanderpool, Dufur's speedy twirler, probably due to his poor control. Logan of the home team seemed the heaviest batter.

The work of Umpire Marin was very satisfactory. The grandstand was a mass of black-and-orange, the Moro colors, although the spirit shown toward the visitors was very liberal, and their good play elicited as much approval as that given our own team.

The grandstand has been covered overhead, making it pleasant for the spectators, and with the field scraped again we will have a diamond hard to surpass. The attendance was about 300. The following were the players:

DUFUR	MORO
Dufur	Meach
Rothery	Pankey
Vanderpool	Logan
Douglass	W. Parry
Allard	Axtel
McGraves	J. Parry
Shepherd	Heydt
Covey	Grant
Mulkins	Tomlin

Happy Time In Old Town.

"We felt very happy," writes R. N. Bevell, Old Town, Va., "when Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scaldhead." It delights all who use it for cuts, corns, burns, bruises, boils, ulcers, eruptions. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at all drug stores.

Orion Kinersly, the popular representative of Blake, McFall Co. and all-round prize-taking short-story teller, did business in town on Tuesday, leaving yesterday for Grass Valley.

Sherman County's Lands.

The wonderful productiveness of Sherman county has never been fully understood, even by her own citizens. Here is a county that is about the smallest in area of any in the state, but when it comes to wheat producing we find that one-sixth of the entire crop of wheat of the state of Oregon is harvested in this little county. Not only does she produce an immense crop of wheat, but barley, oats, apples, peaches, plums, and all kinds of vegetables flourish and yield in abundance. The people are wide awake and progressive, as is evidenced by the good schoolhouses in every locality.

Land is cheap, selling from $5 to $15 per acre, and all within easy reach of market.

Persons desiring to know more of Sherman county would do well to address O. P. Hulse, Moro, Oregon, who takes great pleasure in giving information concerning its resources and possibilities.
