THE MORO BULLETIN.

THURSDAY JULY 3, 1902

IN AND AROUND TOWN.

If you want to get married stop at the City Hotel.

I have a couple of houses for rent in Moro. M. Fitzmaurice, City Hotel.

B. F. Hoover has a fine kiln of brick burnt, and is hauling brick for L. K. Moore's building.

Wanted—Rooms and board in private family, by a gentleman. Inquire at Sherman Trading Co.

Bob Keys, a large sheep owner from Mitchell, was a passenger on the train for The Dalles Tuesday.

Britten & Meach are putting the finishing touches on J. O. Elrod's house. It is a residence any town might be proud of.

P. D. Martin, Mrs. Martin and suite, of San Francisco, accompanied by Geo. T. Parr of The Dalles, spent the day in Moro on Friday.

There is a good opening in Moro for a family of rustlers to do washing and work out. It is almost impossible to get this class of work done at any price.

R. E. Hickson, Johnny Fitzmaurice and Arthur Page, who are assisting on the Columbia Southern survey to Southern Oregon, will be home to spend the Fourth with their respective families.

The White Collar Line will sell round trip tickets for one fare for the round trip, good going July 3d and 4th and returning to and including the 6th, for the benefit of any who may wish to take in the Fourth of July celebrations at any of the points on the river.

Wm. Henrichs, our popular road supervisor, is to be congratulated on the excellent condition of the county roads. Harris' grade, which was a combination of humps, bumps and jumps, is now quite a respectable thoroughfare. The rocks have been removed and the road otherwise improved.

A fine rain yesterday morning greeted the Sherman county farmer as he poked his nose out the back door to see if the cows were in the potato patch. It came just in the nick of time, as spring grain was badly in need of some moisture. In all probability our farmers will need a third more sacks than already ordered, as competent judges there will be many an acre harvested in the county that will return 40 bushels this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson have gone on a summer outing to Hood River.

Mrs. Jessie Moore is visiting her father, E. W. Elrod, in Prosser. She will stay over the Fourth.

Don't let that fence go any longer. I can sell you posts at 10c by the carload. M. Fitzmaurice.

J. O. Elrod and family will go to Wind River on a camping expedition the latter part of next week.

R. Antone and P. M. Knudsen of Kent, B. S. Kelsay of Eugene and Henry Link of Grass Valley, were in town attending court yesterday.

E. W. Elrod, agent in Prosser for the Moro Land Co., sold two sections of their land last week. People wanting any of this land should buy now, as there is very little left.

J. M. Benson lost quite a number of sheep near Harris' on the Deschutes last week, while driving his band to Hood River. Any person seeing these strays will please notify this office and oblige.

Thomson Scroggins of Fossil passed through town on Friday, with a bunch of nice horses for sale at Wasco. This makes two bands, with another coming, from this locality. Truly, the Fossil country is the home of the horse.

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday in the parlors of the City Hotel, B. L. Garlock and Miss Effie Sconce being the high contracting parties. They were made man and wife by the Rev. S. C. Elder, Mrs. Mary Garlock of Mantey, Kansas, Mrs. Cora Watkins and A. F. Watkins of Wasco, friends of the bride and groom, being present. The bride looked charming, gowned in white organ-die trimmed with yellow ribbons. The happy pair will make their home in Sherman county for some time. Congratulations from the Bulletin.

Leads Them All.

"One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Curran of Loganton, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. Geo. Bolton.

Looks like snow.

We hear that Mount Pelee still has a slight cough.

The foundry people are now in fine shape to do all kinds of casting.

C. A. Buckley was a visitor to the city this morning from Grass Valley.

Mrs. John Schaeffer returned from a visit to friends in Prineville on Tuesday.

J. B. Hosford made a business trip to Spokane this week. J. O. Elrod went with him.

Warehousemen are busy preparing to handle the coming wheat crop, which is going to be large.

Minnesota republicans have renominated Van Sant for governor and endorsed President Roosevelt.

Judge Bradshaw was married in Portland last week. We extend our very best wishes, judge. May your shadow never grow less.

Chief-of-Staff Fitzmaurice of the Bulletin jumped on the train this morning, a passenger for the thriving city of The Dalles, where he will rusticate tomorrow.

Fitzmaurice and another ardent disciple of the immortal Isaak went to the Deschutes Sunday, and came home minus trout. "Surely the glory has departed" from our crack fishermen.

Dr. Logan disappeared this morning. Inquiry disclosed the fact that his disappearance was induced by non-professional business—attending court in Portland. He will be back Saturday.

When we get the Oregonian tonight, it will be: Tracey and Merrill ate another meal, loaded up with bacon, passed on their way—bloodhounds put on trail, lost it—posse returned to town for another drink.

County court convened yesterday before Judge Fulton and Commissioner Krusow. Lawyers Bright of Wasco and Ragsdale of Moro were also present. The full docket will appear in our issue of next week.

If you like the Bulletin, send on your dollar and you will get 52 numbers filled full of news during the year. If you haven't got the dollar handy, just write us (or call upon us), saying so, and we will send the paper right along, and you pay us at your convenience. This is fair, is it not?

Mrs. A. M. Muir, better known to Moro folks as Dr. Olive Hartley, was a visitor here on Tuesday, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Dr. Edgington of Wasco. Mrs. Muir is now located with her husband in Whatcom, Wash., and has laid down the practice of medicine for that of the law, assisting in the firm of Muir & Muir, who are doing a thriving business in their new location.

Robt. Dear and A. H. Kennedy struck out for the Deschutes on Sunday afternoon. They had the best luck of any party this season so far, having killed thirty-seven chubs, which they thoughtfully returned to their home 'neath the waters of the river. These chubs are a pestiferous nuisance. They watch for the wily fisherman's coming, and when he appears they just beg to be captured.

Following is the line-up of the Wasco and Moro teams as they will fight it out on the Wasco diamond tomorrow afternoon:

WASCO	MORO
McPherson	Murphy
McMillen	Meach
Kaseberg	Tomlin
Porter	Allen
Madden	Pankey
Sargent	Axtell
Root	J. Parry
Ball	W. Parry
Dunbar	Heydt

Acquiring Mud.

The following homestead final proofs were made last week, before County Clerk McDanel:

June 27—John S. Michill, Grass Valley; witnesses, J. H. Rinearson and G. C. Vinton, Jr.

June 28—John Bain, Grass Valley; witnesses, C. W. Battman and David M. Smith.

June 28—Ira F. Hill, Klondyke; witnesses, J. A. Walter and G. W. Hilderbrand.

Moro Defeats Grass Valley on the Diamond.

Moro has once more demonstrated the fact that she has a ball team that are fast approaching that point which will place them as the champion players of Sherman county. If they play the same hard, consistent game tomorrow as they played Tuesday, Moro sympathizers need not fear the result.

Grass Valley on this occasion had strengthened their team with two outside players of known prowess; but as the sequel proved they were of no avail, the Moro team always hitting Pitcher Dunbar at critical moments, although he succeeded in fanning 13 men, to 8 by Meach. Very few errors were made by the home team, and their work at times was brilliant, John Parry, Moro's left field, being especially distinguished. He took every chance that came his way, and was always successful.

The batting average of the home team was good, and the hits were well placed, even to the home run by Meach in the 6th. Ralph Fisher played with the Moro team for the first time, and acquitted himself very creditably.

Notwithstanding the score—13 to 1 in Moro's favor—the game at times was quite exciting. The grandstand was packed with a cheering crowd of about 300 people, who lauded each good play by either side in turn, although many were disappointed in not seeing the Indians play, as was advertised. But owing to no fault of the Moro people, at the last moment they sent word they would be unable to play, due, no doubt, to the fact that they realized they would be up against a hard proposition and did not wish to jeopardize their laurels in a game with the Moro nine.

Sunday School Convention.

Report of Sherman County Sunday School Association Convention, held at Spaulding Chapel on June 25-26, 1902, one of the most delightful conventions in the history of the association:

On Wednesday night an address was delivered by Rev. McGillivray, subject, "Right Relationship of the Sabbath School"

1. To the Holy Spirit.
2. To the Word of God.
3. To the Church of Jesus Christ.
4. To the Home."

Rev. McGillivray is the Sunday school missionary of Eastern Oregon.

Convention convened at 10 a. m. A stirring address by Al Wright, an earnest response by Bro. Porter.

Reports were heard from sixteen schools, and 685 members reported.

Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock.

Devotional services were conducted by Rev. Archer at 2 p. m.

Discussion of primary work at 2:30.

Report from the state conventions by Mrs. Harry Lamphear.

A paper on "How to Interest the Big Boy and Girl" was presented by C. J. Bright, R. E. Hoskinson explaining the normal course.

Evening session at 6:30.

Question box.

Address by Rev. McGillivray.

S. C. ELDER, Pres.

E. E. PEOPLES, Sec.

Mr. and Mrs. Meach welcomed.

The little jollification given at the City Hotel Friday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Meach, met with the usual measure of success characteristic of affairs of this kind presided over by Mrs. Fitzmaurice, hostess of this popular hostelry.

The invited guests were all young people, and dancing and music were the order of the evening, coupled with the usual bountiful supply of ice cream, cake, etc. Excellent music was supplied by the Moro orchestra, consisting of R. A. McCully, clarinet, T. M. Britten, cornet, A. H. Kennedy, violin and Miss Myrtle Lewis, piano. The latter may be spoken of as a performer of unusual merit, being perfectly at home with the instrument. Mrs. E. R. Hickson with her usual good nature kept the ball rolling with twostep and waltz while the other performers took a turn on the floor.

Dancing was kept up until a late hour, and the young people departed with hopes that will not be disappointed of another blowout in the near future.

Sherman County's Lands.

The wonderful productiveness of Sherman county has never been fully understood, even by her own citizens. Here is a county that is about the smallest in area of any in the state, but when it comes to wheat producing we find that one-sixth of the entire crop of wheat of the state of Oregon is harvested in this little county. Not only does she produce an immense crop of wheat, but barley, oats, apples, peaches, plums, and all kinds of vegetables flourish and yield in abundance. The people are wide awake and progressive, as is evidenced by the good schoolhouses in every locality.

Land is cheap, selling from $5 to $15 per acre, and all within easy reach of market.

Persons desiring to know more of Sherman county would do well to address O. P. Hulse, Moro, Oregon, who takes great pleasure in giving information concerning its resources and possibilities.
