A SIGNIFICANT REDUCTION.

As a result of a public meeting and a subsequent conference between railroad magnates and farmers at Colfax last Tuesday freight rates on grain from all points in the upper Columbia basin were reduced 10 per cent, and freight rates East on the cereal will also be cut 3 cents on the bushel.

This is of course a benefit to the farmers of Washington, but there is still a doubt whether these people would not have fared better if they had left the matter in the hands of Governor McBride and the Washington legislature. Mr. Hill is most assuredly a smart man, and from his performance at Colfax, one who can make a nice little speech. But Mr. Hill and his colleagues never came out West for love of the Washington farmers, with a present of $800,000 in their hands in the shape of freight reductions, except they thought it was the cheapest way out of the hole, and the Big Bend farmer may thank politics and the determined stand made by Governor McBride against the railroads for the reduction in freight last Tuesday. Now, however, as Mr. Hill has been good enough to "throw his sop to Ceberus," we would very much like to see the contagion spread all over Eastern Oregon. The Oregon farmer pays as much to harvest his grain as the Washington man, and a reduction on freights would be just as acceptable to him as to his neighbor; but the trouble is to get the railroads to see the matter in this light.

Unfortunately we have not got a Governor McBride in Oregon to push the people's interests in this line, and it is not at all probable that Eastern Oregon railroads will reduce freights unless there is some very good reason for the move.

Mr. Hill spoke very much to the point when he said the exporters were getting a greater percentage from the wheat crop than they ought. Of course they are; but how is the Oregon farmer to help himself along these lines? The scheme advanced by Mr. Mellen of shipping wheat East is not feasible, as the road down the Columbia, coupled with cheap ocean transportation, makes this the natural outlet for Oregon wheat, and how else the farmer can curtail the shippers' profits is a question we would ask someone else to answer.

Word has reached us over the 'phone that convict Tracy is no more; that in a battle with the deputy-sheriffs he found himself wounded, and to save the state the expense of trying and hanging him, put a bullet in his own carcase where it would do the most good. The news seems almost too good to be true; but if it is true the whole Northwest will draw a breath of relief. Had he been left uninterrupted there is no telling where he would be in a week or two. May he atone in the hereafter for his evil deeds. No punishment could be meted out to him in this world that would be fitting for his horrible crimes.

From all accounts sheepmen are having a lively time in the Blue mountains this summer. Nearly every paper has an account of some sheep shooting. An eye-witness to one of these outrages, where 250 sheep were killed or disabled, says it is a miserable business. It was revolting to see the poor animals crawling round with broken limbs and entrails protruding. Surely, He who marks the sparrow's fall will not allow such brutal conduct to go unpunished.

The engines on the Columbia Southern line are now using oil, which as a heat producer works to perfection. The big locomotives snort along just the same as when they were supplied with coal and are no longer dreaded as fire fiends by the farmers. With oil there is no danger of fire in the wheat fields which border on the line, as no sparks fly from the new fuel. After the expense in remodeling the engines, oil will be about as cheap as coal, besides saving the company the chance of having to pay for half the wheat raised in the county. The trainmen hail the change with joy, as it was no joke these hot days to back up and fight fire every few miles. It may be remarked that the C. S. Ry. is the first line in the Northwest to use fuel oil, or rather, to have "struck it," as the change from coal to crude petroleum will be many dollars in the pockets of the company, besides a great saving of labor to its employees.

HERE, THERE, EVERYWHERE.

School books for the fall term will be in Sept. 1-10. Geo. Bolton. Sheriff McGinnis is laid up with a carbuncle that makes sitting a hard proposition.

Jimmy Mackin has sold out his ranch, and will once more visit Scotland, his natal place.

Asa Hoover is working his team on J. B. Mowry's grain nets, and is netting $3.50 a day for Asa.

Two large consignments of groceries received at the Leader this week. All going at the same low prices, too.

Impossibility.—Shopper—I want a shoe that is both fashionable and stylish. Salesman—Very sorry, madam; but the age of miracles is past.—Judge.

I. D. Pike of the Moro Implement Company was out at Kent yesterday, setting up a McCormick header for Keutner & Davis, who purchased the machine from the company.

Albert Sneider went out on Wednesday to sew sacks for Al Hembree of Grass Valley. Sack stitchers get $3.50 per day, and make more out of the crop for the time being than the farmer.

Dr. Logan returned from a visit to Salem on Tuesday. The pitcher goes to the well many times and is broken at last. So, Doc, we warn you that sooner or later you will come back spliced.

J. C. Brewink arrived this week from Blanchard, Iowa, on a visit to Murray Axtell's family. Mr. Brewink will not locate in Sherman county, as he owns a farm of 240 acres in Iowa which he intends to stay with.

Look Pleasant, Please.

Photographer C. C. Harlan, of Eaton, O., can do so now, though for years he couldn't, because he suffered untold agony from the worst form of indigestion. All physicians and medicines failed to help him till he tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for him that he declares they are a godsend to sufferers from dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Unrivalled for diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys, they build up and give new life to the whole system. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

Something New Under the Sun. Doctors have tried to cure Catarrh by powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. The powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of catarrh, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures catarrh, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This remedy is known as "Snuffles the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure" and is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"Snuffles" is the only perfect catarrh cure ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve hay fever or cold in the head.

Catarrh when neglected often leads to consumption—"Snuffles" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure catarrh in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay but send for it at once, and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "Snuffles" the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure. Sent prepaid to any address in the United States or Canada on receipt of One Dollar. Address Dept. H 567, Edwin B. Giles & Co., 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia.
