IN AND AROUND TOWN.

Given away!
At the Beehive!
With each purchase!
Dishes! Dishes! Dishes!

111 men's suits at a bargain at the S. T. Company.

R. P. Dear went to Lone Tuesday in the interests of the Moro Land Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry from Rutledge transacted business in the county seat Tuesday.

Timber notices must be most enjoyable reading for editors of newspapers out south.

Andy McDonald is making preparations to move back to Sherman county from The Dalles.

Harry Parry of Seattle, arrived in town last week and will visit a short time with his parents.

Born to the wife of Harrison Maxwell Saturday last, a 10 pound boy. Dr. Logan in attendance.

John Carlan of Grass Valley did not lose any sheep in the recent forest fires, as commonly reported.

James Stewart made a visit to The Dalles the last of the week. He is looking for a band of sheep to buy.

George Thompson of Rutledge has rented the O'Leary place which he will farm in connection with his own.

H. W. Pedford and Minnie Harper, and C. E. Smith and Ila Fowler were married in The Dalles Saturday last.

J. B. Hansen sold his wheat at a good figure and left for Portland Monday to work in one of the large harness shops.

Mrs. C. P. Shanty accompanied by Misses Ida Mowry and Ella Anderson made Wasco a flying visit one day this week.

H. A. Page is strictly in it when it comes to the hog business. He shipped a carload to Troutdale, Tuesday and has a couple of more cars in sight.

John T. Johnson was out to his homestead near Shearer's bridge Monday and has gone back to his father's ranch in Biglow to finish hauling his wheat.

Miss Daisy Smoose passed the examination entitling her to teach in Sherman county, Monday. She has been engaged to teach the school at Biggs for this term.

James Ingram and wife lately from Missouri are visiting Mrs. Ingram's brother, "Doc" Johnson. They expect to locate in Oregon and may remain in Sherman county.

Don't forget the harvest ball in Moro October 10th.

G. E. Johnson an experienced dry goods man from the East has accepted a position in Wallis' Cash Store.

Mrs. S. S. Hayes, Seth and Beulah left on yesterday's train for Halley, Or. They will visit Mrs. Hayes' brother and sister.

There is to be a horse race in town pretty soon between Grant Hawley's Bill McKinley and Orville Smith's Pointer.

Wilber Martin is on the sick list since his return from the timber country. He and his brother L. H. have taken up claims.

We are sorry to say that little Ruth Higginbotham was brought up from the Sister's school at The Dalles, suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

Have you been to see Heydt & Co's new line of horse blankets and winter robes? Having bought them in large lots they can give you good prices.

The firm of Pease & Mays of The Dalles no longer exists. The business will go on however under the name of The Edward C. Pease Co., with stores at The Dalles and Shaniko.

Judge Boise recently made a decision at Salem that a justice of the peace has the power to set aside the verdict of a jury because it is not in accordance with the law and evidence.

A young man and girl were arrested and fined in The Dalles for smoking opium. They were found in a Chinese joint on Front street. A good big fire in that locality to smoke out the Chinese rats would be a benefit to the town.

W. E. Getz is grinding a large shipment of flour for the Chinese market. The flour will be handled by Hallow Guthrie & Co., of Portland. The sacks are printed all over in Chinese characters. Five or six cars went out loaded from the mill Saturday.

In case of fire or accident of any kind so that more water is needed from the city cistern, the engineer can be found at the pump house at any hour of the night. John has a folding bed that answers for a work bench during the day.

A poor old deaf squaw was killed by the cars on the O. R. & N. track between Tumwater and Celilo Saturday. The engine driver did all in his power to prevent the catastrophe, but all to no purpose. The engine struck the old lady and killed her instantly.

Good school tablets for 5 cents at the "Beehive."

Gene Hoskinson and son Guy came down from Kent Monday and will remain in Moro a few days. When they return they will be accompanied by Mrs. Hoskinson and her sister, Mrs. O. A. Anderson, who will take advantage of the opportunity to make a visit to her homestead near Kent.

A. C. Huff was in town Monday. He is figuring on the purchase of a Gould's Triple Action Pump and irrigation outfit from G. E. Kellogg, who has the agency. These pumps are just what are needed by the John Day ranchers, as they will irrigate 20 to 25 acres easily.

Geo. Bolton has the famous Robinson bath cabinet. Complete, $5.

The Beehive is selling dry goods at prices that can be duplicated only in the East.

The Rev. S. C. Elder left yesterday to attend the meeting of the Presbyterian Synod to be held at Grants Pass. He will be gone a week.

Self-sealing Vacuum Fruit Jars, best can in the market today, at Moro Implement Co. Gives universal satisfaction.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Murchie were in town from their ranch near Wasco yesterday. Mr. Murchie says everything is flourishing in his section of the county.

Art Barnum and Mac Bull attended the dance at Grass Valley last week. They are practicing waltzing, and are in hopes of winning the diamond ring offered as a prize for the best dancers here Friday night.

Miss Laura Thomas has turned over the household duties at the Moore home to Mrs. W. H. Moore, and will sojourn in Portland with Mrs. H. A. Moore for a month. Don't you wish you were Laura?

Ben Schaffer arrived in town last week from his annual trip to California. Mr. Schaffer is a man of leisure, has a fine farm rented out, takes the world easy and enjoys himself as he travels life's highway.

Look straight before your nose as you turn the corner of Main and First streets in Moro, and you will see Dentist Barrett's new sign. And if you want any dental work done walk up stairs to his nicely arranged office and let the doctor get the pull on you.

C. P. Ragsdale sold his mutton sheep last week to Portland buyers for $3.00 per cwt. These were the sheep that had such an escape from being burned up during the conflagrations in the Cascade mountains. Mr. Ragsdale was lucky enough to escape having an over supply of roast mutton on his hands.

At a regular meeting of the city council Friday last, the city purchased the grand stand, fence and other improvements on the ball ground. M. Fitzmaurice George Brock and Orville Elrod were appointed a committee to see that nuisances were abated in back yards, and on the streets, and that parties made connections with the sewer.

E. R. Hickson was again successful at Des Chutes Sunday, catching four salmon aggregating 44 pounds. It seems the salmon king when the Killarney angler goes down, and are prepared to take his flies. E. H. and L. V. Moore went to the John Day, but got no fish. This stream is being ruined by a weir of wire netting near the mouth.

The school children celebrated the close of the teachers' institute Saturday by a picnic at the Des Chutes. A start was made about nine o'clock and a more jolly crowd than these Moro young people seldom left any town on pleasure bent. Harris' grove was their destination, where they partook of a sumptuous lunch, to which they added plenty of fruit from Mr. Harris' splendid orchard.

From every town where a fair is held come complaints of toughs throwing confetti. The authorities should prohibit such practices, or decent people will not attend. The custom comes from the scum of Italian cities and should be abolished.

Harry Lanphear owns one of the best farms in Sherman county. He bought Uriah Serviss' place near town for $1,300. This is one of the best sections of land in the great wheat belt of eastern Oregon. Chas. Hulse who has had it rented for some years past raised 30 bushels of grain to the acre this season.

Out of Death's Jaws.

"When death seemed very near from a severe stomach and liver trouble, that I had suffered with for years," writes P. Muse, Durham, N. C., "Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave perfect health." Best pills on earth and only 25c at G. N. Bolton's drugstore.

The lintels for the Hoover brick building were cast in the Moro foundry this week under the supervision of Messrs. Weidlich, Johnny McAcheran doing the practical work. Each casting is 18 feet long and weighs 1800 pounds. No finer piece of work was ever done in Oregon outside of Portland.

Forty Years Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of any one. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Haney, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. G. N. Bolton.

Get your typewriter supplies and inks of Geo. Bolton, Moro.

We are prepared to take potatoes, wheat, chicken-feed or fruit at the Bulletin office on subscription.

Chas. Whitelaw and the Wykoff family are preparing to leave for the mining regions of Idaho.

While Charley and George use the pick and shovel in quest of the yellow metal Mrs. Wykoff will run a restaurant and keep the pot a bilin'.

Auction Sale.

We will sell the following at public auction, Saturday, Oct. 11, 1902: 1 medium sized safe, 2 oval show cases, 1 cigar show case, 2 square show cases, 1 soda fountain, 1 refrigerator, 1 milk shaker, 1 lemon squeezer, counters, 1 charging machine for fountain, one peanut roaster, several chairs, 2 billiard tables with cues, balls, etc., several candy jars, 1 pair candy scales, 2 gasoline lamps, 2 kerosene lamps, 3 tables, 1 marble slab.

Moro Merchants' Co.

Louie Heydt's colt took the first prize at The Dalles fair. The colt is sired by Phalamont Boy, dam Black Mary, a grand daughter of old Altamont. Mr. Heydt did not leave all the honors to his colt, as he won the first prize as a foot racer, winning the hundred yards in good style.

M. H. Poole went to The Dalles last week in a horseless carriage. There are quite a number of these vehicles being used in the county. Elwood Thompson, Barnum Bros., and others may be seen guiding these machines quite successfully.

Miss Grace Shoemaker who is teaching music in the academy at Grass Valley is desirous of teaching a class in Moro. Miss Shoemaker is an accomplished musician and a first class teacher. Anyone wishing to take lessons will please call at the City Hotel, Moro.

America's Famous Beauties.

Look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores, pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one who uses Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face. Eczema or salt rheum vanish before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains. Infalible for piles. 25c at G. N. Bolton's drugstore.

The Woodmen of the World held their regular meeting Wednesday night and the following officers were installed. Roy Martin, consul commander, Dr. Lloyd Idleman, advisor lieutenant; Geo. Kirth, watchman; J. M. Dunahoo, escort. Joseph G. Cohan, W. O. W. organizer, was present and explained that a grand effort will be made to increase membership, from now until 1905, the movement taking the name of the 1905 campaign. The camp pledged themselves to add 50 members to the organization in this town and with the able help of Mr. Cohan they will no doubt be successful. The Woodmen are a safe order, having a reserve fund, and many other advantages that other beneficiary orders have not. Many persons who think old line insurance too expensive, should make provision for their families in case of death by taking advantage of the low rates in this order.

Goes Like Hot Cakes.

"The fastest selling article I have in my store," writes druggist C. T. Smith, of Davis Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, because it always cures. In my six years of sales it has never failed. I have known it to save sufferers from Throat and Lung diseases, who could get no help from doctors or any other remedy." Mothers rely on it, best physicians prescribe it, and all druggists guarantee satisfaction or refund price. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c and $1.

If you are bald never marry a woman taller than you are. She will probably look down on you some day.

His Life in Peril.

"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Tex., "billiousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run down people. Try them. Only 50c at G. N. Bolton's drug store.

Emil Zola put a pot of charcoal under his bed on Sept. 29th and got to heaven on the 30th. Rather an ignominious exit for the great novelist.

Fall Millinery.

Mrs. Idis Henderson has received one of the most complete and up-to-date stocks of fall millinery ever shown in Moro, and having secured the services of Miss Yale, an experienced trimmer from Portland, she is prepared to please the most fastidious and give excellent values for your money.

Look Out For Fever.

Billiousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. G. N. Bolton.

The Little Giant thrasher, sold by Moore Bros. & Ginn, Moro, is one of the best machines of the kind on the market. The thrasher and gasoline engine to run it can be bought for a tithe of the price paid for the larger outfits. One of these machines threshed 115 sacks of grain in 4 hours on a farm near town last week, from straw kept over from last year. A carload of these machines, latest improved and better than ever, are expected in town daily. Come in and figure for the outfit. With one of these you have a dead cinch on your crop. No need to wait until your neighbor is through; you can thresh when you please and with the ordinary help on the ranch.

STOP PAYING RENT Own your own home. A paid up contract in the National Home Seekers' Association will entitle you to a HOME or a Farm or $1,000 cash. The accumulations in the home fund will be loaned to contract holders applying for same to purchase a home or a farm, or to pay off a mortgage, and may be returned at the rate of $5.50 per month on each $1,000 borrowed. In case of sickness or loss of employment payments will be met from the reserve fund. We invite investigation. G. E. Kellogg, agent, at Bulletin office, Moro, Ore.
